Irish General To Be Court-Martialed

DUBLIN, Jan. 11.—Ernest O'Malley, ex-commandant of the 1st Battalion of the 1st Irish Brigade, was court-martialed today for a raid on November 4, 1919, in which he was killed. O'Malley was taken by a raiding party, searching for Eamon De Valera. It was he who officially surrendered the Four Courts on behalf of the Republican garrison after the memorable siege which ended on June 30 last. He later escaped from Mountjoy prison, resuming his activities with the irregulars.

In a letter to Liam Lynch, the Republican chief of staff, O'Malley declared he had refused legal aid and added: "Another bit of lead won't do me any harm." Lynch replied by expressing the hope that the "enemy" referring to the Free State, "would not be so mad as to execute you."

The Central Guardian One Million Must Give Up Homes

LAUSANNE Jan. 11.—One million human lives are vitally affected by the decision reached by the Near Eastern conference today. One million Moslems and Christians who live either in Greece or Turkey must give up their farms and their homes and business places in the villages, towns and cities and move on to find farms, homes and occupations elsewhere.

In the interest of future peace between Turkey and Greece the Mohammedans who dwell in the Helles peninsula must henceforth reside in Turkey and Greek Christians who dwell in Turkey must emigrate to Greece and live their lives there.

The statesmen have no illusions about the hardships this compulsory exchange of populations will entail on the individuals affected. They justify their action by pointing out the maintenance of peace will have in the Near East, which the conference was summoned to proclaim.

That peace in some form will be signed at Lausanne seems probable in consequence of today's developments. It is reported that the Mosul oil dispute will be settled outside the conference and earnest efforts are being made to find some satisfactory formula concerning judicial guarantees for foreign residents in Turkey which will be acceptable to the Turks. Today's events were of a nature to propitiate the Greeks, for the Orthodox Church, which remains in Constantinople, provided he abandoned all political and administrative activities and devoted himself exclusively to spiritual matters. Also, as an exception to the general exchange of populations, the Greek colony in Constantinople will be allowed to remain there. The compulsory exchange will be carried out as humanely and justly as possible under the which will appraise the values of all individual properties and exchange of mailies and communities. About 400,000 Mohammedans who settled in the plains of Scilly, will be asked to emigrate to Turkey. So many Greeks have already fled from Asia Minor that it is difficult to estimate the number at present but it is believed about 600,000 will be affected.

As to the reparations commission given by a majority vote, what was regarded by France as formal justification of her action, the Times says, in reality the commission which was intended to be an impartial authority for the execution of peace treaties on behalf of all the Allies has been put into the humiliating position of being made the instrument of French policy.

Such a state of affairs cannot be promoted in Europe. There cannot, and ought not to be, any kind of British approval of the kind of action France is now taking to secure some of the fruits of the war which was fought in common.

The Communist leaders always have taken the stand that Premier Poincaré's policy was the very thing to drive Germany to revolution and they therefore are watching the situation intently. Russia repeatedly has reiterated her peace intentions but some months ago the Russian Minister of War Trotsky in an interesting and revealing correspondence with a French newspaper stated that the French had a fast and interesting hockey match at a fast clip and missed a few chances to score. After about 15 minutes to play McDormand and Jack invaded the Ruhr, thus precipitating the recent conference of Communist and Bolsheviks which was attended by French Communists and which passed resolutions opposing the French invasion. The newspaper declared this conference may play a serious role in the situation, adding: "We know that the Communists are people of action who seriously want a struggle with the bourgeoisie in all walks of life."

Attempt To Unseat Mayor of Montreal

MONTREAL, Jan. 11.—The first step in the local proceedings instigated by E. W. Villeneuve to unseat Mayor Mederic Martin of Montreal, occurred this morning with the issuance of a writ against his worship summoning him to appear and show by what authority he sits as the city's first magistrate.

Mr. Villeneuve contests the Mayor's authority on grounds of contravention of the city charter which the Mayor "must actually reside in Montreal, not only during his incumbency, but for three years prior to his nomination. The petitioner claims that Mayor Martin does not comply with these stipulations.

Boston Wharves Are Crowded With Shipping

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—The greatest shipping boom since the days of the world war is now at its height at this port. Work for 2,000 longshoremen can be had at the transatlantic terminals, it is said. At the rate of 70 cents an hour for day work and $1.05 for night work the pay envelopes of those now on the job are well filled.

British mail steamers have been forced to wait a week or 10 days in the harbor before obtaining docking facilities, and many of them rather than delay that long, have gone to other ports.

Since the closing of the St. Lawrence river there has been an increasing flow of grain and other port. More than a million and a half tons were shipped in one week in December.

At 1,000 men have been employed and nearly 30 vessels were unloading during the past month. Passenger space has been taken over for freight.

Piles of canned goods 50 feet high and shipments valued at between $10,000,000 and $12,000,000 have been stored at the Commonwealth pier at one time.

West Virginia man of 83 has just ridden his first street car, and this is a long time to wait for a street car.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Jake Schaeffer, former 18.2 billion champion was another try for crown now held by Willie Hoppe, defeating Roger Conti, France in challenge round 1500 to 785.

Bathurst Defeats Moncton 7-2

BATHURST, N. B. Jan. 11.—The Bathurst hockey team continued its winning streak tonight when in a fast and clean game at the rink here they scored seven goals to Moncton's two in the local teams fourth match in the Northern section of the N. B. and P. E. I. Hockey League.

Moncton scored first, but the lead was short lived for it was only three minutes later that Ryan notched the first one for Bathurst. All the first period the play was very even, every man on both sides giving a good account of himself. The second period started with a speeding by the Bathurst team which kept the visitors almost continually on the defensive.

In the third period the play continued fast and furious with local boys showing greater speed and much superior combination while the Moncton boys seemed to be tired.

Moncton took the offensive for a few minutes and as a result, Milton got past Moar for their second and last score.

For the remainder of the period both sides played great hockey but neither succeeded in accomplishing much. Chas. Brown refereed the game.

London Times Condemns Action Taken By France

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The Times says that from the first there has been little ground for hope that the French would stay their hand. Their plans were framed before the reparations conference and the state of mind that these indicated did in fact render it almost impossible that the conference should succeed.

As to the reparations commission given by a majority vote, what was regarded by France as formal justification of her action, the Times says, in reality the commission which was intended to be an impartial authority for the execution of peace treaties on behalf of all the Allies has been put into the humiliating position of being made the instrument of French policy.
