U. S. Restriction Of Immigration 4,000 Yearly

(By Ken Clark, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28—The extra session of Congress will probably see restriction of immigration from Canada to about 4,000 annually. If the depression in industry continues, there appears to be no doubt that the sentiment in Congress against immigration which has been steadily increasing for the last few years will accomplish its purpose of making the United States virtually a country barred to foreigners who intend permanent residence.

(British United Press)
PARIS, March 28—The Canadian designer, Harry Jenkins, who conducts a famous fashion house in the Rue de la Paix and who is known as a rival to that celebrated master of fashions, Captain Molyneux, told the British United Press today: "I predict that long evening dresses will remain for years but that afternoon dresses will never be longer than two inches below the knee except, for example, at receptions at Government House when women will wear trailing skirts and wide hats, which lend them an air of elegance recalling the brilliant scenes of pre-war days."

NAT. DAIRY COUNCIL HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Sessions At Winnipeg Considered Best Ever Held By The Council — Island Representative Present.

(Special to the Guardian)
The annual meeting of the National Dairy Council of Canada was held in Winnipeg March 17th, 18th and 19th. Delegates from every Province in Canada were present with the exception of British Columbia, each province sending from one to four delegates. W. J. Gibson, Marshfield, was Prince Edward Island's representative.
The meetings were considered the best ever held by the Council, as a number of very important questions were thoroughly discussed. The formation of a Dominion-Wide Dairy policy was featured. The main points in this policy were:
First—To build a prosperous dairy industry, the foundation of general live stock husbandry.
Second—To produce dairy products both raw and manufactured, sufficient to meet all domestic requirements.
Third—To re-establish and maintain a substantial export trade with continuity of supply and superior quality. This policy takes in the production of butter, cheese, fluid milk and cream. A most permanent all around agriculture accompanies the butter industry involving profitable pork and poultry production by utilizing milk by-products.
It was stated that Canadian cheese held a very strong place on the British market, selling for about 30 a pound more than their chief competitor, New Zealand.
The question of consolidation of creameries and cheese factories was also recommended. It is a well known fact that in certain parts of Canada there are too many small factories which is not in the interest of quality and also adds to the over-head which makes high manufacturing costs. The policy emphasized the value of cow testing to increase the average production per cow, and also advocated the use of registered pure bred inspected bulls, the value of healthy herds and T.B. free areas. The control of contagious abortion. Cheaper feeds were declared essential in expanding the production of dairy products. Lower

Full Independence Is Demanded By India Congress

Declaration Is Qualified With A Basis Of Equality Within The British Empire.

Leads G. G. B. G.'s

NEW CAVALRY COMMANDER
Lt.-Col. W. L. Rawlinson, M. C., V. D., who succeeds Lt.-Col. J. E. L. Straight, M. C., V. D., in command of the Governor-General's Body Guard.

(British United Press)
KARACHI, India, March 29.—Complete independence which does not, however, preclude association with Great Britain on a basis of equality, was demanded today by Vallabhai Patel, President of the All-India Congress, in his speech opening the formal session of the national convention today. The venerable, white-haired Patel, supporter of the Mahatma M. K. Gandhi and long associated with him in the campaign for independence, sounded a note of defiance when he declared that the Congress did not contemplate receding from its resolution adopted at Lahore, demanding complete and absolute independence. The patriarchal appearing leader of the Congress, however, apparently sought to satisfy the more conservative elements within that Nationalistic body by asserting that this independence did not obviate the possibility of association with Britain on a basis of equality. "This independence," Patel said, "does not mean a churlish refusal to associate with Great Britain or another power. Independence, therefore, does not exclude the possibility of equal independence." "It also, therefore, does not exclude the possibility of an equal partnership to our mutual benefit dissoluble at the will of either party." "If India is to reach independence through consultation and agreement, it is reasonable to suppose that there will be an association with the British."

(Special to the Guardian)
The younger radical elements within the Congress had demanded a declaration for full independence. Patel, it appeared, sought in his 4,000 word speech to appease these delegates, whose power has been on the increase in recent weeks. Nevertheless, he supported Gandhi's attitude in that he demanded full independence, but qualified it with the conception of an association on a basis of equality within the British Empire.

STANDS TO WIN FORTUNE

(Special to the Guardian)
HOLLY, Colo., March 28—Five children were frozen to death in a school bus stranded in a blizzard 45 miles northeast of Lamar. Eighteen other children occupants of the bus were in a serious condition today. The storm swept the region Thursday.
Ernie Johnson and Abe Stonebreaker broke a path through to the bus which was stalled on the TOWN-ER Holly highway Thursday morning and found the five dead. The driver, Carl Miller, was missing and 18 other school children ranging in ages from 9 to 16 years were huddled together and freezing.
The children had been dismissed from the Pleasant Hill School in district 17 of Kiowa County at 10 a. m. Thursday when a blizzard threatened to block the roads. The storm struck so suddenly that the bus completed only a mile of an 11 mile trip to the homes of the children, when it ran into a ditch at the side of the road. A 15 foot drift soon engulfed the vehicle. The snow and sleet quickly buried any possible supply of fuel and the children frightened and then hungry, kept close together in an attempt to keep warm.
The bus driver Miller stayed with the children until Friday, then he struck out alone to summon help. He is still missing. Twenty men left today to search for him. The whole countryside is covered by snow ranging in depth from three inches to 15 feet.

Tourist Traffic Asset To Canada

OTTAWA, March 28—Despite a falling off from 1929, the tourist traffic still remains a decidedly prolific source of income in Canada. Figures for 1930, estimated by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, place the value of tourist traffic at $280,000,000. This substantial figure in the face of farung economic depression was only $28,000,000 less than 1929.
Automobile tourists from the United States increased in numbers, but apparently did not spend as much money. The estimated expenditure was $202,409,000 as compared with $215,577,000 in 1929. The conclusion reached by the mathematicians at the Bureau of Statistics, is that the relative cheapness of a motor trip through Canadian highways had appeal for those who in more prosperous times, might have been inquisitive about the beauty of the Swiss lakes or the attractions of Monte Carlo. Total tourists from the United States numbered 5,400,000 as against 4,508,000.
Canadian tourists abroad also were watching their pocketbooks. Automobiles carried tourists to the United States who parted with $63,489,000, according to the estimate. This compared with $65,055,000 in the previous year. Total expenditures abroad of all Canadians is placed at $113,000,000 as against $122,000,000 in the year of booming stock quotations.

CHICAGO, March 28—Snow, sleet and rain were carried on high winds across the country today and temperatures fell to zero in many places as winter staged a vicious rally, which weather experts predicted would be its last this year.
The belated blizzard reached its greatest intensity in States between the Rocky Mountains and the Mississippi River, extending southward into Texas and northward far into Canada. As it swirled across the continent some of its force was lost, but even in Illinois several inches of snow fell. Predictions were some snow might be swept as far east as the coast.
