SENSATIONAL TURN IN MURDER CASE

Haynes Turns King's Evidence. His Confession Implicates Murdered Man's Wife and Another. Both Arrested

(Special to The Guardian) SYDNEY, May 8.—The day set for the execution of Frank Haynes has arrived, but up to an early hour this morning no word in regard to postponement of the execution has been received.

It is not, however, expected, as it is customary to hold executions in the early morning. The Sheriff and Deputy drove to the jail yesterday afternoon with the fixtures for the gallows. All is being got ready for the final scene.

Despite all preparations, friends of Haynes still hope there will be a stay of procedure as there is no certainty yet that Haynes will be hanged.

Today is the day fixed for the execution at Sydney, C. B., of Frank Wesley Haynes for the execution of Benjamin S. Atkinson, of that city.

As the result of the sensational developments which occurred on Wednesday when Haynes made a confession, implicating the widow of the murdered man and John Donalds, an insurance man of Sydney, it is probable that the execution will be stayed until Haynes' charges against these persons can be investigated.

On Wednesday Haynes was confined for three hours at the county jail with Magistrate W. R. Hearn and Crown Prosecutor D. A. Hearn, and made a statement. Sheriff Ingraham

U.S. PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER WEDS

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, May 8.—Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of President and Mrs. Wilson, became the bride, to-night, of William Gibbs McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, in the historic Blue room of the White House. No fewer than a hundred persons witnessed the ceremony which was conducted by Rev. Sylvester Rush, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Princeton, N.J., where the Wilson family worshipped for years. The ceremony was very simple.

THE SITUATION IN MEXICO

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, May 7.—Two chief reports from Mexico, announced the killing of two British subjects and one American at Guadalajara and continued heavy fighting at Mazatlan on the Western Coast, where a Rebel biplane executed a spectacular exploit in dropping a bomb which killed four persons and injured eight in the streets of the besieged city.

The State Department is informed by Consul Harm at Durango that the movement of the Constitutional forces now begun southward is a movement against Saitillo and La Catecas.

In the Senate Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the committee on Military Affairs, introduced a resolution authorizing the President to increase the regular army above the Statutory limit of 100,000 men in time of war or when war is imminent or on other occasions of grave National emergency requiring the use of the regular army. The peace plan, it is learned, is not to be formulated until negotiations at Niagara Falls, Canada, shall have produced a basis of information and exchange of views between the mediators and the delegates. Representatives of oil interests told Secretary Bryan that in consequence of their enforced absence from Mexico their leases are being transferred to rivals.

This, it is understood, means British concessionaires are beneficiaries. It is understood these leases are being transferred at Mexico City and some Americans claim they face financial ruin in consequence.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK THE OCEAN LIMITED. A despatch from Truro dated May 6 says:—What appears to have been a dastardly attempt to wreck the Ocean Limited train, from Montreal for Halifax, was made at Bible Hill, about one mile west of Truro, last night, and that a had run-off, with probably loss of life, did not occur was not due to any fault on the part of the party or parties who placed the obstruction on the track, but to the ever watchful eye of the driver.

The Limited was about forty minutes late, in charge of Conductor James Daley, and Driver Warren Gross, with engine 438, and was speeding at about a fifty mile an hour clip, when the driver saw a sleeper lying cross ways on the track ahead. Quickly applying the air-brakes the train stopped, but not until the sleeper was struck and shoved ahead of the engine for about one hundred feet. The matter is being investigated.

A BIG NIGHT WITH THE K. P.'S

One of the most enjoyable and successful events in the history of Empire Lodge, No. 19, Knights of Pythias, took place last evening in Castle Hall, when the ranks of Page and Esquire were conferred on a Golden Jubilee class of twelve candidates.

The Lodge room was filled with members of the Order. After the conferring of the ranks, dainty refreshments were served and an enjoyable programme was rendered, consisting of solos by Bros. G. Elmer Ritchie, Samuel Campbell, J. Webb Stanley, A. B. Cosh, J. Parker Hooder, and speeches from B. Roy Holman, John R. McDonald, Dr. Ira J. Yeo, John A. Webster, C. L. MacKay, J. H. Williams, and others.

Bro. W. T. Wellner presided at the piano to the entire satisfaction of all. A very pleasing part of the programme was the singing by all the members of that touching song entitled "We're here because we're here," the solo part being ably taken by Bro. B. Roy Holman. After the singing of Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King, the happy gathering was brought to a close, every one feeling the evening spent was one of the most enjoyable yet. Bro. Andrew McNair capably filled the duties of chairman of the social part of the proceedings.

A hearty vote of thanks was conveyed to the committee in charge, viz., C. L. MacKay, Andrew McNair and B. Roy Holman, for their efforts in making the event such a successful one.

Counsel: Stewart, K. C., for the plaintiff; Johnston, K. C., and Saunders for defendant.

In the application for a writ of attachment against the Sheriff of Queen's County for refusing to execute a writ of replevin, Mr. Stewart, K. C., showed cause against the rule of attachment. Mr. Johnston replied and closed his address at 5 o'clock, when the Court adjourned until Thursday next.

LIBERALS ENDORSE C.N.R. AGREEMENT

(Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, May 7.—The Naval Appropriation Bill was put through the House to-day without a roll call. The bill calls for $139,560,334 and the programme is for two battleships, one to be built in some government shipyard, six torpedo boat destroyers, one sea-going torpedo boat, three coast defense submarine torpedo boats, to be constructed on the Pacific Coast, and four submarines.

CALUMNY CAMPAIGN AGAINST CANADA

(From Our Own Reporter) OTTAWA, May 7.—That three Provincial Liberal Premiers strongly urged upon the Government, in writing, their views that the Federal Government should come to the assistance of the Canadian Northern Railway, was shown by correspondence which the Premier tabled to-day. This correspondence includes letters from Hon. J. A. Calder, Acting Premier of Saskatchewan, Premier Murray of Nova Scotia, and Premier Sifton, of Alberta.

There is also a strong letter from Sir Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, urging similar action. The Liberal Provincial Premiers took strong ground that the C.N.R. should be given Federal assistance so as to enable it to complete its transcontinental line and, in addition, they emphasized the fact that the giving of assistance may facilitate the building of the branch lines so urgently needed in Western Canada. Not one of the Premiers suggested that there should be any effort made to secure concessions from the railroad so that the bargain which the Government has been able to negotiate goes far beyond what they hoped would be possible of accomplishment.

The stand taken by these Liberal Premiers and expressed in writing will put the Liberal members in the House in a rather peculiar position if they oppose seriously the proposals of the Government. Their opposition will be a case of repudiating the views taken by the Local Governments they have supported, and to whom they must look for a certain amount of support. Liberal members from these provinces frankly admit that the attitude of the Provincial Premiers must be a big influence in determining their party attitude.

The funeral of the late Mr. George E. Auld takes place this afternoon at two o'clock from his residence in Brighton to St. James' Church, a short private service being held at the home for the family.

COL. SAM HUGHES SUBMITS ESTIMATES

(From Our Own Reporter) OTTAWA, May 7.—For months past the Liberal Opposition has been boasting of what would happen when Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, came before the House with his estimates. Ottawa has been at times inclined to take the Liberals at their word and looked for fireworks to-day.

But the fireworks came from the other side, for Col. Hughes turned his artillery on the Opposition and before the afternoon was far spent, had them badly discomfited.

The Minister charged that when he took office in the fall of 1911, he found his department facing an overdraft of no less than $649,000. More than this, he found that Sir Frederick Borden had ordered ordnance to the value of over four million dollars. The equipment and stores of the department were exhausted and had to be replenished at once. Notwithstanding this fact the estimates of the first year of office were a smaller percentage of the country's outlay than during the years of Sir Frederick Borden's regime. Further, for the two succeeding years of his administration the same thing had been true.

For militia purposes there was being asked this year an amount that was only four and a half per cent. of the revenue, though at the time of Confederation, it was understood that the militia should be allowed ten per cent. of the revenue.

Col. Hughes showed, in addition, that since he assumed office there had been a general development of the Canadian militia and that the force was never more efficient or of higher standing than at the present time. "It is sometimes asked if you can have a democratic army," said the Minister of Militia. "I believe that you cannot have a democratic standing army, but I do believe that a democratic militia is possible that would be the equal, if not the superior, of any standing army in the world."

Col. Hughes made it quite clear that he was opposed to any standing army for Canada, but he did not believe there was any danger from militarism in having citizens properly trained. The danger of militarism lay in having a permanent force removed from industry.

Col. Hughes pointed with very pardonable pride to the splendid development of the cadet system. Last year 44,000 cadets had been equipped and trained. No less than 12,000 school teachers had also been trained last year, so that they were able to give the children military instruction. He declared that, were eternal peace the rule of the world, would still stand by his cadet system and military training.

The Minister met every kind of criticism that has been launched at his department. He instanced the fact that there had been criticism of the drill halls built throughout the country. Nevertheless there had never been so great a demand for drill halls as at present. There were 1,000 applications before the department at present, though only 25 could be built this year. The Minister emphasized the fact that towns and cities all over the country were ready to give free sites and many thousands of dollars had been saved in this way. The amount spent on drill halls since the Conservatives came into power was $2,300,000, this providing fifty drill halls.

EVERYTHING IS NOW UNDER WAY FOR THE GUARDIAN'S GREAT CONTEST

Letters, Telephones and Personal Calls Keep Contest Manager Busy All Day and Evening Giving Suggestions to the Interested Ones. More Names Received To-day and All Want a Subscription Book in Order to Get to Work; Easy to Get Help, Say Those Who Have Already Started

The Guardian's Great Prize Contest is now under full way, and every contestant realizes that an early start is the one essential point to be remembered in this great competition for fame and fortune.

There seems to be a class of candidates that are very scarce in this territory. The men, where are they? This is a proposition that should appeal to them. Think of the prizes that are offered. Can you afford to allow this opportunity to pass you unheeded?

A large number of nominations have been received already, and some of the subscribers who were intending to pay in advance, inquired the names of contestants who have been nominated up to date.

Any candidate who desires to enter may get in as many votes as possible by securing paid subscriptions to the paper, according to the schedule of votes. Below appears a nomination blank good for 1,000 votes. This coupon will count for 1,000 votes when properly filled out and brought or mailed to the contest department of The Guardian. Only one will count for any one candidate.

ENTER YOUR NAME EARLY. START PLEDGING FRIENDS. To inform the many who have telephoned the contest department asking information as to the best way to start, the contest manager advised everyone who intends to get to work on this campaign to set out at once and get promises from their friends to save for them the coupons that will be published daily. While they count only 25 votes taken separately in the aggregate these coupons will count up faster than the contestant dreams. With thousands of them published every day, it should not be difficult for the live contestant to have his or her friends save a few thousand.

Now is the time to get to work pledging your friends. Every day you delay means just so many coupons lost to you, and every vote will count. Many an election and many a competition has been won with only a few votes to spare.

If you try, surely you can be first in your district, an honor that would be worth the effort, even if the prize were not offered. Get everyone you can to pay for this paper and turn that in to your credit. Then your name will have a fine start. With your name at the head of the list for your district, it will not be hard to convince others to save their votes for you.
