CHARM YOUR FELLOW-WOMAN Everything in life points to the probability of the modern woman being more and more thrown upon her own sex for enjoyment, and it is a grave matter that we do not enjoy each other's society as men do. The fault is our own. All women have latent charm, and if they would use it in extending, instead of limiting, their field of social in tercourse they would find them selves gradually equipped with a broader range of appreciation and information and might be making a step toward that elusive thing we all covet but will not try to win—culture.

IN MEMORIAM ANNIE ETHEL GORDON Annie Ethel, twenty-two months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gordon, Abney, passed away on February 14th. More than a year ago little Ethel was stricken down with the Flu from which she never fully recovered. A few days before her death she had a very heavy cold which proved too much for the small portion of strength possessed. During all the interven ing months she was the constant care of her mother and other mem bers of the family. Her mother served her with such love and devo tion as to claim the admiration of the whole community. The tender little ones are the little lambs of the Great Shepherd's Fold when He calls them unto Himself they should be gladly surrendered knowing His will to be true and wise. Heaven's music grows the sweeter because of their young. We commend the sorrowing father and mother any remaining child rens to the tender compassion of Jesus Christ. May they find His grace sufficient for them.

MISS MARGARET FLORENCE CLARK The death occurred at Savage Harbor on Tuesday February 17th of Margaret Florence Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Clark after an illness of only three days. Death is always sad, but it is even more especially so, when one whose future seemed filled with the brightest prospects is called away in the midst of youth being only fourteen years of age. Deeply grieved was a kind and lovable father, who had made for a fa vorable career with all who knew her, and having always enjoyed the best of health her sudden and unexpected death was a great shock to her many friends.

MR. WILLIAM HICKEN There departed this life on the eleventh day of February, 1920 an aged and respected resident of Pem brook Road in the person of Wil liam Hicken who had reached the age of eighty-two years. Mr. Hicken had been enjoying a fairly good health until about five weeks previous to his death when he contracted a cold which de veloped into pneumonia and he pass ed peacefully away on the above mentioned date. He leaves to mourn one brother Thomas of Allison and three sons and two daughters the sons are James and Lemuel of Pembroke Road and George of Gasperaux and the daughters are Mrs. A. Finley of Cambridge Road and Mrs. R. J. Llewellyn of Sturgeon. The funeral which was largely attend ed on the 13th at one p. m. was conducted by the Rev. A. Suther land of Murray Harbor and the Rev. C. Graham of Montague. The remains were laid to rest in the Murray Harbor North Cem etery beside his wife who prede ceased him sixteen years ago and his daughter Margaret who passed away one year ago. His survivors are John D. Steele, Peter McKenzie, McLean Graham, William B. Graham, Aus tin Davey and Milton Reynolds.

MRS. ANDREW CONNORS The death took place Monday, in New Glasgow, N.S., of Mrs. Andrew Connors, an aged lady, well and favorably known. Mrs. Connors came to New Glasgow from P. E. I. twenty-five years ago. She was born at Lot 49, Pownal, and was the daughter of Joseph Acorn, a prominent mill-wright and miller of that section. Mrs. Connors was a remarkably strong and healthy woman, and a great reader, and was well liked by all who knew her, and was 81 years of age. The cause of death was a stroke of paralysis, which she took on the Tuesday before. The body was removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clayton Clarke, from where the funeral took place. The funeral service at the house was a most beautiful and affecting one, and a tribute to the goodness of the aged lady. The services were conducted by Rev. B. J. Porter and Rev. Dr. Simpson. During the service Miss McKay and Miss Fraser sang a neat "Some Day." In a touching and effective and beau tiful manner. The body was buried on the beau tiful slope of Brookside Cemetery.

Smooth the locks of silver hair On mother's brow, with tenderest care. Gather the robe in final fold Lay on her bosom, pure as snow, The fairest and sweetest flowers that grow; Kiss her and leave her, our heart's delight; Her pain is over—she sleeps to night. 7417.

JAMES McDONALD

It is our sad duty to record to day the death of James McDonald of St. George's P. E. I. The de ceased was born at Launcheon about eighty eight years ago. In early life he learned the trade of ship and house carpenter in which line of work he did more than any other. At the age of thirty-three he married Elizabeth Walker, sister of Rev. E. Walker of Rollo Bay and settled on land at St. George's where he made for him self a family a comfortable one. His family consist of eleven—two sons and a daughter predeceased him. Those left to mourn are viz: John P. of Rollo Bay; A. Bennett of Boston, Mass.; Dr. E. J. McDonald (New Aberdeen); J. McDonald (Place Bay, C. B.); and Teresa and Clement on the homestead; also Mary A. (Mrs. John F. McDoad), Little Pond. In the later years of his life kidney trouble gradually undermined his health. On Sunday morning, January 25th, he peacefully passed to his eternal reward and on Tuesday, January 27th, his remains after a High Mass of Requiem by his pastor Rev. D. J. G. McDonald were laid to rest in St. George's cemetery beside those of his wife who died some years ago. May his soul rest in peace.—Other papers please copy.

JOHN McPHERSON There passed away at his home at Valleyfield, P. E. Island, on the 25th January, John McPherson, aged 86, one of the old landmarks of this place. He came with his parents when seven years of age from the Isle of Skye, Scotland. They settled in Valleyfield, where he lived till the day of his death. He was afflicted with blindness for some time but he bore his affliction with Christian fortitude and resignation to the divine will. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing widow, three sons and five daughters, John at home, Donald and Laughlin, in the Western States. The daughters are: Mrs. M. R. McLeod, Glen William; Mrs. W. Fraser, Buzzards Bay; Mrs. John McLeod, Head of Montague; Mrs. Angus A. Stewart, High Bank and Mrs. Forbes, Somerville, Mass. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. McEwen.
