IN MEMORIAM

MRS. NINA ACKLEY

At the home of her sister, Mrs. George M. Peterson, 19 Willard St., Chelsea, Mass., on Oct. 18, Mrs. Nina Ackley passed away, aged 54 years, 1 month, 24 days.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Roumanian newspapers, as quoted in a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Zurich, say that the Russian general Visnolko asserted:— "In a fortnight at the latest, Russian troops will land on the Bulgarian coast."

Did You See The New MOIR Chocolates?

There are fresh MOIR'S Chocolates in today.

It seems to us that these chocolates are getting better all the time. These last have an unusually fine flavor, and they are so dainty, pure, wholesome and taste-tickling that they would smile away any jinx or grouch.

This week they are put up in a beautiful box that is well worth the price of a half-pound alone. Pound box 60c

WEDDING BELLS.—A pretty wedding was solemnized Monday morning at 6.30 o'clock in Notre Dame Academy, when Miss Kathleen Halloran and Mr. J. Peter McDonald, the well known and popular young druggist of the Two Macs were united in marriage. Rev. Maurice McDonald performed the ceremony, the choir of Notre Dame Convent rendering appropriate music. The bride was prettily attired in a becoming costume of Belgian blue and wore a black hat with pink trimmings. She was given away by her father, Mr. Edward Halloran, while her sister Miss Norene, was the bridesmaid and Mr. Frank Hennessey, did the honors of best man. There were many beautiful and valuable wedding presents, including a carving set from the groom's fellow members of the Belle Rose Company, two chairs from his fellow boarders at the Morell House, a silver tea set from Mr. Frank Hennessey, and many other gifts from relatives and friends. The happy couple left on a wedding trip to Boston and New York and upon their return they will make their home in the new house recently built by Mr. McDonald on Rochford Street. The Guardian joins with their hosts of friends in extending heartiest congratulations.

To Cure A Cough Remove the Cause.

Coughs are a result, not a disease. They are the result of inflammation caused by a cold, invading the delicate capillary air tubes in the lungs.

All of the narcotics in the world will not change the condition, they simply deaden the senses and afford temporary relief. OUR SYRUP OF TAR WITH COD LIVER OIL allays inflammation and promptly corrects the condition in the lungs and bronchial tubes, which causes the cough. Don't drug a cough—use OUR SYRUP OF TAR WITH COD LIVER OIL—a remedy which cures by removing the cause.

EDWARD W. DOYLE BURIED.—The Boston Traveller of Oct. 22nd says:—Funeral service for Edward Wilfred Doyle was held this morning in St. Catherine's Church, Somerville. Burial was in St. Paul's cemetery, Arlington. Mr. Doyle was born in Charlottetown, P. E. I., in 1845, son of Patrick and Mary (Carr) Doyle. His early education was obtained under his father in the district schools of the province. Having learned the printing trade he came to Boston and entered the employ of Rockwell & Churchill, with whom he remained 33 years, first as foreman then a superintendent. He then went into business for himself as contracting printer and was actively engaged up to a few days of his death. He was publisher of a number of books and owner of the Boston

Manual. He married in Boston in 1871. Mary Ring, who died in 1894. He married in 1904 Mrs. Emily Leard who survives him with the following children by the first marriage: Wilfred J. Doyle, assistant city clerk of Boston; Frank E. Doyle of St. Peter's Hall, Edgar W. Doyle of Springfield, Louis C. Doyle, attorney; Emily M. Doyle of Somerville, Henry G. Doyle instructor in Romance language at Harvard, and Arthur H. Doyle of Somerville.
