DOLLAR DAY, THURSDAY

As will be seen by our advertisements the merchants of the City have made every possible preparation for Dollar Day and their customers in City and country may rest assured that tomorrow will be a day of exceptional bargains.

Arrangements have been made for special train accommodation which will give customers from a distance ample time to do their shopping and return home at a reasonable hour.

IMPORTANT BILLS OF SESSION

In addition to the Military Service Bill, now engaging the attention of Parliament several other bills of more than ordinary importance have been given first reading.

It will be remembered that during the first session after the return of the Borden government and in fulfillment of one of the planks in Sir Robert Borden's platform, namely, "The granting of substantial assistance towards the improvement of our public highways" a bill was introduced appropriating a million and a half dollars for this purpose.

Now that the Senate is no longer able to defeat a government measure the bill will in all probability be carried and we and our sister provinces will receive at least an appropriation, whatever the amount may be.

Another is an amendment to the criminal code which disfranchises aliens resident in Canada. This Act provides that "Any person who votes for any person for any public office, or who takes any active part in any election for any public office by becoming a candidate, speaking, writing, canvassing or driving voters to the poll, who was or is a citizen of any country now or at any time during the past five years at war with Great Britain or her Allies; or who was a subject of any country not allied with Great Britain or her Allies, which does not permit its citizens the rights of expatriation, or holds the doctrine of dual citizenship or who was exiled or banished from any allied country, even though such person may have been granted naturalization in Canada or Great Britain, or may have his or her name on the voters' list; shall be deemed guilty of an offence, and on conviction before a court of competent jurisdiction shall be liable to imprisonment for a term of not less than two years, together with forfeiture of civil rights and all property to the Crown."

The provisions of this bill shall not apply to any person who is serving or has served in the Army or Navy or has been a naturalized citizen of Canada for 25 years. The bill also provides that any person giving such information as will lead to the conviction of any such person shall be entitled to one third of all fines and forfeiture.

There is also the "Summer Time Act," popularly known as the Daylight Saving Act, which provides that "for general purposes in Canada the time shall be one hour in advance of the solar mean time." This Act, if passed, will come into effect by Order of the Governor-in-Council.

SWAT THE FLY

With the beautiful summer weather with which we have been blessed during the past two weeks and which has transformed the naked trees into veritable bouquets, and clothed the dark earth with a mantle of living green, have come the pesky, disease carrying flies. The time to head these pests off is now, before they all come, now while only the reconnoitering groups are here, now before they get down to business and swarm into the houses.

Most of the residences in City and country are protected against these pests and but for the breeding places with which both city and country abound there would be very little trouble. It has been observed that in many back yards and stable yards in the City manure heaps are left open, and in these the flies get their start in life. If the City regulations were fully observed these pest-breeding places would give no trouble. This is the time to look after them, the time for the police to insist upon the strict observance of the regulations one of which says:

"Every owner or occupier of premises allowing or permitting any dirt, manure, animal or vegetable substance, stagnant water, filth or refuse of any kind, to accumulate in any house, warehouse, cellar, yard, field, or other place in the said City, until it becomes offensive and in an unwholesome condition, shall be liable to the penalties of this by-law."

The time at which such filth becomes offensive and at which its removal may be ordered is simply when it is filth and its removal should be ordered at once.

Unfortunately there is a by-law permitting the keeping of swine or pigs within the City limits, but fortunately also, the conditions under which such swine or pigs may be kept are impossible of fulfillment and therefore it may be presumed that under the provisions of the by-law the keeping of pigs or swine within the City limits is unlawful. The by-law reads:

"Persons keeping swine or pigs shall, at all times, keep their styes and premises, wherein such pigs are kept, clean and wholesome and any person failing so to do shall be subject to the penalties of this by-law."

It may be assumed that, if the pigs are alive, the styes and premises in which they are kept cannot be kept "clean and wholesome." No respectable hog ever lived long enough to fatten in a sty that could by any stretch of imagination be called "clean and wholesome" except for a pig. A pigsty in a city cannot be other than a nuisance, a breeding place for flies and a menace to the health of the neighborhood. No farmer keeps his pigsty within the distance of his dwelling that the city sty must be of his own or his neighbor's dwelling. This species of nuisance should be summarily done away with.

NOTES

Even if the Kaiser did own property in the Canadian West, as reported, he would hardly come here as an immigrant after the war.

SHOULD BE LOTS OF COAL.

WASHINGTON.—The Senate interstate commerce committee today decided to begin hearing next Tuesday to include not only coal price fixing, but also steel, copper, iron and other supplies.

In a statement to the committee Senator Pomeroy declared that coal dealers made between 35 per cent. and 40 per cent. profit last year and that unless something is done coal in Ohio at least will go up to $8 a ton by fall.

"Coal should be plentiful this fall and winter," interstate commerce Commissioner Meyer said.

FURTHER HONOR FOR CANADIAN ARMEN.

LONDON.—Flight Commander Douglas Hallam, of the Naval Air Service, a son of the late Alderman, Toronto, has been presented with a bar to the Distinguished Service Cross and is also mentioned in the Admiralty despatches.

Hallam came to England as a private in the original Canadian contingent, received his commission in the Naval Air Service, and was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for work at Gallipoli. He was also mentioned in the despatches.

SHIPS ACROSS THE SEA.

One of the most heartening pieces of news of the past few days was that announcing the safe arrival in British waters of the flotilla of United States destroyers, some over to cooperate with the British Navy in the hunt for German submarines. We have not been told how large was the flotilla. Of course, the larger the better, but the important, the cheering fact is this—they are there helping our own brave tars to check and destroy Hun piracy.

It is cheering to know that our kinfolk to the south are at last with us in the terrible struggle in behalf of civilization. Hands across the sea indeed! It is hands and stout hearts and good ships, and before long it will be army corps and guns.

Again, after almost a century of separation we are one, shoulder to shoulder, blade to blade, "marching along, steady and strong," as the old song says, "like the boys of the old brigade."

At last the two branches of the great English speaking family are pulling together, and they will haul the burden they have voluntarily taken up, to the top of the hill of decisive victory.
