

LUX For Men's Shirts

Shirts can be kept soft and lustrous if you launder them with Lux. Save them from being rubbed to pieces, and yellowed with impure chipped soaps. The thin, satin-like wafers of Lux which are made by our own exclusive process and dissolve instantly in hot water.

How to use LUX with men's silk or other shirts
Whisk one tablespoonful of Lux into half a bowlful of very hot water until you get a rich suds. Add cold water until lukewarm. Dip the shirt up and down, squeezing the suds through and through the garment, especially through the soiled spots. Do not rub. Rinse in three lukewarm waters. Roll in a towel to dry. When still damp, press with a warm iron on a well padded board. Pongee should be ironed when entirely dry.

Lux is unequalled for washing fine garments. It is sold only in sealed packets—dust-proof!

IN MEMORIAM

JOSEPH GALLANT

Once again for the third time in one week the angel of death has visited North Rustico, this time claiming for his victim Joseph M. Gallant after a short illness of one week. A son of the late Mr. Gallant, he was a young man of 21 years of age, who had been suffering from pneumonia and all the doctors and kind nursing could do were of no avail, and on the 1st of April his soul passed to his Heavenly Maker in a world where there is no sorrow or parting. During his illness he was visited by his pastor, Rev. Father Chaisson and received the last sacraments of the Catholic Church. Although at quiet repose he was a man who was well liked by all who had the pleasure of knowing him, for he was ever ready to give a helping hand.

The high esteem in which he was held by all was shown by the large number of people, who, although the roads were in very bad condition turned out to attend the funeral. The service at the church was held on the 4th inst. and was conducted by Rev. Father Chaisson. The pall bearers were: Peter Murphy, Angus Blaquier, Michael Blaquier, Jerome Gallant, Moses Gallant and Laurie Gauthier.

The late Mr. Gallant was only 41 years of age and leaves to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, a sorrowing widow and six children, namely Mrs. Raymond Leiron, Henry Marshall, Vincent Annie and Jean who were all at home with him when he passed away.

MRS. JOSEPH WHITE

A gloom has been cast over St. James' Parish, Free-town, by the passing away of Catherine below, wife of Joseph White of P. E. I. Her death occurred at her home in Emerald on the 29th, March, in the 45 years of her life. She was afflicted with pneumonia, which later developed in spinal meningitis, she was attended by Dr. Gillis of Kensington but despite this and the tender and solicitous nursing she received the Angel of Death entered and took her to his abode. She was a devoted, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of Springfield was a most estimable Christian lady and few persons were better known or more deservedly esteemed in the community. Her gentleness, kindness and cheerfulness not only endeared her to her immediate relatives and neighbors, but gained the respect and esteem of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, beyond the limits of her native parish. For young and old she had always a kind, cheerful word and a friendly smile and welcome greeting for all who entered her hospitable home. She was a devoted wife and mother, her absence will be keenly felt by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances and the memory of her cheerful and kind deeds will long keep her memory green in Free-town Parish. The large congregation that on Friday morning, March 31st, followed her remains to St. James' Church, Free-town, was eloquent testimony to the memory of a good and worthy Christian woman. After the celebration of Requiem High Mass by Rev. Father McQuaid, the body was laid in its last resting place in the adjoining cemetery to await a glorious resurrection. She leaves to mourn a respective husband, five sons, John J., Alfred, Cyril, Allan and James and six daughters, Mary, Catherine

Lauretta, Patricia, Winnie and Madeline, besides several sisters and one brother.
The pall bearers were Messrs. John Moynagh, John White, W. Hines, Jas. Brahm, Frank Murphy and Joseph McDonald, May her soul rest in peace.

New Phosphate Increases Weight and Strength of Frail People in Two Weeks Time in Many Instances.

Nothing like Bitro-Phosphate, says Dr. Harrison of New York, to make thin, delicate, nervous, discouraged men and women take on needed weight and quickly exhibit a nerve force that radiates health, energy and ambition. This remarkable nerve force product was first brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Dr. Robin. It is known to be such a wonderful aid to frail, run-down people that Hughes Drug Co., Ltd., and other leading druggists sell it under a guarantee.

CAUTION: Although Bitro-Phosphate is an excellent aid in relieving weak, nervous conditions, its use is not advised unless increased weight is desired.
