

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY
SYMPATHY EXPRESSED—Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Steele of Miscouche in the death of their little son, eighteen months, who died from burns, brought about when he upset a pail of hot water over his body. Medical aid was rendered and all possible was done for the little chap, but he died the following day.—S.

Many old friends in Summerside and other parts of the province will remember Harold D. Ferguson, a former citizen of Summerside and will be glad to hear of his recent appointment as general manager for British Columbia of the Empire Life Insurance Co. The announcement was made in the Financial News of the Vancouver Sun by Mr. L. T. Boyd, general manager of the Empire Life Insurance Co.

DEATH OF MRS. ALFRED COMPTON—Friends will regret to learn of the passing of Mrs. Alfred Compton of St. Eleanor's whose death occurred on Tuesday last at 73 years of age. The funeral was held on Thursday from St. John's Church and was very largely attended. Rev. G. R. Harrison officiated. The pall bearers were Messrs. Reginald Compton, Leonard Pickering, Roy Tanton, Stanley Tanton, Bursleigh Owen and Major F. F. May.—S.

WEDDING BELLS—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist Parsonage, Wednesday morning, Rev. J. B. Wilson officiating when Miss MacFarlane, daughter of Mrs. Leslie MacFarlane, S'Side, became the bride of Mr. Ivan George Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Vaughan, Charlottetown. Miss Lena MacQuarrie was bridesmaid and Mr. Ora MacEwen groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip through New Brunswick and the Matapedia Valley. Their many friends wish them every happiness through life.—S.

Many friends will learn with regret of the passing of Mrs. George Semple of Kensington, who died in the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Saturday evening at the early age of 25 years. Mrs. Semple had been ill for some time and although her death was not unexpected it came as a great blow to her family and friends. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her sweet disposition and beautiful Christian character made her a general favorite in the community.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks of Margate. Besides her husband, George Semple, son of Tyndall Semple, Kensington and two small children, there are left to cherish her memory, her parents, two sisters, Helen and Miriam and one brother, Gardiner, to all of whom much sympathy is extended.—S.

The death occurred at the P. E. Island Hospital early Saturday morning of Mr. John N. Large, 37 year old son of Mrs. and the late Albert N. Large after a short illness. Not enjoying the best of health during the past summer, he continued his duties at the Livers' Stable, and gas station of Largo Bros. until about two weeks ago when he entered the hospital for treatment to which he fully responded.

Of a most friendly and genial disposition, the late Mr. Large enjoyed a large circle of friends, not only in this city, but throughout the entire province, all of whom will learn with regret of his passing in the prime of life.

He was a capable and efficient member of the local fire department for a number of years, being attached to the hook and ladder Co. To the sorrowing widow, his mother and two young children the Guardian extends sincere sympathy. The funeral will be held this Monday afternoon from his late residence, 249 Pownall Street.

Saturday was Boy Scout "apple day" and reports available last night indicated that it had been a big success. In Charlottetown gross sales totalled approximately $1600.00. Other centres where "apple day" was held included Montague, Belle River, Tignish, Alberton, O'Leary, Kensington, Borden and Crapaud. Detailed returns were not available but it was believed sales had been very successful. Ideal weather assisted Scouts in their campaign.

Charlottetown Scouts sold 19 barrels and 18 hamper and Summerside Scouts 3 barrels, all from Prince Edward Island McIntosh Red Apples. The big event of the day in Charlottetown was the public auction of the champion apple and a number of other choice apples on the steps of the Public Library. Promptly at eight o'clock Auctioneer John MacDonald took up his position, having been preceded by two Salvation Army bandsmen who rendered a suitable instrumental duet. Having announced the object of the auction Mr. MacDonald called for bids for the champion, intimating that a reserve bid had been received in advance, and quickly knocked the apple down to His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, who is also Patron of the Island Boy Scouts. The bid was the magnificent one of $500.00, on being disclosed, called for vociferous cheers from the admiring crowd. Other apples followed in quick succession, until ultimately the whole lot of "Special Reserve" were disposed of for the handsome and record sum of $1287.50. Appreciation of Mr. MacDonald's voluntary services were expressed by both President L. D. Murray and District Commissioner Wm. Warren who accompanied him on the platform.

DIED AT MILO.—Many relatives and friends will regret to hear of the passing away at Milo, Lot 9, of Mrs. Frederick MacLean, nee Margaret MacKenzie of Canoe Cove. The funeral was held on Sunday from her late residence.

TROUT REARING PONDS—Twenty-four trout rearing ponds under construction at Alley's Mills, under the head of Cardigan River, would be in operation next year, Mr. Allison Tait, of the Biological Department of Ottawa, in charge of the work, announced Friday. When in operation each pond will contain 25,000 to 30,000 fry in their early stage of maturity and will be fed and kept until they become fingerlings about four to five inches long when they will be distributed in rivers of the Island free to the public to fish.

SOCIAL DANCE—On Saturday evening the Charlottetown "Y-Knot" Club sponsored a social dance in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. About one hundred and fifty young people danced to the music of George Iram and his Troubadours. A feature of the evening was a spot dance. This novel event was won by Miss Eileen Higgins and Mr. Leslie Stewart. The chaperons for the evening were Mr. J. C. Curran.

The death occurred at his residence at Augustine Cove on Saturday George MacWilliams a prominent farmer of the district and a most highly esteemed resident. The late Mr. MacWilliams was 79 years old and was born in Cape Traverse. He was a staunch member of the Church of Scotland.

He leaves to mourn his widow, four sons and two daughters; also one brother, Robert. The funeral is taking place on Monday afternoon from his late residence.—S.

The death occurred at the Prince County Hospital on Sunday morning of Mrs. Kenneth Ford at the early age of 23 years.

Mrs. Ford was brought to the hospital in a serious condition a few days ago, but in spite of the best medical skill and nursing she did not rally and she passed peacefully away.

Mrs. Ford was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sherry of Lot 18 formerly of Tyne Valley. She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband and parents, a little son, and the following brothers and sisters, George and Harold, May and Margaret at home and a married sister in the United States, to whom much sympathy is extended in their sad bereavement.

The funeral is taking place on Wednesday afternoon from the residence of Mr. John Ford at Northam.—S.

FIRES CAUSE LOSS—The house and barns of Mrs. Albert Oakes, Westmoreland, were destroyed by fire early Thursday morning. Loss was estimated at $2000.00, only partially covered by insurance. The fire was believed to have originated around the kitchen stove. Occupants of the house were awakened by the crackling of flames at midnight. Fire spread rapidly and nearby barns containing the year's crop of grain were enveloped in flames. Mrs. Oakes was awakened by the fire and fled to the barn where she was sleeping in a room which had been recently covered by insurance.

Many friends will regret to learn of the passing of Mrs. Lucy Dunn, whose death occurred at her home in Summerside on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Dunn was 83 years of age and the widow of Captain Matthew Dunn, and was a resident of Summerside for many years, although she had of late years spent her winters in the United States.

Mrs. Dunn had a very charming personality and her illness was a source of much regret to her family and friends. She carried a beautiful pearl rosary, gift of Rev. Mother Superior of St. Joseph's Convent, also a white ivory prayer book, gift from the C. W. L. St. Teresa's, which she was a valued member. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. P. Pratt who was becomingly dressed in jade green crepe with brown accessories. She also carried a lovely amethyst rosary, gift of the groom. The bride's gift bracelet with diamond setting, the groom was ably supported by his brother, Gerald. During the Nuptial Mass the choir, under the direction of Mr. Phil Mooney, sang appropriate hymns.

TUESDAY
A capacity audience at Trinity United Church last night heard Mr. L'Espey tell describe his year-long round the world trip in company with his brother, Ellsworth. The lecture was illustrated by about 160 colored travel pictures taken by the brothers. The views were exceptionally fine, very interesting and each almost a work of art. Rev. A. E. MacKenzie, co-pastor at Trinity Church, presided and introduced the speaker. The boys' father was pastor of a United Church in Toronto until he retired last year.

B. I. S. MEETING—There was a large attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society held recently. President James H. McKenna, who presided, reported that the social evenings were being increasingly largely attended. There was "quite a demand" for relief, the Charitable Committee reported. All cases had been taken care of, the meeting was drawn to a close. The subject was discussed by the Society and chief speakers included Brethern P. H. McTague, J. A. Cronin, J. H. McKenna and others. The debate would be continued at each meeting to give all members an opportunity to participate, it was decided.

BURIAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of Mr. John N. Large, a member of the city fire department who died yesterday afternoon from his late residence 249 Pownall Street, service at the house and grave being conducted by Rev. H. D. Raymond and Rev. Carlisle Webster. The casket placed on a draped hearse wagon was drawn by brother members of the city firemen and preceded by the League of the Cross Band, which rendered appropriate funeral marches. The service took of the Fire Department bearing the floral tributes headed the procession. Honorary pall bearers were: Messrs. John Cook, Lorne Coles, Aben McLean, Frank Pancher, Vernon Currie and Walter Heitz. The active pall bearers were Angus McEachern, Chief of the Fire Department, Frank Hennessey, Assistant Chief and the following members of the department: Arthur Henry, Harold Connolly, Russel Abbott and Herbert Egan. The interment was in the People's Cemetery.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Thomas Howatt passed away at her home in Cape Traverse on Tuesday, Nov. 9th. She was formerly Elizabeth Muttart, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Muttart and was in her eightieth year. She leaves to mourn besides her aged husband, and three daughters, Tyle, Mrs. John McCarron of Boston; Sadie, Mrs. Stanley Allen of Vancouver, B.C. and Grace, Mrs. Russell Howatt, of Tryon, also a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. McCarron and Mrs. Allen were with their mother during her illness. The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place on Thursday, Rev. Malcolm Galbraith conducting the service. The pallbearers were six grandsons, viz: Leroy Howatt, Victor Howatt, Calvin Howatt, Arthur McKay, Heath Craig and Howard Allen. The hearse was driven by another grandson, Lloyd Howatt. Interment was in the Church of Scotland Cemetery at Cape Traverse.

St. Cuthbert's Church, St. Teresa, was the scene of a joyous event on August 30th when Miss Ange Cairns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cairns, Baldwin's Road, became the bride of Mr. Bruce Curran, Newark, New Jersey. The church was artistically decorated with white and yellow flowers and streamers by Mrs. Fitzmaurice, New York, and other close friends of the happy couple and added much charm to the event. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Hynes, S. J. The popular young bride looked very welcome in a gown of cinerea brown chiffon velvet with brown coronet hat and accessories. She carried a beautiful pearl rosary, gift of Rev. Mother Superior of St. Joseph's Convent, also a white ivory prayer book, gift from the C. W. L. St. Teresa's, which she was a valued member. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. P. Pratt who was becomingly dressed in jade green crepe with brown accessories. She also carried a lovely amethyst rosary, gift of the groom. The bride's gift bracelet with diamond setting, the groom was ably supported by his brother, Gerald. During the Nuptial Mass the choir, under the direction of Mr. Phil Mooney, sang appropriate hymns.

BAHAI LECTURER HERE—Visiting Charlottetown at present, on a lecture tour under the auspices of the Bahai Regional Council for Canada is Mrs. Howard Golly Ives, of Chicago, who spoke last evening at the Canadian National Hotel on the subject "The Birth of a New World-Order." Universal brotherhood and preservation of world peace, Mrs. Ives states, are among the objectives of the Bahai movement. Her following reference to the Encyclopaedia Britannica (13th edition) under the general heading of Moham-medanism: "Another outgrowth from Shiahism was the Babi, followed by the Bahai movement, but in their latitudinarianism they have so far diverged from any orthodox form of Islam, that it is very doubtful whether they can properly be reckoned among Mohammedan movements. The Bahai movement is an active propaganda in America and in certain parts of Europe, and have drifted further and further from the Islamic source from which they originally sprang." Mrs. Ives is accompanied by Miss Ruth Wilson of Moncton.

Mainly because they produce vegetable oils and cocoa, and that for naval and air bases in the-188 they occupy a strategic position for naval and air bases in the event of war, the British West African colonies are of great importance to the Empire, said A. P. C. Rees of the Royal Trust Company, Charlottetown, in addressing the Rotarians at their luncheon yesterday.

LAD TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. Lucy Dunn was held yesterday afternoon with a short service at the house attended by the immediate family followed by a service in Trinity United Church where many friends came to pay their last respects to a friend and neighbour. Rev. L. E. G. Davies conducted both services. The pall bearers were Messrs. Chester Palmer, Geo. Townes, Sterling Gillespie, John Taylor, Horace Lyle and Arthur Bell.—S.

WEDNESDAY
A ladies auxiliary in co-operation with the Canadian National League for the Blind was organized at a meeting in the Canadian National Hotel yesterday afternoon. Mrs. DeBlois, wife of Lieut. Governor DeBlois, was made honorary president and Mrs. W. J. MacMillan was elected president. Other officers include: Mrs. A. Clark, first vice-president; Mrs. William Brehaut, second vice-president; Mrs. D. J. Riley, secretary; Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse, treasurer, social committee. Mrs. Walter Grant, Mrs. W. A. Miller, Mrs. H. F. McPhee, and Mrs. H. A. C. Scarth. About 20 ladies attended the meeting.

MEETING OF GOVERNMENT—The Provincial Government presented to a request contained in a letter from Prime Minister Mackenzie King that the Province petition the British Government to amend the British North America Act in order to allow establishment of federal unemployment insurance in Canada, it was announced yesterday. The Prime Minister's letter, sent to premiers of the other provinces as well said the proposed national system of unemployment insurance would be initiated at the next session of Parliament. Mr. A. E. Jenkins of Georgetown, P. E. I. was appointed a Justice of the Peace, during the meeting and Mr. D. MacKinnon of Monticello, P. E. I., a commissioner for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court.

WELL KNOWN RESIDENT PASSES—At Tignish, P. E. I., on Sunday, Nov. 7th, the death occurred of Peter Brennan after an illness of three months on the home-stead where he was born 79 years ago. He was the youngest and last surviving son of the late John Brennan and Joanna Ellsworth and is survived by four sons and two daughters: James and Frank on the home-stead; Thomas at Westfield; Mrs. H. J. Doyle, Tignish; Mrs. F. Ahearn, Skinner's Pond, P.E.I.; one sister, Mrs. Heber Gavin, Alberton, also survives. His wife predeceased him six years ago. The funeral took place from St. Simon and St. Jude's Church, Tignish on Tuesday, Nov. 9th. Rev. J. Sherry officiated at church and grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. B. Gaudet, J. Knox, R. Handrahan, J. Handrahan, G. Perry, F. Choskey.

PASSING OF MR. G. H. SIMPSON—Sympathy is extended to Dr. J. C. Simpson of Summerside in the death of his father, G. H. Simpson of Bayview who passed away in Vancouver, B. C., recently. Mr. Simpson had been in failing health for some time and went out to Vancouver in January to his brother, Dr. Stewart Simpson. Dr. Simpson visited his father in February and found his condition had not improved. Mr. Simpson was a prominent resident of Bayview. His wife predeceased him some years ago. The body was forwarded to Bayview, P. E. I., for burial. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon. The following family are left to mourn two daughters, Dora, Mrs. Burnham of Rustico, and Walter, MacKenzie of Springfield; two sons, Dr. J. C. Simpson, Summerside and Mr. Rupert Simpson on the home-stead at Bayview; also his mother, Mrs. Toombs of Mayfield, P. E. I., a sister, Mabel, Mrs. (Rev.) Macintosh and his brother, Dr. Simpson in Vancouver, to whom sympathy is extended.—S.

On Saturday, Oct. 23rd, there passed away at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, Mrs. Harvey J. McEwen (nee Blanche MacCallum), in her 41st year. Up to three weeks before, she had been about as usual, though perhaps not feeling the very best. On Sunday Oct. 3rd, she became ill in church and had to leave the building. That week she seemed to rally some. Then a second setback. After removal to the hospital her condition continued uncertain, till a final attack came from which she never rallied.

On Oct. 22nd, 1937, there passed away at the Deaconess Hospital, Boston, Helen Graham Rogerson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Rogerson of Victoria, P.E.I. Quietly as the falling leaves of that beautiful autumn day the young life closed on earth, and her gentle spirit took its flight to the Home above—that sweet and blessed Country, and though in sadness here, and longing for one who will no more return, there is no sorrow there—in the land of the dead.

Mr. Arthur Mould last night was elected president of the Belvedere Golf Club during the annual meeting which was largely attended. Retiring vice-president C. H. Beer presided while Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan paid tribute to the late Mr. W. K. Rogers who was president of the club.

Mr. J. H. Conrad was elected vice-president for the ensuing year. Mr. Alex. Scott, secretary, and Mr. H. J. Gordon, treasurer, New directors chosen were Messrs. W. A. Gaudet, C. A. Beer, L. J. Stacey and Harry Sears.

DEATH OF J. HENRY STAVERT—There passed away in the Prince County Hospital on Monday evening, J. Henry Stavert of Norborn, at 66 years of age. Mr. Stavert with his wife had resided for many years in British Columbia, and only returned to their native province about six weeks ago. Mr. Stavert suffered from a heart condition and had entered the hospital for treatment. He leaves to mourn, his wife, formerly Barbara Stewart of Norborn, one sister, Mrs. Robert Bowness, and three brothers, John and Mabon at Norborn, and Thomas in California. The funeral is taking place on Thursday afternoon from the home of Mr. John Stavert, Norborn. S.

DEATH OF JAMES C. GILLESPIE—There passed away at his home in Carleton on Tuesday afternoon, James Campbell Gillespie, a retired farmer of the district. Mr. Gillespie was a native of Carleton and was 66 years of age. He was a member of the Kirk Church and a most highly respected citizen. His widow was formerly Eliza Caruthers there were no children. Mr. Gillespie was the eldest of three brothers whose remaining are Wm. E., Summerside, and Thomas of Carleton. The sisters are Mrs. Rev. D. M. Campbell, Saskatoon, Mrs. Ernest MacLaren, Ch'town and Mrs. Ray Gillespie Charlottetown, P. E. I., to whom much sympathy is extended.

In the death of Mr. John T. Power, who passed away at his home, 241 Dorchester Street Monday, Charlottetown has lost one of its oldest and best known citizens.

Left to cherish the memory of a kind husband and loving father are: his widow and family of ten: Joseph of the C. N. R. Eight Department; John and Richard of the Canadian National Express Co., Frank with McDougall & McAtulay, contractors; James, proprietor of Jimmy's Taxi; Fred, Roxbury, Mass.; Stasia, at home; Mrs. Certrude Barker, Brookline, Mass.; Margaret, Roxbury, Mass.; and Mrs. Thos. Clarke, Cambridge, Mass.; also four grandchildren, to all of whom the Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

Last evening the Mount Allison Alumni of Charlottetown held an enjoyable dinner and social evening in the Blue Room of the Old Spain. Mr. Frederick Large, the President of the local club, presided. Mr. John Howard, the Alumni Secretary, presided over the relations of Alumni to their Alma Mater. Mr. Arthur Cooper introduced Dr. Frank Day of Sackville, N. B., who delighted the large group with his interesting and enlightening address. He stressed the advances that Mount Allison has accomplished in the past five years, and the advantages which the institution offers today. Miss Vera Campbell and Miss Helen Calbeck rendered well received vocal and violin solos respectively. During the latter part of the evening all joined in dancing or in bridge.

THURSDAY
On Saturday, Oct. 23rd, there passed away at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, Mrs. Harvey J. McEwen (nee Blanche MacCallum), in her 41st year. Up to three weeks before, she had been about as usual, though perhaps not feeling the very best. On Sunday Oct. 3rd, she became ill in church and had to leave the building. That week she seemed to rally some. Then a second setback. After removal to the hospital her condition continued uncertain, till a final attack came from which she never rallied.

On Oct. 22nd, 1937, there passed away at the Deaconess Hospital, Boston, Helen Graham Rogerson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Rogerson of Victoria, P.E.I. Quietly as the falling leaves of that beautiful autumn day the young life closed on earth, and her gentle spirit took its flight to the Home above—that sweet and blessed Country, and though in sadness here, and longing for one who will no more return, there is no sorrow there—in the land of the dead.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McIntyre on November 8th, when their friends and neighbours gathered to say farewell before they move to their new residence. Mr. J. B. Paynter acted as chairman. Mrs. John H. Walker read an address and Mr. Alden Mooney, on behalf of the friends there, made the presentation of a beautiful floor rug. Mr. McIntyre responded, thanking the people for their kindness. After the presentation a few remarks were made by several of the neighbours, then all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." A sing-song led, by Mrs. Walker, was then enjoyed. Lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. One daughter, young and old took part. Special mention might be made of the step-dancing by Mr. N. J. McNeil. The music for the evening was furnished by Messrs. J. Dalziel, Alie McNeill, Harry Mill and Weston Campbell, the accompanions being Mrs. W. Clark and Miss Olive Dalziel.

HAMMILL-CURRIE WEDDING—The marriage of Miss Catherine Currie of this city to Emmet Hammill of the mechanical staff of the Patriot, took place at 6.30 yesterday morning in St. Dunstan's Basilica. Rev. Father Louis Dougan officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Annie Barrett, and the groom by Mr. M.F. Walsh.

The invention of a vertical brush for use in fox pelt cleaning by Anthony Lund of the Charlottetown Fur Sales was explained yesterday. Four of the brushes, simple in appearance and used in cleaning operations, are at present operating in the province and have been termed a "quicker and safer" method by the operators as well as experts who have inspected them.

There passed peacefully away at Cape Traverse on Tuesday evening, Nov. 9 Elizabeth Muttart, dearly beloved wife of Capt. Thomas Howatt, in her 80th year. Deceased had been in failing health for some time but no untill a short time before her death was she compelled to take to her bed. Mrs. Howatt was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Muttart of Carleton.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. John T. Power, one of the largest seen in the city for some time, was held yesterday morning from his late residence, 241 Dorchester Street to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. G. McCormack. The pallbearers were Messrs. William Scott, John King, James Lapping, Joseph Purcell, Thomas Power, and George Bell. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. W. Keefer.

The remains of Rev. Father P. D. McGuigan, Roman Catholic priest at Vernon River, since 1913 who died at the age of 70 in the Charlottetown Hospital Tuesday, were taken to Vernon River yesterday where they will lie in state until Friday morning when the funeral mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock.

Pontifical high mass of requiem was celebrated by His Excellency Rt. Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, Bishop of Charlottetown, at St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. He was assisted by Rev. James A. Murphy, D. D., high priest; Rev. P. Walsh, deacon of the mass; Rev. George McDonald, sub-deacon of the mass, while assisting at the throne were Rev. J. Sullivan and Rev. R. McKenzie. Rev. Louis Dougan was master of ceremonies.

Those who occupied seats in the sanctuary included: Rev. H. I. Flemming, C. S.S.R., and Rev. C. Moreau, C. S.S.R., of the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Charlottetown; Revs. George McCormack, Wilfred Keefer, John Buote, Felix Connolly, Charlotte; Rev. M. J. Smith, D. D., Kinkora; Rev. Joseph Trainor, Curate, Vernon River; Revs. W. McCurdy, E. O'Handley, Richard Ellsworth, Oswald Murphy and Walter McGuigan, St. Dunstan's University.

Rev. B. Gillis, D. D., assisted the choir.

FRIDAY
LAD TO REST—The funeral services for Mrs. George Semple, which were held from the home of Mr. Tyndall Semple, Kensington, on Tuesday afternoon were very largely attended by sympathizing friends from all parts of the province. Rev. Mr. Somers conducted the service assisted by Rev. Mr. Rhodes, Mrs. Russell McKay, Kensington, was the officiating minister. One hymn was "Asleep in Jesus," Jesus Saviour Pilot Me, and "Rock of Ages". The pallbearers were Heath Mayhew, James Gallagher, Noe Moase, Harold Moase, Ray Soudbury and Roy Mills.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Tanton, Charlottetown, was the scene of a happy family gathering on Wednesday evening the 17th. The occasion was that of celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Over a score of guests sat at the banquet tables to enjoy an old time goose and chicken repast. The tables, decorated with gorgeous golden and white chrysanthemums and carnations selected from the very liberal and unexpected presents, and the ever present centerpiece, the pyramid cake with its mottoe and its fifty emblematic lighted tapers, and the usual viands of an inviting menu such as might attract the tastes of the gods.

Mr. and Mrs. Tanton were married at Summerside on Thanksgiving day, November 17, 1887. The family circle is a large one, one son and six daughters married, and two, a son and daughter at home. There are fifteen grandchildren two of which Carol McCann and Thelma Beaton assisted in the reception and at the tables. Mr. Tanton's brother, Prof. H. A. Tanton and his sister, Mrs. Ethel B. Coombs were among the guests. One daughter, Mrs. Gladys Singleton and family, Wakefield, Mass., one son-in-law, absent on railway business, and two sisters of Mrs. Tanton, Mrs. Maud McDonald of Summerside and Mrs. Elizabeth Patterson of Colorado and her brother, Wilfred Tanton, Barrister, of Alberton were by reason of distance, absent.

Many were the greetings and well wishes and pleasant conversations and felicitations which only a young man and woman, and not a large number even of these, are permitted to enjoy but once in a lifetime.

REQUIEM MASS—The officials of the Belvedere Cemetery Company have this year already received the following requests for the care of plots in the cemetery: Mrs. Julia Parsons $200.00, Mrs. M. E. D. Sherren, $25.00, Mr. H. W. Longworth $250.00 and Mrs. Jane L. Robinson $150.00.

LAD TO REST—The funeral of Mrs. Margaret A. Dougan took place from her late residence 12 Pleasant Street yesterday morning to St. Dunstan's Basilica and was largely attended. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Thomas MacMillan, William Flynn, William Brown, Edward Haney, James Lamphier and Peter MacQuade. Services at the church and grave were conducted by Rev. Father Dougan.

ENJOYABLE DANCE—One of the most enjoyable dances of the season, sponsored by the Plymouth Rocks Bowling team, was held in the Casino Wednesday evening, music being provided by Blanchard's Orchestra. About 200 persons were in attendance. A feature of the evening was competition dances, the prize money being won by Russel Milly and Betty McEachern and the Bingo dance by Walter White and Eileen McPherson.

Major D. A. MacDonald has returned to Charlottetown from Cape Tormentine, N. B., where he was contractor for the new Canadian National Railway station house. The new building of tile, brick and stucco construction, replaces a wooden structure razed by flames early the past summer. The new one storey building is 95 feet long and 25 feet wide. It contains office, waiting rooms, baggage and freight sections.

ANNUAL ST. PAUL'S TEA—The annual tea under the auspices of the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Anglican Church was held yesterday and was very largely attended. Color scheme in the Parish Hall, where the function took place, was yellow. Decorations were very artistically arranged. Attendance, officials of the Guild said last night, was larger than on the previous year.

RE-ORGANIZE LEGION AT KENSINGTON—A branch of the Canadian Legion was re-organized at Kensington last night. Mr. Robert MacDonald was made branch president at an enthusiastic meeting. A delegation of provincial officers of the Legion visited the Prince County town and assisted at the re-organization. When the business of the session had been completed a delicious oyster supper was served.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Holy Redeemer on Wednesday morning, November 17th when Marion Elizabeth MacKinnon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. MacKinnon, Charlottetown, became the bride of Louis Edgar Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilda Peters, North Milton. The ceremony and nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. H. I. Flemming, C. S.S.R.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

FAREWELL GATHERING—Friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacIntyre gathered at their home in New Annan to bid them farewell before their departure to their new home in Kensington. A fitting address was read by Mrs. John Walker showing Mr. and Mrs. MacIntyre's esteem in the community, and a presentation of two beautiful rugs by Mr. Alden Moase, to which Mr. MacIntyre replied thanking the community on behalf of himself and Mrs. MacIntyre. The evening was very pleasantly spent in games music and dancing after which a dainty luncheon was served by the ladies.

PHYTHIANS HEAR ADDRESS—"The great game of scouting is not in doing things but in replacing or improving upon the functions of the Church, home or school but to fill a long felt want in putting to good use the boy's love of play and to assist in the utilization of what should otherwise be called "spare time". Mr. William Warren, District Commissioner of the Prince Edward Island Boy Scout Association, told the weekly meeting of the Knights of Pythias last night. The number of scouts in this Province was rapidly increasing, the speaker said. Further development was being retarded because of a lack of leaders. "Here is an opportunity for men to do a lasting service to boyhood and to the community, in which they live," the District Commissioner concluded.

A telegram received yesterday from his daughter Rita stated that her father George Carter had passed away in the hospital where he had undergone a serious operation, and from which he had not rallied.

The late Mr. Carter was well known by many in Charlottetown and vicinity who will regret to learn of his passing in his eighty-first year, over thirty of which he resided in the City of New York where he lived with his family, leaving to mourn two sons and four daughters, his wife having predeceased him many years ago. The late Mr. Carter was formerly a prominent merchant in this city. Born at Winslow Road, he came to Charlottetown when quite a young man, and founded the business which is still carried on and known as Carter's Bookstore, and Carter's Seedstore. This business was established in 1879 and is still conducted by his brother Isaac who is the only surviving brother.

funeral of Patrick Duffy took place yesterday morning from his late residence to St. Patrick's Church, Fort Augustus and was largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Hagarty, John Webster, Peter Holland, Joseph Duffy, Joseph Kelly and John Heron. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Father Croken, assisted by Father Oswald Murphy, deacon and Father Francis MacQuade, sub-deacon. Rev. D. P. Croken officiated at the grave.

BIRTHS

STEVENSON—At New Glasgow, on Nov. 3, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stevenson, a daughter, Marion Inez.

WEBSTER—At Kensington, Nov. 9, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. George Webster, a daughter.

WILLIAMS—At the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Nov. 15, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. William Gillespie, Southport, a daughter.

WILLIAMS—At the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Nov. 10, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, (nee Connie Richardson), city, a son, CONSTANCE—At Borden, P. E. I., November 10, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Constable a son (David Fletcher).

QUIGLEY—At New Glasgow, P. E. Island, on Saturday, November, 13, 1937, to Rev. W. G. and Mrs. Quigley, a daughter (Opal Corinne).

MURPHY—At the Prince County Hospital, Nov. 12, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Murphy, Burlington, a son.

KING—At 190 Malpeque Road on November 18, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. H. H. King, a daughter.

ROGERS—At the Prince County Hospital, November 18, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rogers, Linkletter Road, a son.

STEAD—At Hunter River on Oct. 29, 1937, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stead, a son.

MARRIAGES

CURRIE-HAMMILL—At St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, Nov. 17, 1937, by Rev. Father Louis Dougan, Catherine Currie to Emmet Hammill, both of Charlottetown.

MACKINNON—MAYE—At the Holy Redeemer Charlottetown, Nov. 19, 1937, by Rev. P. Flemming, C. S.S.R., Lois MacKinnon to Joseph Maye both of Cove Head.

HOWATT-DUNSFORD—At the United Church parsonage, Hampton, on Nov. 15, 1937, by the Rev. E. J. Morrison, Brenton Howatt of East Royalty to Hilda Dunford of South Melville.

DEATHS

EASTER—At North Wiltshire on Wednesday, Nov. 17, 1937, Mrs. William K. Easter, aged 75 years.

MACMILLAN—In the Charlottetown Hospital November 17, 1937 Duncan A. MacMillan aged 69.

FRUGHT—At Cherry Valley on Wednesday November 17, 1937, Joseph Praught, aged 85 years.

JAY—At Mt. Stewart, Nov. 15, 1937, George Jay.

POWELL—At 211 Dorchester St., on Nov. 15, 1937, John T. Power, aged 80 years.

CANAWELL—In the Sacred Heart Home on Sunday, Nov. 14, 1937, Joan Cantwell.

DOUGAN—In Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 25, 1937, John M. Dougan, formerly of this city, in his 86th year.

CARVER—Died in New York City Tuesday, November 16, 1937 George Carter in his 81st year.

ROSS—At Vernon, November 17, 1937, Cephas B. Ross, in his 79th year.

LEESONE—At Charlottetown on Thursday, November 18, 1937, Miss Isabella Leesone in her 85th year.