Twentieth Annual District Convention Of Women's Institutes

The twentieth annual district convention of Women's Institutes met at Meadow Bank on July 9th., 1947. Both afternoon and evening sessions were presided over by the President, Miss Laura Crosby. Mrs. W. W. Crosby welcomed the delegates while Mrs. Albert Clow responded. Reports were read from eleven Institutes which are doing splendid work.

Mr. McInnis from the Cancer Control program gave a very interesting talk at the afternoon session followed by a very instructive and educational talk by Dr. Eric Found. He dealt with four communicable diseases with their controlable measures.

Humorous readings were given by Miss Audrey MacPhail and Mrs. Malcolm MacNeil. Three minute talks were given by Mrs. Harry Scott, North River and Mrs. Arch MacEachern, Cornwall.

Miss Mary MacDonald, supervisor of Womens Institutes had a lovely display of handiwork and gave an interesting explanation of her work.

The nursery mats in competition were judged by Mrs. B. W. Willis with prizes going to Meadow Bank and Fairview Institutes.

Kingston invited the convention to meet with them for 1948 and the following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. Merril Green.

Vice President —Mrs. H. B. Willis.

Secretary Treasurer — Mrs. Heber Campbell.

Chairman of committee on Drama Festival — Miss Laura Crosby (re-elected.)

A question box closed the afternoon session and refreshments were served by the ladies of Meadow Bank.

EVENING SESSION

At the evening session Mrs. Allison MacMillan, president of the Federated W. I. of Canada, was the speaker. Her talk was inspiring and enjoyed by all present. Films were shown by Mr. Martin from the National Film Board.

A collection was taken for the Provincial Sanitorium amounting to $7.38 cents.

Meeting closing with "the King."

Following are the resolutions adopted.

(1) Whereas a law in the Statute book states that T. B. X-ray is compulsory, be it therefore resolved that we urge the provincial executive of the Women's Institutes to urge the Attorney-General to have this law enforced.

(2) Whereas, it has been brought to the attention of the Womens Institutes that many rural mail boxes throughout the province are in a dilapidated condition, very often with the name completely obliterated, and, whereas, it would add greatly to the convenience of the travelling public to have all box-holders names clearly defined, be it therefore resolved that this convention strongly urge the individual Institutes to discuss the matter at their next monthly meeting and take immediate steps to improve the situation in their own community.

Whereas Charlottetown has no rest rooms for the convenience of visitors from other cities, provinces and states to the city of Charlottetown, and whereas comfort of this kind is absolutely necessary for the promotion of tourist trade, be it therefore resolved that we respectfully urge the Government to make possible such a room without further delay.

In Memoriam

VERNON GARTH SIMMONS

A lamb is lost amidst our flock,
A sweet and gentle rose,
To bloom in heaven ever more,
In peace and sweet repose.

• • •

The people of Summerside and surrounding districts were saddened and shocked to learn of the death in the Prince County Hospital on Sunday, July 13, 1946, of Vernon Garth, dearly beloved and only son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Simmons, Summerside, after a short illness of six weeks.

Vernie, as he was familiarly known, was a bright and lovable child, and had endeared himself to old and young alike during his brief stay of eleven years, three months on earth.

Following an operation on May 31st, he had recovered sufficiently to return home where he remained for two weeks prior to re-entering the hospital on June 30th, and just two weeks later on Sunday evening at 7.30, God put His arm around him and gently took him home, peacefully and without pain.

During his illness, Vernie was never known to complain, bearing each new trouble with courage and spirit and always had a cheerful greeting for all who visited him. An ardent sports lover, he had taken part in several hockey games last winter where he will be sadly missed by his playmates.

The sympathy of the entire province goes out to his grief-stricken parents and only sister, Noreen at home, also his aged grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simmons, Crapaud, and a host of cousins, aunts and uncles, especially to his mother who sat by his bedside day and night patiently looking forward to his recovery, but God willed otherwise and in spite of all that loving care and faithful nursing could do, Vernie has joined the throng of angels in Heaven, where disappointments and troubles are no more.

The funeral, which was very largely attended, was held on Wednesday afternoon, with a short service in St. John's Anglican Church, Crapaud. Rev. G. R. Harrison conducted both services and delivered a most comforting message, conveying the understanding that Vernie had merely left his loved ones for a short time and by living with him each day, and growing along with him step by step, they will eventually reach the top of the ladder and be re-united. Hymns sung were: "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "When He Cometh." Mrs. (Dr.) L. M. Callbeck, Summerside, sang with sympathetic feeling, "Some Time We'll Understand."

The funeral was under the direction of Mr K. Compton, Summerside, and the following playmates of Vernie acted as pallbearers: Ronnie MacArthur, Timmy MacGuigan, Lawrence Gallant, Gordon Simmons, Vance Harris and Junior MacKay.

Interment was in the church cemetery where Vernie was laid to rest beside his brother Clayton, who predeceased him eleven years ago, when the deceased was but 13 days old.

Many and beautiful flower tributes were as follows:—

Pillow—Mother and Dad.

Crescents—Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacKay, Timmy MacGuigan.

Sprays—Sister Noreen, Lois and Aunt Emily; grandfather and grandmother; Aunt Hazel and Wilmot; Aunt Millie and Earl; Elsie, Gar, Louis and Agnes; Mrs. P. D. Crosby and Mary; Ruby, Elsie, Carrie and Marjorie.

Wreaths — Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Callbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Palmer, Garth, Garand, Vance and Ronnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter White.

Laymen, St. John's and St. Mary's Church.

Staff, Palmer and Williams.

Staff, National Employment Office,

Mr. and Mrs Preston Warren.

Daisy and Les Simmons.

Elmer Phillips.

In loving memory of Vernie, from his playmates.
