In Memoriam

MR. A. J. McADAM

The death occurred last Saturday evening at St. Eleanor's of Mr. Archibald Joseph McAdam. He was a native of Selkirk, P. E. I., and about 65 years of age. Death was the result of a heart attack.

The late Mr. McAdam was a writer of considerable ability. A gifted letter writer he often contributed to the press and several of his articles have been published in various magazines. He was also an amateur poet and many of his poems displayed powers of imagination and feeling.

He was keenly interested in the Island's transportation problem, and contributed several interesting letters to The Guardian on this subject. One such letter, which reached The Guardian only yesterday, after news of his death had appeared, is published in today's Forum Column.

The late Mr. McAdam and his brother Ronald, now deceased, conducted a mercantile business in Selkirk about forty years ago. From 1907 to 1922 he was manager of Davis & Fraser for Charlottetown. At one time he was a Liberal candidate for the Souris district. A brother, the Rev. Adolphus McAdam, who died in Sask., predeceased him several years ago. Another brother, Allan, lives in the City. He has also a sister, Mrs. Agnes MacDonald, who resides in Ottawa.

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a newsy nature may be inserted at five cents a word, strictly payable in advance.

EARLY SHIPMENT — The loading yesterday at Vernon River of a car of early potatoes for shipment to the mainland probably constitutes a record for early potato shipping from this Province.

NURSE RETURNS TO DUTY — Miss Mary Haughey, R. N., now on the staff of St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, has returned to her duties after spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Haughey, Charlottetown.

REPORTED MISSING — Official notice has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rogers, 7 Young Street, City, that their son, L. Cpl. Ferdinand Joseph Rogers has been missing in action since July 26, 1944.

PENSIONS OFFICIALS HERE— Dr. T. D. Bain, Director of Medical Services for the Department of Pensions and National Health, accompanied by Dr. C. MacLeod, Chief Medical Officer of Nova Scotia and P. E. Island are at present in the city on business connected with their Department.

RECEIVES SAD NEWS — Mrs. A. L. Adams, 220 Queen Street, City, has returned from visiting relatives in O'Leary. While there she received the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Wilfrid Duguay (nee Josie MacDonald) of Norway, Maine. Beside four children there are left to mourn one sister, Mrs. A. L. Adams, and four brothers: James in Connecticut, U. S. A.; George of the Veterans' Guard of Canada, Sussex, N. B., and Daniel and Alexander of O'Leary, P. E. I.

RESERVE ARMY CAMP — The Pictou and Cape Breton Highlanders, the 17th Armoured Regiment, (P. E. I. Light Horse), the 29th Field Ambulance, and the new Army Service Corps from Pictou—all will soon form the Reserve Army Camp at Beach Grove, Charlottetown. The Pictous, under command of Lt-Col. Geddie Cotter, will be more than 400 strong and will be accompanied by their own Pipe Band under direction of Pipe Major Fraser Holmes. The camp will last about two weeks.

SPEAKS ON CANCER — Dr. Wendell MacDonald, Radiologist at the P. E. I. Hospital was the guest speaker at the Rotary luncheon held at the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday. Dr. MacDonald stressed the point that cancer is a disease which to cure must be treated in its early stages. He expressed the belief that it may yet be cured without recourse to surgery, radium, or X-rays. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, O. B. E., commended the speaker and described the address as one of the most important ever delivered before the Rotary club.

CROP PROSPECTS — The crop prospects for the Province never looked better at this time of the year, reports Mr. W. R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture. The hay crop is unusually heavy, but it is feared that many fields will not be cut owing to the shortage of labour. The grain and root crops promise to be very heavy though it is said that early oats in the western section of the Province are very slow in filling. The potato crop is much better than at this time last year and there is no general sign of late blight. Pastures, however, Mr. Shaw states, are drying up causing a slackening of the milk flow. This situation would be much improved by more moisture.

REVISITS HERE AFTER 30 YEARS—A. A. Macfarlane-Brown of Toronto, Canada, is spending his holiday leave as the guest of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Morgan E. Genge, of Charlottetown. Mr. Macfarlane-Brown is a cousin of the late Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law and the Rt. Hon. Robert Law, his youngest son, Minister of State in the present Churchill Cabinet. He is chemist and manager of the Fibre Soap Co. of Toronto, manufacturers of Industrial Soaps and Cleansers. This is his first revisit to the Island since the summer of 1914 and he is enjoying to the full the justly famed scenic beauty of the Garden of the Gulf and the cordial hospitality extended to the visitor. Being a Scot himself he can appreciate all that these ubiquitous folk have contributed to this Island's growth and development and as an integral and essential partner in the Dominion of Canada.

AWARDED MILITARY MEDAL — The award of the Military Medal to Corporal Donald Harry Carter, of Moncton, N B., with the Canadian Armoured Corps in Italy, has been announced by the Department of National Defense. A son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Carter, Moncton, and grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald Murchison of Kinross, P. E. I., Corp. Carter enlisted on July 7, 1940 in the Princess Louise Hussars and was posted in October, 1941. Prior to his enlistment he was an employee of the Canadian Swift Company at Moncton. His wife, Mrs. Helen Eva Carter, is also a resident of Moncton. A brother, Pte. J. W. Carter, is serving in the Air Force in England.

S'side Soldier Tells Of Visit To Vatican City

Lieut. Francis McNeil of Summerside who is serving with the Eighth Army in Italy has written to his wife a description of a visit to Rome and Vatican City.

He says: "I spent a day in Rome. I was there from about eight o'clock yesterday morning to six last night. I had a most interesting day. We drove through most of the city as the car park was at the North end. It is really beautiful. The modern part has some very fine buildings. Beautiful apartment buildings, wide boulevards with many lovely trees and flowers. Then, we come to the old part with narrow streets and ruins of buildings over two thousand years old.

"There was an audience with the Holy Father at 11.30 and as we had to walk, we set out as soon as we had debussed. We reached Vatican City just in time.

"We went up a very long stairway into an outer room all richly decorated with mural paintings. The ceilings too, were decorated with paintings. Then we went through another corridor into the reception room. The centre of the room was roped off and the officers walked down the aisle guarded by the Swiss Guards in their striped uniforms and hugh steel hats. Each guard carried a long spear. Then came the procession. I don't know who the people are who came first but they had on uniforms all decorated with gold braid and carried silver swords. After them came the Holy Father, carried on a chair by four men dressed in scarlet uniforms. They put the chair down and the Pope went immediately to the throne. He was dressed in snow white. He is a small man and rather pale but he walked briskly and when he spoke his voice was firm and rich. He spoke about five minutes in English and mostly about England and its contribution to the church, mentioning St. Thomas a Becket, St. Thomas Moore and others.

"You see, it was an audience for the Eighth army. We Canadians formed only a small part. There were Canadians, New Zealanders, South Africans, Indians and Poles. It was very impressive. The movie cameras were going the whole time and you may see in the news some time where the Pope had an audience with the Eighth Army.

"After he spoke, he gave us his blessing and blessed all the religious objects. Then he shook hands with some of the officers and I happened to be one of the lucky ones. As I took his hand and kissed the ring he said "Bless you" in English. As he left everybody sang a hymn and gave him three cheers." — S
