

You can be sure of being nourished if you take BOVRIL

Bovril has the peculiar power of enabling people to get from their food nourishment which they cannot obtain in any other way. Unless your system crushes the gold of nourishment out of the ore of food you cannot get strong or keep strong, however much you eat.

Until your food has become part of your muscle, flesh and bone, it cannot assist in that process of rebuilding the body which is essential to good health. If your food does not nourish, however you vary your diet; if you are not strong enough to resist illness, or if you cannot get strong after illness, you will find a magical change if you add Bovril to your diet.

MONDAY

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—The Mont Carmel Women's Institute, No. 41 held their regular meeting at the hall on Nov. 10th, Miss Gordon, Supervisor of the institutes gave an interesting instruction on "timely hints" for housekeeping and labor saving devices. The members are enthusiastic over the successes already attained and are intent on holding a picnic social and musical on Feb. 28th. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stanislas Gallant, St. Raphael.—R.

LT. BRENNAN RETURNING.—A cable has been received by J. B. Brennan from his brother Lt. L. Brennan, of the Royal Aerial Squad, conveying the pleasant news that the latter was leaving England on a two months furlough. It will be remembered that Lt. Brennan was wounded in an air-duel with the Huns, and for the last two months was in an English hospital. No doubt a warm welcome awaits the gallant young aviator on his arrival.—N. S. Herald. Lt. Brennan is a relative of the Brennans in P. E. Island.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.—The Boston Globe says that Lieut. Col. Percy A. Guthrie of Fredericton, N. B., wounded leading the 10th Battalion into action at the battle of Festubert, France, and on board the Hesperian when torpedoed, will be one of the speakers at the annual banquet of the Canadian Club of Boston to be had Monday evening in the main banquet hall of the Copley-Plaza Dr. Hugh Adlard J. Harpin of Worcester will sing. Preceding the banquet a reception will be held in the foyer of the hotel.

ORGANIZED INSTITUTE.—The fact that the ladies of Mont Carmel have organized and formed an Institute has already been felt, as the members who are steadily increasing in number have proposed to strictly inspect the class rooms in Mont Carmel three department school and to see that proper sanitary conditions prevail in each of the departments, a thing which is too often neglected in rural schools. It is hoped that more districts will follow the example and that the condition of the rural school will become much better thus ensuring the success of the great problem for better attendance.—R.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late Mr. P. H. Trainor, was held yesterday afternoon from his late residence, Easton St., and was very largely attended, many coming from far and near to pay a last fond tribute of respect. The floral offerings and spiritual bouquets were very beautiful. The funeral services at the Cathedral and graves were conducted by Rev. Father Frank McQuaid. His Lordship the Bishop, Rev. Fr. Maurice McDonald, Rev. Dr. McMillan, and Rev. Dr. Hughes occupied seats within the sanctuary. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John Mahar, Henry Smith, Hon. Geo. E. Hughes, Mayor Brown, W. W. Stanley, and Alexander McDonald.

IMPORTANT MEETING.—Some of the farmers of Mont Carmel held a meeting on the 13th of Nov. at the home of Mr. Jeremiah Gallant for the purpose of co-operating in the buying of scoops for the opening of open drains which step is only a continuation of the one taken in building the outlet which has already carried so much of the surface water to the seas, which otherwise would have remained on the land. It is really too bad that these facts were not anticipated before as the farmers of this section would thus have been able to reap more successfully the reward of their earnest labor. It is hoped that, in addition to open drains, tiles will be placed at the disposal of the farmers in this section in the near future, thereby alleviating a great portion of the trouble.—R.

There passed peacefully to his eternal reward, on the morning of October seventh, a respected resident of East Baltic in the person of James M. Rose. He was a son of the late Joseph Rose and was born sixty-one years ago, on the farm where he spent his life. He was upright and honorable in his dealings with his fellow-men and during his long illness showed an example of Christian patience and fortitude well worthy of imitation. He was one of a family of eight, three of whom predeceased him. One sister Mrs. Caldwell of Medway, Mass and three brothers, Joseph and Ephram residing in Western States and Peter of East Baltic are left to mourn. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Henry MacDonald, the remains being conveyed to South Lake Cemetery followed by many friends who came to pay the last tribute of respect to one who was a true friend.—M.

WEDDING BELLS.—On Tuesday morning the 13th inst., Mr. C. T. Ryan, prominent son of Peter Gallant of Urbanville, led to the altar Miss Edna Arsenault, daughter of Calixte Arsenault also of Urbanville. The marriage ceremony took place at St. James Church, Exmout Bay, Rev. Father Boudreau officiating. The groom was supported by Mr. Eric Arsenault, cousin of the bride, while Miss Loretta Gallant, sister of the groom attended the bride. The bride was attired in blue crepe de chene and wore a picture hat with ostrich feathers. Dinner was served to neighbors and relatives of the wedding at the bride's home, the afternoon being spent in music, and harmless enjoyments of various kinds. In the evening all repaired to the home of the groom where a sumptuous supper was awaiting them. Again various forms of amusements were indulged in, during the evening, and at a reasonable hour the crowd dispersed with good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Gallant. The happy couple received many valuable presents.—M.

OATS IN ST. JOHN.—The St. John Telegraph says:—Continued advances in the price of oats have reached with tremendous effect on the oatmeal market. During the past week there has been an increase in the price of Canadian oats, which now brings them to 75 and 80 cents a bushel, a higher figure than they reached any time last year. Although the embargo continues to hold on prices of oats in Canada it is expected that they will be lifted with in a week or two and normal prices may be restored. Dealers told The Telegraph yesterday that more oats are coming forward than a week or two ago, and this may aid somewhat in bringing down the prices. However oatmeal is now selling at $8.50 a barrel, which is 75 cents more than the price quoted last week. The standard brand is now $9.25. This advanced the same amount. The St. John agency of one of the largest oatmeal firms in the world was asked yesterday whether the company would advance the price per package to the consumer. The reply was to the effect that, not until absolutely forced to do so by existing conditions, would the retail figure be changed. The general provision market, aside from changes in oatmeal and another advance of 25 cents in beans, remained about the same, showing less inclination toward an upward trend than has been noticed for several weeks.

IMPORTANT VISITOR.—Mr. George B. Herzog of New York, President of the George B. Herzog Co., Inc. saw fur dealers is making a visit to Prince Edward Island and will arrive tonight. He is anxious to make arrangements with the Fur Sales Board re fox pelts for 1917.

ANOTHER ISLANDER WOUNDED.—Mr. John J. Jarvis of Grand Tracadie has received word that his son, Private Herbert Jarvis has been wounded in action. Private Jarvis enlisted in Charlottetown with the P. E. I. Light Horse and proceeded to England with the 6th Canadian Mounted Rifles. His many friends will hope that his wound is not serious and that news of his recovery may soon be received.

SPECIAL SERMONS.—When Rev. Mr. Little was conducting the recent mission in St. Peter's Cathedral, he was asked a certain number of questions the replies to which are being made the subject of a series of sermons each Sunday evening, by Rev. Canon Simpson. Last Sunday's dealt with the connection of Baptism with salvation. Last evening his theme was "Baptism and Regeneration." These are sermons of more than ordinary interest and present in a very clear manner the position of the Church of England on these vital subjects.

The late James Lannigan, mate of the ill-fated schooner O'Hara, who was drowned in Malpeque, November 11th, 1916, as referred to in the papers as unknown, was a son of the late Mr. Martin Lannigan, of Cambridge Road, Sturgeoon. He was 31 years old and unmarried. Besides his widowed mother he leaves to mourn one brother and three sisters: William H. and Charlie, at home, and the Misses Margaret and Etta, of Boston, who arrived Friday night in response to a telegram. The deceased was a nephew of Mr. Henry Dunn, merchant, Gasparaux, and Capt. James Dunn, C.M.Y. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved ones in their sad affliction.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place at Kensington by Rev. Mr. Watson, English Minister, on being Mr. Preston Campbell late of Calgary and Miss Etta Arthur of French River. After the marriage the happy couple drove to the home of the groom's parents, John and Mrs. Campbell Irishtown and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Both the ladies and their gentlemen friends who were dressed in the Red White and Blue added much to the enjoyment of all. Mr. and Mrs. Preston will reside in Irishtown, having bought the farm of Mr. John Bernard consisting of 110 acres. The Guardian joins in wishing the newly married couple abundant success and in the wish of all their friends and they are many. They were supported by Addie, sister of the groom and his cousin Garnett, as best man.—D.

WHIST PARTY.—An enjoyable whist party was held in Mont Carmel hall on Nov. 3rd under the auspices of the Women's Institute No. 41. Twenty-one tables were provided for and the players all eager to partake of the enjoyment. Home made candy was served at intervals by the lady members of the institute. About half past ten the sound of the whistle announced that the end had come. On counting the points made it was obvious that the first prize for the gentleman was won by Mr. and Mrs. Richard whilst the first prize for the ladies was merited by Miss Rosina Richard. The consolation prize for the gentlemen was awarded to Mr. Peter N. Arsenault and the one for the ladies by Miss Frigette Arsenault. After the distribution of prizes were effected the guests dispersed and peacefully proceeded to their respective homes.—R.
