—LITTLE CHILD DEAD.—The heartfelt feeling of the residents of O'Leary and district go out to Mr. and Mrs. H. Adams, who have lost their darling infant by death on Monday morning.—W.

—THANKSGIVING SERVICES were held in all the Kensington Churches on Sunday and in the evening at 8 o'clock a beautiful memorial service was conducted in the Presbyterian Church, in memory of the late Pte. John Eimers who gave his life for King and Country in September, 1913. The Church, being filled to capacity was fittingly decorated with flags, a portrait of the late hero, draped with British Ensigns stood below the pulpit. The pastor, Rev. T. W. Goodwill, spoke thrillingly of the heroism of the deceased, taking his text from Revelation 2: 10: "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life," and dwelt on the faithfulness of those who responded to the Bugle Call. The choir rendered suitable hymns, including, "When He Cometh," a favorite of the dead hero. A solo, "Will the circle be unbroken" by Mrs. Hugh Morrison, and a male quartette, "Brave hearts sleep on" by Messrs Brown, Bentley, and Morrison, was highly appreciated. Miss Mabel Brown presided at the organ.—R.
