

BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS

Is the subject of conversation by women just now, and where to buy them is more important still. We have sold more Boys' Suits this season than ever before—there must be a cause for it. Our last season's suits must have given satisfaction. Our new suits are now in to fit little lads of 4 to 10 years, only $1.50. Just think of it, the cloth alone would cost you that. For lads from 10 to 16—we have 3 piece suits—Coat, vest and pants, made of good tweed, nice colors, will give good satisfaction—the price is only $3.25. See them in our window to-day.

THE CAPITAL OF THE WEST

Miss Leonard Caldwell left on Saturday on return to Concord N. H.

Mrs. Frank Baker left by the Northumberland Saturday for a few weeks visit to friends in Boston.

Mrs. Muriel Massey left on Saturday on return to McGill. She will visit friends in Moncton for a short time en route.

Mrs. May Hillman, Bay View, crossed by the Northumberland on Saturday on return to Boston after a visit to her home.

O. C. Jones of the Bank of New Brunswick, St. John's after spending a vacation in Summerside and vicinity left yesterday on return.

Miss Birnie S. leaves left Saturday on return to Moncton after spending the summer visiting friends in Summerside. She was accompanied by Mrs. Frank McEwen and Miss Helen McEwen who will visit in Moncton for a short time.

Many will regret to learn that S. M. Bell, of the Summerside Journal, is confined to his house through severe illness. About twelve o'clock on Saturday night he had a hemorrhage. He was reported somewhat improved yesterday evening.

Miss Emily Harvey crossed by the Northumberland on Saturday on return to Boston from a visit to her home at Victoria. She was accompanied by her sister Miss Ida and her cousin Miss Alice Harvey who will spend the winter in Boston.

George Hinton crossed by the Northumberland yesterday en route to visit friends in Newcastle and Bathurst, N. B. He was accompanied by his sister Mrs. Hodnot who is returning to Bathurst from spending a month visiting in Summerside.

J. A. Gourlie while on duty in his drugstore Sunday evening was stricken with paralysis. Three physicians attended him, and early next morning he was carried home. While he has not lost consciousness he has since been unable to speak. Up to last evening his condition was not much changed.

This death occurred suddenly yesterday morning about eight o'clock of Mrs. Ebban Weir aged over eighty years. She had been a hardy woman considering her age and on Saturday as usual did a good day's work at scrubbing. Yesterday morning while in apparently good health she was making up her bed when she dropped dead. Coroner Bowness viewed the remains and considering an inquest unnecessary gave a permit for burial.

There was still another narrow escape from dreadful accident at the railway station Saturday evening. While the express train for Charlottetown was moving out from the station a Summerside lady was knocked off the platform and underneath the cars. Only by her presence of mind was she saved from serious or perhaps fatal injury. She lay still until the train passed, and was assisted to the platform in a somewhat frightened state, but not at all hurt.

COUNCILLOR James A. Morrison met with a severe accident yesterday while he with E. W. Manson was out shooting at Gamble's Pond, St. Nicholas. He had taken Mr. Manson to the opposite side of the pond in a boat in order to get some 'punch' and was returning for him when picking up one of the guns which was in the bow of the boat intending to place it on the bank, the hammer caught in the boat and the gun discharged inflicting an ugly wound badly lacerating the outer side of his right hand from above the wrist to the second joint of the little finger. Luckily no bones were broken. After the accident Mr. Morrison sculled to the other side, walked about a mile and then drove nine miles home. His wound was dressed by two physicians and is now doing as well as can be expected.

The Guardian is pleased to announce this morning the nuptials of one of our popular physicians, Dr. John Jardine, Summerside and Miss Inez Hazel Sturdy of Victoria, Crapaud. The marriage takes place at seven o'clock this evening in the Methodist Church at Victoria. The ceremony will be performed by Revs. G. F. Dawson, Tryon, and Dr. Smith, Summerside. The groom will be supported by J. Frank McMillan manager of the Summerside branch of the Merchants Bank of P. E. I. while the bride will be attended by Miss Nan Poole, Charlottetown. The ushers are J. E. Robertson and W. W. Stewart. Mrs. E. Boswell will play the wedding march. After the ceremony a reception will be given at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. L. Nelson Sturdy, where a number of the immediate friends of the contracting parties will join in a pleasant hour. After the wedding festivities the happy couple will leave for their home in Summerside. To Dr. and Mrs. Jardine a large circle of friends will extend best wishes. The Guardian joins in felicitations.
