Star Ball Club Enthusiastic Over Coming Concert

The entertainment committee of the Eastern Star Baseball Club in communication with Messrs. Neil Cheverie and Robert Weeks were given the assurance of these gentlemen yesterday that they would be right on deck and ready to take the word Monday night when the Grand Variety Concert under the auspices of the above mentioned Club would get away. That this concert will go over with a bang is a foregone conclusion, judging by the interest and enthusiasm which everybody seems to be manifesting. Those who have read the program published in the morning and evening dailies need no further guarantee that the majority of the best talent available in the city has been secured. To date over half the seating capacity of the Strand Theatre is already taken up which bespeaks a bumper house. It may be added that the League of the Cross band has kindly consented to play at the entrance to the Theatre before the beginning of the concert.

During Mr. Best's stay with us, morning devotional services were held four mornings each week, and proved very helpful to the staff and others who attended them; about seven or eight were present each morning. Capt. Best's visit did much to stimulate the spiritual side of our Association work, and we all wish that he could have stayed longer with us. 'Y's Men's Club': Five meetings were held, with an average attendance of over 26. Some of the speakers were Mr. W. E. Bentley, Mr. Keith Rogers, and Capt. Best. Several special events are planned for the month of May. This Club has two teams lined up for our Financial Campaign, and will give a good account of themselves. Meetings: Many meetings were held in the Association during the month. Some of them being: Ministerial Association, 3; P. E. L. Hospital Executive; Teachers' Class; S. C. M. Cabinet, 2; "Able Sisters" Membership Meeting; Charlotte-town Tennis Club, and the Ladies' Auxiliary. The church clock hands are turning They're nearing two twenty eight A runner is also nearing— Nearing the silken tape. A cheer from the crowd is echoed And the horns of the auto's blare As a Canadian comes a Victor In to the silken tape. "Who is the kid?" we shouted The kid with the rosy face Who's conquered the whole world's record In Boston's marathon race. Then we looked on our ears and
