There passed away at her home at Linkletter, on April the ninth, after a lingering illness, Hannah Dickieson, aged 62 years, beloved wife of Frederick White. Mrs. White was born at Wilmot Valley and was a daughter of the late Daniel Dickieson, who leaves to mourn her husband and one son, Henry, also four brothers, H. R. of Reynolds, Dakota, A. E. of Springfield, Mass., Ruben of Wilmot, and John of Summerside and five sisters, Mrs. J. Bath of Reynolds, Dakota, Mrs. L. Jummings of Law-Paw, Michigan, Mrs. D. Hardman of Lawrence, Michigan, Mrs. James Orr, French River, and Mrs. James Glover, Kelvin. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon last, to Wilmot Cemetery.

A case that attracted considerable local interest came up for hearing before D. C. Ramsay, J. P., of Port Hill, a few days ago. It appears that Peter Gould, who has no love for dogs, shot and killed an unpedigreed canine owned by a neighbor James Thompson. Thompson resented the murder and on meeting the slayer of his pet dog, discussed the question with him, emphasizing his remarks by a blow, which, however, drew no blood. Gould had Thompson arrested for assault and the latter was fined five dollars and costs amounting to about $8.00. The value of the dog has not been ascertained. —Pioneer.

The show window of Bowness' studio, Summerside, presents a pretty sight at present. In the centre of the window is the Hunt Trophy and a large picture of the Pioneer Hockey Team, the winners of this trophy which is emblematic of the Junior Hockey Championship of P. E. I. The rest of the window is filled with photos of local people finished in the excellent style, for which this studio is noted. The work includes all the latest American finishes and designs, which the present proprietor, Percy L. Bowness, has introduced in Summerside. Before taking charge of this business he was employed in one of the largest photo studios in Massachusetts. The Bowness' studio is known all over the Province, for the past thirty-five years. Associated with Mr. Bowness is W. G. Maxwell, late of Dodd's Studio, Sydney, and who as a photo artist is second to none in the Province.

The remains of the late Frank Kinch, son of Peter Kinch, of Tighe, crossed over to the Island in the Minto on Good Friday, and were conveyed to his home the same evening, the mail special having made connection with the regular train for the west at Royalty Junction. The remains were accompanied by two sisters, Mrs. W. Kidding of Wilmington, Delaware, and Miss Winnie G. Kinch of Boston. The late Mr. Kinch left his Island home four years ago, but last summer paid a visit to his old home, seemingly in the best of health and spirits, returning to Boston in September where he was engaged with the Hume Carriage and Automobile Co. He was a young man of excellent qualities, and his demise, at the early age of 23, from hemorrhage of the lungs, is greatly regretted by his many friends and acquaintances. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

MILLINERY OPENING An Unqualified Success

"Easily the best ever" was the universal verdict of the unusually large throng of ladies, not to mention quite a sprinkle of gentlemen, which thronged our Millinery Parlors on the occasion of, what is now conceded to be, the important style function of the season, our Annual Spring Millinery Opening.

A most authoritative expression of correct style tendencies, modified for the most part, to suit our more conservative Canadian tastes, were presented for the choice and admiration of all, and it was truly gratifying to note the universal approval freely given expression to on all sides, as the bewitching creations passed under review.

The new pot turban, the large Russian turban, the Directoire poke, the dome crowned nushroom, and many others equally high at Fashion's Court, are here delineated; while everything that is new, everything that is fashionable in Millinery Trimmings is provided in most generous profusion. Never have we shown such a beautiful variety and at such moderate prices.

Miss Walpert and her staff are now ready, and will be pleased to execute orders promptly and satisfactorily. Order early to avoid disappointment.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS FOR EASTER

This is another most important department and one to which we devote a large share of attention. Everything that is new, beautiful and fashionable in Men's or Boys' Furnishings or Clothing, will be found here, at prices so moderate, as to be real eye-openers to those who have hitherto been accustomed to patronize only furnishing stores.

Come in and see the latest ideas in Easter Ties, Shirts, Gloves, etc., also the nobby stock of Boys' Clothing we have just opened up.

An especially fine line of Easter trade winners are now on our counters. Come early!

Hotel Ware

Any hotel or restaurant keeper who is still using the old style crockery is losing money in two ways—First in excessive breakage and secondly, in the appearance of his table.

Hotel ware is made for hotels—it is heavy yet has a neat and good appearance. It is durable because it is made so, each piece having welded edges. We also have hotel tumblers, one that won't nest thereby lessening breakage.

See us about your next order.
