tion: The Nazi raider which had dropped bombs in various parts of a town there was headed off by fighter planes and shot down.

Raids Begin Early

The day's raids began in early morning with the arrival of a Nazi squadron over the southwest coast.

The Nazis dropped six bombs in the space of half a minute. One smashed a children's playground and then as fighter planes roared aloft, the day's first aerial engagement was under way.

R. A. F. Attacks

The Air Ministry reported that in Thursday night's bombing by the R.A.F. a concentration of barges at Boulogne, France, was bombed, enemy flying boats moored in the harbor machine-gunned and lock gates damaged.

The Rotterdam airport at Waalhaven attacked continuously for two hours, was badly damaged and bombs were dropped on the Schipol airdrome on the outskirts of Amsterdam and the airdrome of Hammstaade on the island of Schouwen.

Docks at Bremen, munition works at Ludwigshaven and near Cologne, blast furnaces at Seigburg, near Cologne and a factory at Mutterstadt also came under the British fire.

During the day the Admiralty announced that the patrol yacht Warrior 2nd was sunk by enemy bombing the channel Thursday, with the loss of one seaman.

Bloomfield District Convention

The annual District Convention of Plusville, Roseville, Campbellton, Bloomfield Corner and Duvar Womens' Institutes was held in Bloomfield Station hall on Monday, July 8, with a good attendance.

The meeting opened by reciting the Creed in unison, followed by the Institute Ode. The above named Institutes answered the roll call and their respective secretaries namely: Miss Mary E. Corcoran, Miss Marjorie Kelly, Mrs. Lloyd Bradshaw, Mrs. Arthur Martin and Miss Helen Doiron gave very interesting reports of the activities of their Institutes during the year.

As the secretary, Mrs. Edmund Pineau, was absent, Miss Marjorie Kelly was chosen to fill the vacancy pro tem.

The minutes of the 1939 District Convention were read by the acting secretary and on motion were adopted.

A very cordial address of welcome was given by Mrs. Harold Doyle, of Campbellton Institute. This address was fittingly replied to by Mrs. Robert Martin of Bloomfield Corner institute.

The president, Mrs. Urban Pineau, gave her splendid address, which was greatly appreciated.

The following new officers were appointed for the ensuing year::

Pres.—Mrs. Harold Doyle.
Vice-pres.—Miss Marjorie Kelly.
Sec.—Mrs. William MacKendrick.

Mrs. Urban Pineau was the delegate chosen to attend the 1941 annual convention in Charlottetown.

After the singing of "O Canada" two very excellent demonstrations were carried out by the Campbellton Institute. The first demonstration on canning vegetables was given by Mrs. Lloyd Bradshaw, and the second on removing ink from tablecloths with sweet milk, was given by Mrs. Harold Doyle.

After a violin solo by Miss Agatha Gallant, Miss Mary G. MacDonald, supervisor, gave a splendid address in which she urged the members to prepare themselves and their families for the after effects of the war, and to take an interest in their respective communities. She stated that we must use all precautions to prevent diseases which follow war. She asked the members to take a copy of "Food for Health in Peace and War," which she was leaving on the platform. Miss MacDonald urged the members to buy war savings certificates and stamps, even if they had to cut down on pleasures. At the conclusion of her address she showed and explained how the various Red Cross knitting and sewing was done. She then gave a wonderful demonstration on apron-making.

Miss Marjorie Kelly, who was the delegate to the annual convention in Charlottetown, gave a very interesting report of the various meetings and speakers.

After a vote of thanks was extended to the Supervisor, the session adjourned.

While supper was being served, Miss MacDonald judged the exhibits. Two first prizes and a third were awarded for "The Prettiest Thing Made Out of a Flour Bag." The winners were, first prizes, Mrs. Harold Doyle and Miss Marjorie Kelly (equal) 3rd prize, Mrs. Mary Gallant. No second prize was awarded. Two essays on "Canada's part in the war," were judged by Mr. Reddin. First prize was awarded to Adelide Richards Duvar, 2nd prize to Obelne Richards Duvar.

The evening session opened with O Canada, followed by a solo "Blue Eyes," by Marcia Gallant, which was encored.

Mr. Aneas Gallant, M.L.A., in a few introductory remarks introduced the guest speakers. The first was Mr. Gillies, who spoke along co-operative lines. He said the art of working together is as old as the hills, dating back to the stumping frolic days. He stated that two or three people working together will accomplish their objective more speedily and to better advantage than two or three people working individually. The speaker said the Women's Institute is the finest example of co-operation for all time—there being 272 branches in this province.

After instrumental music by Duvar Institute, Mr. Reddin, of the staff of Prince of Wales College, spoke on "Education." He spoke of teachers' tenure of office and teachers' salaries, stating you just get what you pay for. He said some country districts were not even willing to pay a "decent" supplement. To bring out his point, the speaker used a very adequate sentence: "Money has favored lodging places but the children have no choice." He urged better paid teachers and better equipment to teach the children. He also dealt with the teaching of agriculture, the subject which he teaches at P.W.C.

After a pretty flag drill by the Plusville school children, the third speaker, Mr. Reid, of the Department of Agriculture, was heard. Mr. Reid spoke on his pet subject of "Poultry." He stated that poultry was the only class of livestock on a farm that would pay dividends.

After a vote of thanks was tendered the speakers, the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

When all expenses are paid, the proceeds are to go to the Prince County Hospital.

Use Minard's for aches.

knew nothing and are only just learning the results. One must remember this when reading anything emanating from France."

Even what the French government said came through a curtain of fear —fear that Germany would violate or repudiate the armistice. Fear for their families and the violence which may be committed against them.

"When I left Bordeaux people already had ceased to talk," he said. "Confusion reigned and they were afraid. What must it be now? But you know France—you must have seen and known there was not capitulation in the hearts of the French people."

"When fighting a war, in the last analysis it is a question of strength," General De Gaulle said. "We want France to continue as a military force.

"But morally it is even more necessary. France cannot speak. People are forced to be silent — but they can think. It is necessary that they know there are Frenchmen who continue the war, who carry on for them."

Gen. De Gaulle said the defeat of France was not due, as Gen. Weygand has said, to the greater number of Germans. It was due to incomprehension of the new form of warfare. It was not men but training for a war of movement, and machines, which were lacking.

"An army of 10,000 men properly trained and mechanized would have been more effective than 100,000 or more with their rifles," he said.

France's generals and troops had been trained for other tactics. The idea of "lines" in depth and the "front" dominated Gen. Weygand. The French soldier had been trained for an enemy in front of him. He found no Germans in front. Instead they formed into a powerful knife-like weapon which cut through and then spread out behind the French.

De Gaulle had expected warfare of that kind. Now he is training his army to meet it.

Third Term Try Looms As Probability

WASHINGTON July 12.—(AP)—Almost every official except President Roosevelt appeared to be willing tonight to acknowledge that the President would consent to be drafted by the Democratic convention, now only three days away.

But Mr. Roosevelt's semi-weekly sparring with reporters at his press conference today produced only a flat statement that he is not going to the Chicago convention, and a studied continuation of his silence on that burning political question: Will he or won't he agree to run again?

He did say he expects to cruise on the Potomac River this week-end, spend two or three days at his home at Hyde Park, N.Y., next week-end, and that that would be his practice practically for the rest of the summer.

Down The Back Stretch

owned her dam Morning Bells and bred her to Todd 2.14 3-4. Their small but very handsome brown filly he named Emily Ellen after a close friend of the family. Emily Ellen developed into a good trotter and raced in all the leading three-year-old futurities and three-year-old trotting stakes in 1910. She took her record of 2.09 1-4 in the second heat of the Kentucky Futurity, heading Colorado E. (3) 2.04 3-4 and Grace 2.04 3-4 to the wire.

Retired to breeding ranks she soon showed the quality of her breeding by the performers which she foaled. She is now the dam of twelve in the list, nine trotters with records of 2.10 or better and three sons which have sired two-minute performers. They are Guy Castleton (2) 2.19, sire of Margaret Castleton (4) 1.59 1-4; Day Star (3) 2.05, sire of Star Etwah 1.59 3-4 and Lee Tide (4) 2.05, sire of Spencer 1.59 3-4; the sire of Spintell 1.58 3-4. Spencer 1.59 3-4 won the rich Hambletonian stake of 1928 and shortly after won the Kentucky Futurity. He was bred by Mr. Look and is still owned by him and at that time Mr. Look estimated that Emily Ellen's family had earned for him and his Castleton Farm approximately $465,000. What the returns would be if computed today is almost beyond estimating.

This season Emily Ellen's grandchildren and great grandchildren are racing on various tracks throughout the United States. Perhaps the most outstanding performance was that of the two-year-old Spencer Scott who won in 2.05 from a splendid field at Indianapolis two weeks ago. There are many more of them adding to the prestige of the Queen of Castleton.

Her son Spencer 1.59 3-4 appears to be heading for the top as a sire as with limited opportunities he is credited with eighteen 2.05 or better trotters and six 2.05 or better pacers.

Reference to Emily Ellen calls to mind that her sire Todd 2.14 3-4 had a son, Mayor Todd 2.15 1-2, that was the popular favorite of the Maritimes for several years. Todd 2.14 3-4 was sired by Bingen 2.06 1-2 and was a worthy son of a worthy sire. Todd's death at nine years of age robbed the turf of an outstanding progenitor. The Bingens or Todds possessed remarkable speed and a smooth way of going that often led to their undoing as trainers were inclined to work them too fast before they were sufficiently developed. This led to the theory that the Bingen tribe was "soft," a most unjust accusation and one that did irreparable harm to the breeding industry.

Bingen 2.06 1-4 and Peter the Great 2.07 1-2 were both owned by J. Malcolm Forbes and were kept at Ponkaponk Farm near Boston. Mr. Forbes took a dislike to Peter the Great and he might have gone into the discard but for the fact that a three-year-old by him, Sadie Mac, showed sensational speed and that started Peter on the road to fame. Today the get of Peter the Great crossed with the progeny of Guy Axworthy 2.08 3-4 are the most sought after, but infusions of Bingen blood has given us some of the world's greatest performers such as Lee Axworthy 1.58 1-2 and Spencer 1.59 3-4.

Quite a contingent of ex-Islanders are reported coming down for Old Home Week, August 13th to 16th. Among them will be Dr. F. W. Christopher, Boston, and George MacDonald, Alliston, Mass. All over the Maritimes Old Home Week is spoken of with favor and auto parties are being made up in practically every town and hamlet of the three provinces, with Charlottetown their destination.

Friends of Hedlye T. Fulton throughout the Maritimes—and they are legion—will be delighted to learn the contents of a telegram which he received the other evening from Harry Short, Toledo, Ohio. "Gallant Heart won the three year old trot here today, time 2.10 1-2, 2.07."

Gallant Heart was purchased by Mr. Fulton as a yearling the fall of 1938 and placed in the stable of Dr. H. M. Parshall. At the same time Mr. Fulton purchased Marvel, a yearling by Abbedale 2.01. They were sick last season and did not get to the races. Early this Spring they were placed in Harry Short's stable at Columbus, Ohio, and Marvel won a race last week and took a record of 2.10 on the pace. Now it is Gallant Heart that enters the 2.10 list with a record of 2.07.

Thousands of friends of "Jimmie" Power were saddened to learn of his death last Tuesday evening at his home in Halifax. For over half a century he was the leading sports writer of the Maritimes, but it was as a harness horse authority that he was best known. His Annual Review of Racing in the Maritimes was published for forty-nine years and appeared in one of the Halifax papers and also in all the turf journals. Mr. Power was a real gentleman who held the respect of all and the affection of many. In common with thousands of horsemen throughout the Maritimes we tender our sympathy to his family in their sad bereavement.

Lowers Mark

VERDUN, Que., July 12—(CP)—Irene Barr of Hamilton, Ont., sliced four-fifths second off her own Dominion amateur record in opening heats tonight in the 100 yards free style even for senior women as the Canadian Swimming championships got under way here.

Miss Barr's time was one minute, 4 1-5 seconds.

Orangemen Celebrate "Glorious Twelfth" At Kensington

Matinee Races Add To Interesting Program At Prince County Town.

A crowd of 2500 people took advantage of yesterday's ideal weather conditions to attend the celebration of "the Glorious Twelfth" at Kensington. Orangemen from all parts of the province and members of the sister lodges turned out in large numbers for the annual parade and tea. Many friends of the lodge and the usual holiday crowds motored to the race track of Myron McArthur to enjoy the afternoon's fun which featured matinee horse races, athletic competition and other sports.

Before the celebration got under way, spectators were treated to some feats of strength which were performed by Krikor Hekimian, "superman" from Toronto, who caught the interest of the crowd by lifting two heavy men off the ground with his teeth. Later he hauled a standard light delivery truck with his teeth for a distance of 40 feet.

The matinee horse races were exceptionally good and in the Class A trot and pace, Lucky Guy, owned by George Sobey, captured two heats and placed third in another to win the race. In the colt race, Vera Britton, owned by Jas. Chappelle, took the race in two straight heats. There were only two heats in this class. Abbe Frisco was leading the colts in the first heat, but broke within 25 feet of the wire and as a result finished second, and in the next heat was third, winding up in third place in the race.

The L.O.A. pipe band was in attendance and supplied Highland music for the occasion.

The annual parade of the members of the L.O.A. and the L.O.B.A. was one of the largest ever held. It was led by Grand Marshal Cameron McPhee, of Pinette who was mounted on a beautiful white horse followed by the pipe band. Bro. Wallie E. Burke, of Charlottetown, marshalled the parade, assisted by Bro. Jesse Mathieson. The procession filed around the track to the judges' stand, where appropriate speeches were delivered.

An address of welcome was delivered by James F. Proffitt of Kensington, on behalf of Mayor Russell Champion, who was unable to be present. Other speakers were: Grand Master Peter McCaull, Ellerslie; Mrs. Alfred MacNevin, Canoe Cove, Grand Mistress of the L.O.B.A.; Past Grand Master T. J. Inman, Bedeque, and Past Grand Master Holmes. This part of the program was closed by the National Anthem played by the pipe band.

The results of the sporting events were as follows:

Running Half Mile Open
1. Wendall Doyle, Charlottetown.
2. Wallie Campbell, Freetown.
3. Gordon Gamble, Cambridge, Mass.

Time—2.34.

Two Mile Bicycle Race Open
1. Sydney Forbes, Wilmot Valley.
2. Ernest Robertson, Summerside.
3. Wallie Reeves Kensington.

Time—6.28.

100-yard Sack Race Open
1. Nelson Mathieson, Springfield.
2. Wendall Doyle, Charlottetown.

Time—20 seconds.

100-yard Dash Open
1. G. S. Gamble, Cambridge, Mass.
2. Brenton Stewart, Norboro.
3. Wm. Waddell, Kelly's Cross.

80-yard Dash Girls, Open
1. Mary MacLeod, Breadalbane.
2. Doris Campbell, Freetown.
3. Betty Ford, Charlottetown.

Time—13 seconds.

80 Yards (Boys 15 and under)
1. G. Gamble, Cambridge, Mass.
2. Wendall Doyle, Charlottetown.
3. Wallie Campbell, Freetown.

Time—12 seconds.

A tug-of-war between a team from Prince County and a team from Charlottetown resulted in a win for the Prince County team but some misunderstanding in the distance of the pull necessitated the division of the prize. This was satisfactory to both teams.

The result of the matinee races was as follows:

Eleanor Young And Jean Milne Advance To Final Round In Tennis Finals

By Jack Mitchell
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC, July 12—(CP)—The Vancouver duo of Eleanor Young and Jean Milne, favored from the start to meet in the Women's singles finals of the Dominion Tennis Championships, advanced into the title round today, while the two top-seeded teams in the men's doubles also gained semi-final victories.

Ranked first in the Dominion, Miss Young took a straight-set triumph over Winnifred McConnell of Ottawa for the one final berth. The score was 6-1, 6-2. She remained a top-heavy favorite to win the title with a victory over Miss Milne, who defeated Mrs. Rene Bolte of Montreal 6-3, 6-3 in the other semi-final.

Seeded first in their division, the doubles team of Ross Wilson of Toronto and Montreal's Phil Pearson lost only five games in defeating Joe O'Hara and Jim McDougall of Montreal. They will meet the second-seeded team of Levis Duff of Montreal and Don McDiarmid of Ottawa in the final tomorrow.

McDiarmid and Duff, who won the Quebec doubles crown at Montreal last week, were hard-pressed for their semi-final victory over Roger Durivage and Dr. Georges LeClerc of Montreal. They finally won out with a 6-3 triumph in the fifth set after each squad had taken two.

Other finals also are scheduled for tomorrow, last day of the week-long tournament. For the women's single's title, McDiarmid will play his doubles partner, Lewis Duff who upset the top-seeded Wilson yesterday, while in the women's doubles Miss Young and Miss Milne meet Mrs. Bolte and Francoise Lacasse of Montreal.

Favorite teams advanced in the mixed doubles with the duo of Durivage and Miss Young going into the final against the team of Pearson and Miss Milne, who defeated Dr. Leclerc and Miss Lacasse 3-6, 6-2, 8-6 in a semi-final match.

Durivage and Miss Young, seeded first in the division, played both quarter-final and semi-final matches today.

Two Dominion championships were decided today. In the singles for boys under 15, Jack Geler of New Rochelle, N. Y., succeeded Peter Stewart of Kansas City as titleholder, while Montreal's Claire Renshaw won the Junior Women's crown.

One of the two United States entrants left in the tournament, Geller gained his title with a 6-3 6-1 victory over Breen Marien of Montreal. Miss Renshaw won the Junior Womens singles by beating Patricia Raphel of Kirkland Lake, Ont., 6-0, 6-4.

The other United States player is William Driver of El Paso, Texas, who defeated Henri Rochon of Montreal 6-3, 2-6, 6-3, 6-2 in a Junior Men's singles semi-final today. In the final he will meet Bob Watt of Montreal, who defeated Leo Heaps of Ottawa in straight sets.

Rookie Gives Chicago Cubs 2-0 Victory

CHICAGO, July 12—(AP)—Verne Oslen, rookie southpaw, set Boston Bees down with five hits today to give Chicago Cubs a 2-0 victory.

Olsen's sinker ball baffled the Bees throughout, but his seven bases on balls kept Boston in the game. The yearling pitcher was effective in the pinches, leaving 12 runners stranded on the bases. He also struck out seven batters.

The Bees were unable to get a good cut at Olsen's low-ball pitching, hitting only three flies to the outfield, all to right fielder Bill Nicholson. The victory was Olsen's fifth against as many defeats.
