WANTS P. E. I. POTATO SEED FOR COLORADO

U. S. Consul Pierce, has received the following letter which will be read by potato growers with great interest. The persistence of the good qualities of the P. E. Island seed potatoes, is well known in other parts and if any readers of The Guardian have a potato of the description to satisfy Mr. Macy, of the Macy Ranch whose address is given, they will confer a favor on the potato-growing people of Colorado as well as possibly starting a lucrative industry for themselves.

Seeing in the St. Louis Packer, of December 23rd a communication from you, (Nov. 24) to Washington, D. C., in regard to potatoes in Prince Edward Island, I would like to bother you a little. Some twenty years ago a miner up at Creed, fifty miles up the mountains, from here, went back to P. E. Island to see his mother. When he started back here his mother put two or three potatoes in his grip. These potatoes were planted in the Valley. So well were they liked and because of their splendid yield they have become the most favored potatoes in the Valley. Mr. Chism, of Delnort, planted one acre, fertilized heavily and produced 847 1/2 bushels per acre. The Governor of Colorado weighed them. This year one four-acre lot yielded 2132 bushels and brought $1,946. So you see we think lots of them. They are a medium sized potato, slightly flat, a little longish in shape (a little dirty color) called white or maple (?) with a pink eye, very smooth. Now, Mr. Pierce, what I am after is this, some fresh seed from the island. Will you see if you can find this same potato there for me, and see what the expenses would be here, on say, one to one thousand pounds, shipped about March 1st. If not too awfully high I would like to have them. Tell me of some superior kinds you grow there. If you could find them and let me know I will forward all necessary cost and expense. So hoping to hear from you and thanking you for your trouble. I am truly yours W. C. MACY, Center, Colorado. P. S.—This is a great spud Valley. 2300 to 2400 cars raised here at an elevation of 7000 feet. W. C. M. The Consulate is also in receipt of a letter from a large Custom House broker at Buffalo, N. Y. This broker anticipates importing potatoes in considerable quantities from P. E. Island, but since the widespread demand for the products of this land.

GULF FIXED BETWEEN GERMANS AND ALLIES

(Canadian Press Despatch.) LONDON, British ambassador to Russia presiding at the annual dinner of the English club in London, said in part according to a Reuter dispatch from Petrograd: "Between us and Germany a great gulf is fixed, real with the blood of peaceful non-combatants. We cannot grasp her hand again until the armies of Germany have been defeated and the spirit of militarism permeating the whole nation exorcised. During the past two years Great Britain more than once has been accused not only of wishing to secure the lion's share of the spoils, but of thwarting the realization of Russia's traditional ambitions. Premier Trepoff's recent statement in the duma laid that boggy at rest forever. "The British government, when approached on the subject of Constantinople and the straits, early in the spring of 1915, immediately expressed its wholehearted assent. We want to see Russia largely compensated for her services and sacrifices; we want to help her to the prize she has so long dreamed of; we want to see her strong and prosperous and we want to consolidate for all time the alliance which this war has cemented, for upon its maintenance depends the future peace of the world. That is the cornerstone of our policy. Sir George, in the course of his speech, said that Great Britain during the war had advanced more than 600,000,000 pounds sterling to her allies for the purchase of war material, which otherwise they would have been unable to procure, besides the materials she supplied direct. RUSSIAN-ROUMANIAN TROOPS OFFER STIFF RESISTANCE

(Special to the Guardian.) LONDON, Jan. 5.—A narrow strip of land projecting into the Danube the marshes toward the Moldavia town of Galatz, all of Dobruja has been cleared by Teutonic Allies of Russian-Roumanian troops. After the fall of Matchin Jijlia, the defenders began to retreat across the Danube toward Braila, according to Berlin. A force of Russian rear-guards on a peninsula projecting toward Galatz comes the only entente troops now in Roumania between the Danube River and the Black Sea. In Moldavia, the Teutonic Allies despite heavy snows are continuing their invasion of the country from south west, although along front under Field Marshall Von Mackensen. In the former region they are meeting with strong resistance at various points from Russian-Roumanian troops. In the wooded Carpathians the Russians in attack captured from the Germans an advanced position north of Meste Cancesel. Petrograd reports that in this fighting the Russians took 600 men prisoners, captured three cannons, sixteen machine guns and other war material. On other fronts operations are still confined to reciprocal bombardment. Engagements between small reconnoitering parties. Raids on the German trenches north-east of Arras, in neighborhood of Wytchaete, are reported by the London war office, which asserts also that German attempts against British trenches were put down with losses to the attackers.
