

WOULD KICK AND SCREAM

Baby's Awful Suffering from Eczema - Could Not Hold Her - Tore Face and Arms Almost to Pieces - Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES SAVED HER LIFE"

"When my baby was six months old, she had eczema. We used all kinds of remedies, but nothing did her any good; in fact, she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her on the table, for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no traces of the humor left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and I should advise any one suffering as she did, to give Cuticura a fair trial." - Mrs. G. A. Conrad, Lisbon, N. H.

FIVE YEARS LATER

Mrs. Conrad Writes: "It is with pleasure that I can inform you that the cure has been permanent. It is now six years since she was cured, and there has been no return of the disease since. I have advised a lot of friends to use Cuticura in all diseases of the skin."

EDITOR'S MAIL. TWO MISARRIAGES OF JUSTICE.

Sir:—We are not surprised at your comments on the recent decision of the Stipendiary Magistrate of this City, wherein, according to your reporter, he has held that a wife is not a compellable witness against her husband. What has appeared to your lay mind as contrary to common justice, is to the legal mind equally contrary to the laws.

To make this clear it only needs a few words. Under the decision of Gosselin vs The King the Supreme Court of Canada interpreting the Canada Evidence Act has held that except as to communications between husband and wife (this word "communication" not including facts gained by her own observation and knowledge) the wife is a compellable witness against her husband. So that in relation to any subject over which the Federal Parliament has jurisdiction, she must testify fully, except only as to communications made to her by her husband.

Under the Provincial Evidence Act 32 Vic Cap 9—husbands and wives are expressly made competent and compellable witnesses for or against each other, excepting only communications between them made during marriage. The prohibition Act has been held to be within the Legislative authority of this Province—a subject matter over which it has control—with full power to fine or imprison for its breach.

EDITOR'S MAIL. THE CITY ACCOUNTS.

Sir,—In Saturday's Guardian you complain of the City Accounts not being published as they should be. Are you aware that the contract does not require the printer to deliver them to the City until May 1st, and that this contract was deliberately made, no doubt for a purpose?

[We are aware that advance sheets of the City accounts are usually given out in January. In an election year, like the present, the Accounts ought to be in the hands of the electors at the earliest possible date. If the contracts permit their delay till May, as our correspondent states, it is altogether inexcusable. The Mayor and Council ought to explain the delay in any case.—GUARDIAN.]

"It seemed hopeless to keep father from drinking, and we all felt the despair. When things were at their worst my friend advised me to try Samaria. I was that you offered a free sample treatment and that the remedy was tasteless and could be given secretly. I determined to try it, and, have been glad every day since. The full treatment, which I gave him in his tea, cured him, and I am pleased to say he never touches whiskey now. How glad I was that I wrote you and how happy we all are together. Father says that he could never have stopped drinking of his own accord."
