

The Hammo-Couch

HERE'S the very thing you'll want this summer—the "IDEAL" Hammo-Couch. You can tell to look at it how much more comfortable and serviceable it is than the saggy, skimpy, shifty "half-moon" kind.

Write to-day for FREE Hammo-Couch booklet and names of stores where you can see it, sit in it and realize what a treasure it is.

THE IDEAL BEDDING CO. LIMITED

Be sure you get the genuine "Hammo-Couch." Most stores sell it. When you buy Metal Beds see that this label is on the foot-rail.

In celebrating the forty-eight anniversary of New Glasgow Division Sons of Temperance, a grand entertainment was given in the hall at that place on Friday evening April 14th. The choir with Mrs. C. G. Houston presiding at the organ, rendered some excellent selections.

A Valleyfield correspondent writes: The Valleyfield school is progressing rapidly under the able and instructive teaching of Florence Stewart.—We are sorry to learn of the continued illness of Angus Montgomery and hope Munro recently visited Valleyfield where he was the guest of J. W. Nicholson.—M. D. McLeod has purchased a handsome Riley sired by Cerveau, for which he paid a nice sum.—L. McLeod, accompanied by J. P. McLeod, spent Sunday in Caldonia the guests of Mal. Martin.—John J. McPherson recently visited Montague and reports the roads in poor condition.—Munro Bruce intends putting an extension to his large and commodious barn, this summer.—Neil N. McLeod intends moving to "The Moll," where he has purchased a farm. Mr. McLeod, and his sociable family will be missed from Valleyfield.—Tom Trim.

Good Friday will be long remembered by the merry forty who gathered at the home of Albert and Mrs. Jenkins, Pownal, to celebrate the anniversary of Mrs. Jenkins' birthday. Two noted violinists were among the guests present, viz, Shad Jardine and M. Vessay. The selections were choice, and varied, and were much appreciated by the guests. After a few pleasant hours were spent, a sumptuous repast was served. The menu was abundant in supply. Greatly admired and heartily relished, was the ample supply of choice Easter beef, served with toothsome potato salad, and other necessary adjuncts. Complimentary speeches were made, Mr and Mrs Jenkins did all in their power to make the evening a pleasant one to all their guests. Singing Auld Lang Syne and hearty wishes for many happy returns, ended the evening. Mrs. Jenkins received many useful gifts from her admiring friends.

A friend of the Guardian writing from Los Angeles, California, makes extended reference to J. A. Crozier, formerly of Baltic, Lot 8, and now located in Phoenix, Arizona. He said that this young man left the province about eight years ago with very little money and went to Winnipeg, Manitoba, and in four years was rated among the most prosperous real estate dealers of that city. Two and a half years ago his health broke down and he went to Los Angeles and in a few months engaged in the oil business. Although a busy man he found time to devote a good deal of attention to the Canadian Club there and through his efforts and ability he made the Club a mighty power in that city. A large insurance company heard of Mr. Crozier and offered him the general agency of their company in Arizona. Mr. Crozier ranks among the business men of Arizona as a man of truth and honor and he has the confidence of all who come in contact with him.
