MEETING OF MORELL C. Y. O.

On November 7 the members of the C. Y. O. gathered at the home of Mr. Grover Coffin for their semi-monthly meeting. Twenty-three members were present.

In the absence of the president Mr. Joseph MacInnis, the vice-president, Miss Helena Rossiter opened the meeting with prayer.

It was decided to have a barn dance in the hall on November 30. A discussion on having a Christmas concert followed. After the business part of the meeting was finished a social evening was spent.

A delicious lunch was served by the committee in charge. Place of next meeting at the home of Mr. J. B. Jay in which the roll call will be answered by each member bringing a Christmas gift for the children of the Orphanage. On motion the meeting closed with prayer.

HAZELBROOK B.Y.P.U.

The annual re-organization meeting of the Hazelbrook B.Y.P.U. took place in the church vestry on Sept. 14. During the election of officers the minister, Lic. Rev. Father Urban Gillis and Rev. Byron Howlett was appointed chairman and the following persons were elected: Mrs. Queenie MacKinnon (re-elected); vice-president, Mrs. Gladys Howlett; secretary, Miss Eva Jenkins; assistant secretary, Mr. Earle Jones; treasurer, Mrs. Olive Jenkins; Wendall Jenkins was appointed to the charge of obtaining slides for the projector.

On Oct. 21st, several members of the group, assisted by Miss Josephine MacLellan, field worker of the U.B.W.M.U. went to the Protestant Orphanage, Mt. Herbert to entertain the children. The minister took charge and the children joined in several choruses. Mrs. Sue Jones was the pianist. Mrs. Olive Jenkins read a story and Little Leslie and Melody Howlett sang two choruses. Jean MacKinnon sang "God sees the little sparrows fall" and the children joined in the chorus. Eva Jenkins read a short poem and Misses Marie Myers and Barbara MacPhail sang "Jesus bids us shine". Miss MacLellan entertained the children with a story on the flannelgraph and led in singing more choruses. A hymn and prayer closed the evening's entertainment and a hamper of apples was left for the children to enjoy the next day.

On Friday Oct. 28 the monthly social evening was held in the form of a Halloween party at the parsonage. Fun and games were enjoyed by all amid jack-o-lanterns and skeletons. Several members wore weird costumes which contributed to the ghostly atmosphere. Lunch was served by the girls and dishes were washed by the boys. A short devotional period brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

Georgetown and Vicinity

Dr. A. Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy this week motored to Moncton, N. B., on business.

Mr. Elmer Hatch, local trapper has commenced his annual trapping operations and we understand his efforts have already brought results. Mr. Hatch each fall catches a number of foxes, mink, racoon and muskrats.

town of Mr. Joseph Kiggins in his 49th year on Tuesday, Nov. 15th at the home of his sister, Mrs. P. L. Boudreau. The late Mr. Kiggins was born at Kelly's Cross but had made his home in Georgetown for the past 25 years.

After receiving his early education in his birthplace, he entered St. Dunstan's University, graduating from there in 1921. He then entered Grand Seminary in Halifax, but after a period of study his health necessitated his returning to his native Province where he entered the teaching profession. During his years spent in the Province he held the positions of principal and vice-principal of Georgetown High School and taught in the High Schools of Alberton and Emerald and in Gaspereaux. Possessed of a friendly and kindly nature he made a host of friends throughout the Province, who will learn with sincere regret of his passing. The many Mass Cards and floral tributes attested to the high esteem in which he was held. The late Mr. Kiggins is survived by three brothers:—Rev. Father Owen Kiggins, parish priest at Georgetown, Mr. Aeneas Kiggins of Kelly's Cross and Mr. Mark Kiggins of Cambridge, Mass., and by three sisters, Mrs. P. L. Boudreau and Mrs. Felix Morrison both of Georgetown and Mrs. James Wilson of Cardigan to whom sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement. The funeral was held on Thursday, November 17th, at 9 o'clock at St. James Church where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Owen Kiggins, assisted by Rev. Father John Sullivan of St. Dunstan's as Deacon; Rev. Father Harold Croken of Cardigan as Sub-deacon and Rev. Father Wilfred McCordie of Kinkora as Master of Ceremonies. Present in the Sanctuary were:—Rev. Father Urban Gillis and Rev. Father Gallant both of Vernon River and Rev. Father Finlay Mulvey of St. James Church, under the direction of Mayor P. L. Boudreau, assisted by Rev. Father Bernard Gillis of Charlottetown, Rev. Father Basil Croken of St. Teresa, Major J. A. MacDonnell of Cardigan, Mr. Maurice Daley and Mr. Lawrence Daley of Sturgeon, Internment took place in St. James Church Cemetery. The teachers and pupils of Georgetown High School attended the funeral in a body. The pall bearers were, Philip Bourdieu, Daley of Sturgeon, F. J. DeLory, Elmer Jeffery, George MacCormack and J. B. Scully.

JOHN R. BRAZIL

There passed suddenly away in the City Hospital on Sunday morning Oct. 16th John R. Brazil of Donagh in his 76th year. Deceased, who had previously been enjoying his usual good health suffered a stroke while performing his chores on Tuesday evening and although partially knocked out at the time fortunately recovered enough to receive the last rites of the Catholic Church of which he was a devoted member before becoming unconscious from which he never rallied.

Mr. Brazil's sudden death will be greatly felt in his community, and especially in his home where with the assistance of his two sisters, Emma and Elizabeth he enjoyed farming for a good many years. He was a neat and careful workman, who always took great pride in keeping his home, farm and machinery in first class condition, and although he never married he always took a great pleasure in assisting and helping out in many ways his many nephews and his valuable advice was much appreciated in his day. He possessed a quiet and genial disposition, and was held in high respect in his own and adjoining districts and this was highly manifested by the great number who turned out on Tuesday morning and followed his remains to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus, where high mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Louis Callaghan who also performed the service at the grave.

There are left to mourn four sisters, Anna, Mrs. Michael Murnaghan, Tarrantum; Margaret, Brookline, Mass., and Emma and Elizabeth at home and two brothers, Thomas, Johnston's River, and William, Chapleau, Ontario, besides a large circle of friends.

The survivors were his six nephews Andrew, Dennis, Rudolph and John Murnaghan and Melvin and John Brazil. May his soul rest in peace.
