ST. JAMES CHURCH.—At a meeting of the Session of St. James Church yesterday morning arrangements were completed for the Centennial celebration on July 11th and 12th at Edgewater the private residence of His Honour Lieutenant Governor Hearst.

TALENTED BARITONE AT TRINITY CHURCH.—The large congregation attending morning service at Trinity Church yesterday greatly enjoyed the splendid singing of Mr. Robert B. Messervy, who gave a magnificent rendering of Allisten's fine song: "The Lord is My Light." Music lovers of Charlottetown always welcome the opportunity of hearing Mr. Messervy, and are justly proud of his excellent vocal attainments.

AUTO ACCIDENT.—What might have been a serious, if not a fatal automobile accident occurred late Saturday night when a taxi car owned by Mr. Edwin Lynds and driven by Mr. Frank Caswell skidded and overturned on Malpeque road. Mr. Albert Creamer was in the car with Caswell when the accident happened.

WARSHIP COMING.—His Worship Mayor Miller has received notice from the Department of National Defence Naval Service, that His Majesty's Ship "Calcutta", flying the flag of Vice Admiral Sir Walter Cowan-Bart, K. C. B., D. S. O., Commander in Chief North American and West Indian Squadron, will visit Charlottetown from Tuesday 24th August to Sunday 29th August, 1926.

PERSONALS Mr. Edward Currie, Fairview was a visitor to the city on Saturday. Miss Mabel Carr left on Monday morning on a trip to Boston. Miss Winnifred Gaudet left Monday morning on a three weeks visit to Boston.

In Memoriam DEATH OF J. L. TOWNSEND The sad news came to John Anderson, Provincial Auditor, last Saturday evening that his brother-in-law, James Leslie Townsend, died at his home in Springfield, Mass., the first of last week, following an illness of months.

Success of the King's College Appeal Vital to the Future of Higher Education in the Maritime Provinces

The Carnegie Corporation of New York has offered to give to King's College University the sum of six hundred thousand dollars providing supporters of the college in the Maritime Provinces are able to raise the sum of four hundred thousand dollars. As a business proposition think it over. An opportunity of bringing six hundred thousand dollars of American capital into the Maritime Provinces and setting it to work to help provide a Residential Arts and Pure Science College of the highest standard for our sons and daughters—at minimum of cost to them or their parents bringing within the reach of young people of limited means equal privileges with those of the children of wealthy parents.

King's College deserves your support: As a business asset to The Maritimes As an educational asset to The Maritimes. As a cultural asset to The Maritimes. Volunteer workers making up the Charlottetown organization will present the cause of King's College to the people of Charlottetown during this week. Your most generous support is solicited for this big project. L. B. MILLER, Provincial Chairman GEORGE D. DeBLOIS, Chairman for Charlottetown

SATURDAY'S YACHT RACE WAS WON BY THE ZENITH

Trim Little Craft Captained and Owned by "Mac" Irwin Made Fast Time Over Course - P. No. Second and Ghost Third - Race Thursday Afternoon.

Saturday's yacht race the second of a series for a splendid cup donated to the Charlottetown Yacht Club by Mr. Roy Holman was again won by the Zenith, owned and captained by Malcolm Irwin who jockeyed his craft in an expert manner over the entire course winning a popular decision over the P. No. owned by Campbell and King and captained by the latter. The P. No. finished two minutes behind the Zenith. The Ghost owned and skippered by Ivan Reddin finished third, two minutes behind P. No. Nine yachts in all answered the starter's gun Saturday, the largest number so far this year. The following are the boats and crews: Zenith—Mr. Irwin and F. Small P. No.—J. King, A. Campbell Ghost—J. Reddin, P.J. Roberts Shadow—J. Lund, H. Moore Sheba—G. Essery, H. White Sheik—C. Lund, E. Flynn Edna—M. E. Mink, J. Gormley Rob Roy—J. Cameron, M. Mathison Pollywog—J. Mills, E. Gallant The yachts working for positions and finally bearing down on the line presented a beautiful sight to the large crowd of waterside onlookers. The Zenith crossed the line in the lead, seconds ahead of Shadow which was followed by the Sheba, the remainder being well bunched and footing fast. Half way to the first buoy, East River, the parade developed into a close following. The Ghost crossed the line in the lead, seconds ahead of Shadow which was followed by the Sheba, the remainder being well bunched and footing fast.
