Little Boy Caught Cold While Out Playing

Mr. F. Cade, Elawood, Man. ... My little boy caught cold in out playing in the snow. He coughed incessantly all that night and next day, and nothing I gave him seemed to relieve him. When my husband came home he brought a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Sneezing

The forerunner of colds and grip. The great preventative.

Wampole's Emulsion

It leads them all and we highly recommend it. Price $1.00 per bottle.

WINSLOE NOTES

Mrs. Geo. Rouch of Winsloe has returned home after spending an enjoyable week's vacation in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Brynton.

Miss Elsie Hamby of Winsloe spent an enjoyable weekend at East Royalty, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edwyn Hamby.

MR. ALEX. MCPHERSON, who was one of the heavy losers in the recent fire on Queen Street, has again opened up a shop in the building formerly occupied by the Charlottetown Selling Agency, where he will again carry a full line of groceries and will be pleased to meet all his old customers as well as new ones.

Mr. McPherson will also have the Guardian on sale every morning. We wish Mr. McPherson every success and trust he will receive a good share of the public patronage.

NOTICE

After Jan 2nd I will have very special prices on all my stock during the whole winter for cash. I ask every customer who is in a hurry to call, and ask for prices at any time. Expenses are low and you will be convinced it pays to buy for cash. Thanking the public for all past business and soliciting a fine share from you this coming year, a Happy New Year to all. Flour and feeds a specialty. Lloyd Cox, Morell, 3653 1-4-61

GRANVILLE NOTES

The farmers of this vicinity are busily engaged in hauling their winter firewood. Mr. B. W. Taylor arrived home from Sydney and reports business good. The school is progressing nicely under the care of Miss Casley. Our village blacksmith is kept busy building sleighs. He hired a first class painter Ira Mallett to finish them. Mr. John Stewart of Brookfield has finished the beautiful large barn for Mrs. Wadman of South Granville and is busy installing the water system. They held a goose supper and whist party at Mrs. Wadman's New Year's eve and Mr. Stewart won first prize and Mr. Ernest Colley, second. The many friends of Mr. T. B. Adams are glad to see him out again after his serious illness. Mr. Harold Adams spent the week end at Prentown. Mr. Theo. Taylor paid a flying visit to New Glasgow. Mr. and Mrs. George Whitlock, Hunter River, spent New Year's with Mrs. Whitlock's mother, Mrs. Wall of Granville.

SPRINGFIELD NOTES

The annual Christmas Tree and Concert was held in the hall on the evening of the 23rd inst. Despite the inclemency of the weather the hall was filled and the program which was well rendered testified to the talent of the pupils and the careful training of their teacher Miss Theresa Woodside assisted by Mrs. Everett Haslam. The sum of $28.00 was realized. Mrs. Fred W. E. Haslam spent Christmas with her mother in Bedouque. Mrs. J. E. Sinclair is spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. A. B. Culliffe, Hunter River. Mrs. Ernest Haslam spent Christmas with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John MacLeod, New Glasgow. A large number of the congregation of St. Elizabeth's Church and many friends gathered at the home of Mrs. H. B. Haslam on Wednesday evening, December 23rd in honor of their organist Miss Muriel Haslam, who has so capably filled that position for a number of years. She was presented with a well filled purse by Mr. Harry Ford while Rev. Mr. Rand read the address. Mr. Lewis Haslam of Mt. Allison Academy, Sackville, spent the Christmas holidays at his home in Springfield. Messrs. Robert, Lloyd and James Haslam are spending their holidays with their parents George L. and Mrs. Haslam of Springfield. Mr. Ira MacKay is building a fox ranch on the farm which he recently purchased from Mr. John Cotton. Mrs. Everett Haslam is spending a few days in Fredericton the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weeks. Miss Theresa Woodside has returned after spending her Christmas holidays with her parents in Clinton.

FRANCE WILL CELEBRATE BEETHOVEN'S CENTENARY

PARIS, Jan. 11. —Beethoven's centenary this year will be celebrated officially in France. This decision was taken at a Cabinet meeting today on the proposition of Edouard Herriot, Minister of Education. It will be the first time in many years any such tribute has been paid by France to any German, however great the genius. The celebration will take the form of a series of Beethoven concerts, at one of which the President of the Republic will probably attend, and the Government will be represented.
