The Eastern Guardian

*IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

*STEAMER CLEARED.—The S. S. Alfred Mitchell, which has been lying in Georgetown Harbor since last fall, left on Tuesday morning and reached Port Hawkesbury, N.S., at 4 o'clock that afternoon. No doubt there are many who were sorry to see this ship and her crew depart after spending so pleasant a stay in their town.

*WEDDING BELLS.—An interesting event took place at the Manse, Souris, on Tuesday evening, May 7th, when Miss Carrie Meade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meade, of Rollo Bay, was united in marriage to James Wesley Jackson, of Fortune Bridge. Rev. A. Mackay officiating. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to their future home in Fortune Bridge.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS BARBARA CAMERON

Brudenell was greatly saddened on Sunday, May 5th, when its most aged resident, Miss Barbara Cameron, passed peacefully away at the home of her nephew, Mr. Robert C. Dewar. The late Miss Cameron who had passed her eighty-eighth year, was one of the most gentle and lovable of women. She was ever a sympathetic and true friend and greatly endeared herself to all who had the privilege of her acquaintance, consequently her death is felt as a severe loss by a very large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral, which took place from her home to the Georgetown Presbyterian cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, was largely attended, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. McVicar, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, Cardigan. The pall-bearers were Messrs. D. A. Wilson, E. S. Norton, John A. Gordon, Alex. Dewar.

But a year ago a sister, Miss Elizabeth, was taken by the grim reaper. These two ladies will long be remembered for their thoughtful and loving kindness to all, and even though we are saddened by their departure, yet we cannot but feel comforted with the thought that those who led such beautiful and useful lives as they did, will surely receive their reward and are now enjoying the blessings of the Great Beyond. The late Miss Cameron leaves to mourn three sisters, Mrs. John Dewar, Brudenell, Mrs. Anderson, St. Peter's, and Mrs. McNeill, Union Road, to whom the sincere sympathy of the whole community goes out, in this their sad loss of a gentle and loving sister, as well as to Mr. Dewar in the loss of a loving and true friend and aunt.

DEATH OF MRS. A. J. McNEILL, CALGARY

The Calgary Daily Herald of April 23rd, referring to the death of Mrs. A. J. McNeill formerly of this city, says: The news of Mrs. J. A. McNeill's death, which occurred yesterday at noon, came as a shock to her many friends, who had not realized that her illness was of such a serious nature.

Mrs. McNeill, who was the daughter of F. L. MacNutt, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., came west with her husband about twenty-one years ago, when they settled at Battleford, where Mr. MacNeill, whose death occurred four years ago at Los Angeles, Cal., was the Indian agent for five years. Later Mr. and Mrs. McNeill removed to Calgary, when Mr. McNeill was transferred to the Sarcee-reserve as agent, which post he held for 14 years. It was during their residence at the reserve that Mrs. McNeill earned for herself the enviable reputation of one of the most hospitable women of Calgary, for her home was always open for the entertainment and comfort of guests.

MRS. LEMUEL CLARK

There passed away at Rustico, on April 24th, Mrs. Lemuel Clark in her 76th year. She had suffered much for some months previous to her death, but the end came peacefully, and she retained consciousness to the last. She was a member of the New Glasgow Church of Christ, having become a Christian in early life.

Besides a large circle of relatives and acquaintances, she is survived by a sorrowing husband, one son and four daughters: John, Edith, and Ella at home; Mrs. Albert Martin, Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. Bismark Craswell, Rustico, P. E. I.; also three brothers and three sisters: W. G. Houston, North Rustico; John A. Houston, North Rustico; John A. Houston.

IT WAS TOO MUCH FOR HENRY

(Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph)

"Henry, dear," said Mrs. Newbride, to her husband, "I wish, if it won't be too much trouble, dear, that you'd bring me home a yard of orange ribbon this evening. I don't want it so very wide or so very narrow; something between an inch and an inch and a half, or, at most, an inch and three-quarters, will be about right."

MRS. CHARLES G. TIBBETTS

On May 6, there passed away at 41 Speedwell St., Dorchester, Mass., Mrs. Charles G. Tibbets, aged thirty-five years, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Arthur, Mount Hope. Although the end was not unexpected it came as a severe shock to her parents and friends. The deceased young woman was possessed of sterling qualities and a consistent Christian character. Her sweet lovable disposition endeared her to all who knew her. She was indeed loved and respected by all. Her life was an exemplary one, and it is comforting to her loved ones to know that her gentle spirit has winged its flight to Him Who gave it, and that she is "forever with the Lord" whom she loved and served so faithfully. The deep sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved. She leaves to mourn their loss besides her father and mother, a grief-stricken husband, and one little boy, Stewart Arthur, aged 16 months.

For Strong Personal Selling Message--Use Multigraph Letters

Inject some "ginger" into your advertising—strike straight from the shoulder. Have every envelope leaving your office or store bear a message—and have that message printed the MULTIGRAPH WAY.

A Multigraph Letter has a man-to-man appeal—there is a warmth—a magnetism—a personal, convincing ring to it that cannot be had in any other form of advertising.

There is no waste ammunition when you see Multigraph Letters because every letter goes straight to the mark and you know a letter addressed personally to your prospect will be read when everything else fails.

Multigraph Letters is the cheapest form of advertising when you consider results—and results count.

If you are a tradesman or professional man wishing to get the ear of prospective customers there is no more effective means than Multigraph Letters. Multigraph Letters will be found the most effective for

- SALES LETTERS
- CIRCULARS
- LETTERS TO CUSTOMERS
- DIRECTORS REPORTS
- LODGE REPORTS
- ENVELOPE STUFFERS
- PRINTED FORMS
- COLLECTION LETTERS.
- MEETING NOTICES
- PERSONAL APPEALS

Every letter is a perfect facsimile of typewriting—printed from moveable type—through a ribbon—your choice of a half dozen different colors.

Any quantity from 100 to 100,000 printed with the last letter as legible as the first—at a very nominal cost.
