TO SATISFY THE GERMANS

ROTTERDAM, Jan. 7.—To get money enough to satisfy the Germans, Ghent has compelled its unmarried men to pay impositions ranging from five francs, in the case of bachelors 27 years of age, and to 20 francs in the cases of those of 50 years.

The Germans make leading citizens act as hostages, fifteen being chosen each day. Unemployment is so general that only five and a half per cent. of those in the building trade have anything to do.

The correspondent of the Nieuw Rotterdamse Courant in Brussels describes the arrival in that city of the White Dragons of the God.

Sometime ago the news reached Holland that these German army regiments were in the Belgian capital, but nobody would believe what this account proves was actually the case.

The correspondent does not definitely say that they departed for the front in this dress, but he says that though the people were greatly impressed with their magnificent bearing, creaseless tunics and fine horsemanship, they marvelled that they should have started on war service in such a dress.

WAGE FOR GIRLS SHOULD BE OVER $6 EACH WEEK.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 2.—A girl who earns six weeks must go hungry unless she receives some outside help. Mrs. Glendower Evans, of Boston, declared today before the American Economic Association.

"The vast majority of wage earning women work because they must," she said. "And the vast majority earn wages far below the requirements of a decent living."

"How then do they live? I answer for the most part by enduring every form of privation. The majority of them, I believe, are terribly underfed. Every study of budgets and living conditions that I know of shows this.

"I don't know how I ever lived," or "I almost starved," they will say, in explaining their circumstances. Others are proud to confess their privations. "You see I am dieting," was the explanation of a girl for her 2 cent lunch at a cafeteria.

Mrs. Evans then told the story of a girl that made six dollars a week whom the Minimum Wage Commission of Massachusetts interviewed. She declared she was forced to go hungry when she tried to live on $6 a week.

"I do not tell you this story that an inference may be drawn in regard to low wages which I do not draw," Mrs. Evans said. "I tell it to illustrate the point I have made, that a girl who earns $6 a week unless she is helped out somehow, must go hungry."

The Massachusetts commission recently agreed upon $8.71 as a living wage for women, but as yet this amount is not being paid as a minimum in that state. A fifteen and one-half cent an hour rate went into effect on August 15, 1914, in the brush making industry, and is expected later to establish minimum rates of pay in other industries.

RUSSIA DENIED A PEACE MOVE.

ROME, Jan. 6.—The Russian Ambassador to Italy, M. Kroupenki, was authorized by the Petrograd Government today categorically to deny reports attributing to Russia an intention to conclude peace.

"Russia does not think of discussing peace," the Ambassador said, until her enemies are obliged to accept conditions which her allies consider the only guarantee of a lasting peace.

MRS. JAMES EVANS

At Clinton, on December 28 after a short illness of heart failure and pneumonia, there passed peacefully away at the age of 71 years at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John D. McKay, Maria Evans, wife of the late James Evans of Irishtown. She leaves to mourn, besides a large number of friends and relatives, one daughter, Mrs. John D. McKay of Clinton; also one son John N. at home, one brother, Richard Proffitt of Spring Valley, one sister, Mrs. Mary Ann Campbell of Irishtown. The remains were followed from her home by a large procession of people to the English Church, Irishtown, where the Rev. A. W. Watson preached a very feeling and instructive sermon. (Examiner please copy.)

MRS. EUNICE McINTYRE.

There passed away on Monday, Dec. 28th, 1914, at French Village, Mrs. Eunice McIntyre, relict of the late Cornelius McIntyre, at the advanced age of 87 years. The deceased had always been robust and active and continued to be so till only a week before her death. She was known as a very clever, kind-hearted lady, a warm friend to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. The cold hand of death to her was seeming kind, in that she was not called upon to suffer long before she was called to her eternal reward. Her pastor, Rev. R. P. Murray, Mt. Stewart, conducted the funeral services on Wednesday, which was largely attended. The following were the pall bearers: H. D. Coffin, Michael Feehan, Allan Morrison, Augustine McDonald, Mont. Pigott and Benjamin Pigott. The following members of her family are left to mourn the loss of a loving mother: Mrs. Hargrave and Mrs. Smith, of Boston, and Wallace, at the home in French Village, to all of whom the Guardian extends sympathy.—L.

EDWARD D. HUGHES

The death occurred at the Prince County Hospital on Wednesday morning of Edward Damian Hughes, the son of Patrick Hughes of Shamrock at the early age of twenty-one years. Deceased had been taken ill on Wednesday last with appendicitis and was removed to the hospital but despite all medical care and attention he gradually sank until the end came.

He was a bright, intelligent, young man, well loved, and was very popular with all who knew him; and his death will be felt not only by his parents, but also by a wide circle of friends. The funeral took place on Friday morning to St. Michael's Church, Kinkora, and was very largely attended. The funeral services at the church and grave were performed by the pastor, Rev. J. J. McDonald. He leaves to mourn besides his sorrow-stricken parents, a brother and two sisters, Eneas and Patricia at home, and Mary in Boston, Mass. The pall bearers were Emmet Trainor, Wendall McKenna, John Murray, Joseph McBride, William Sherry, Thomas Noonan. Requiescat in Pace.

MR LEIGH G. DALTON.

Word has been received by friends in Moncton, says an exchange of the death of Mr. Leigh G. Dalton, a well-known I.C.R. operator, who passed away in Boston on Tuesday morning, Dec. 30, after an illness of some months, death being due to Bright's disease, following an operation. Mr. Dalton had been operator at Point St. Charles for the last three or four years, and had been on the I.C.R. in that capacity for 7 or 8 years. Last August he was taken ill, and went to his home on P.E. Island. Later he went to Boston, where he was operated upon for kidney trouble. He passed through the operation apparently all right and was seemingly improving when he suddenly took a bad turn and died quite unexpectedly. Deceased was about 35 years of age, and was a native of Prince Edward Island. He was well known in Moncton, and had many friends here and in Shediac and Point St. Charles. Some five or six years ago he was an officer for some months on the Moncton police force, resigning in the face to return to the service of the I.C.R. as telegraph operator. Many friends and acquaintances will learn with surprise and regret of Mr. Dalton's death. Miss Janie E. H. Dalton, of Boston, was a sister of the deceased.

MRS. ELISHA COFFIN.

Another highly respected old resident of French Village in the person of Mrs. Elisha Coffin, was called away by death on Wednesday, Dec. 30th, 1914, on the day of her sister-in-law, Mrs. McIntyre's funeral. She, too had been hale and hearty until a week before her death, when, true to her inherent kindness and sympathy—she was always found wherever there was trouble or sickness. She contracted the dread pneumonia while waiting on her aged sister-in-law, Mrs. McIntyre. She was in her 77th year, though being so smart and healthy, she appeared much younger. She died as she had lived, true to her Saviour in whom she trusted, and without doubt, it can be truly said of her "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." The following relatives are left to mourn: Two brothers, Elisha Coffin, Savage Harbor; Albert, Cherry Hill; three sisters, Mrs. James Coffin, Mt. Stewart, Mrs. Fred Coffin, Savage Harbor, Mrs. Wm. Coffin, Charlottetown. Three sons are left to mourn the loss of a devoted mother, namely, Kimball, James and Dinewall, both in some part of the United States, and Artimas, at the old home in French Village. The funeral was conducted by Rev. R. P. Murray, Mt. Stewart. A large concourse of friends followed the remains to the cemetery of West St. Peter's.

paying the last sad tribute of respect to a departed friend.—L.

MRS. CORNELIUS McINTYRE.

The death of Mrs. Cornelius McIntyre occurred at her home in French Village on the evening of December 28, 1914, at the good old age of eighty five. Deceased enjoyed remarkable good health up to a few days previous to her demise she suffered a slight stroke of paralysis. She was a kind generous hearted woman and was loved by all who knew her. By her death society has lost a valuable friend; the neighborhood a valuable assistant; and the home a loving mother.

Her funeral took place on Wednesday, December 30, at one o'clock to Mt. Stewart Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Murray officiating. Her pall bearers were Michael Feehan, Augustine McDonald, Allan Morrison, Benjamin Pigott, David Pigott, Hamilton Coffin. She leaves to mourn their loss two daughters, Mrs. Paul Mason and Mrs. Frank Hargrave of Winthrop, Mass., and one son Wallace at home. To the sorrowing friends is tendered heartfelt sympathy.

Oh breathe not her name but let it sleep in the shade Where cold and unhonored her relics are laid Sad silent and dark, are the tears that we shed As the night dew that fall on the grass o'er her head, But the night dew that fall through in silence it weeps Shall brighten with verdure the grave where she sleeps And the tears that we shed though in silence it roll Shall long keep her memory green in our souls.

GERMAN BOMBS KILL SCORES IN POLAND

BERLIN, via London, Jan. 7.—Announcement is made here that the portion of Russian Poland, occupied by the Germans, has been provided with a civil administration, under Herr Von Brandenstein.

German airmen have also dropped bombs on Storoz, outside the territory occupied by them, killing and injuring a hundred persons and setting fire to a portion of one village.

News from Durazza, Albania states in the first fight in that vicinity, a number of followers of Essad Pasha, the Provisional President of Albania, who held back were hanged.

MENACE TO GERMANY AT VITAL POINTS THROUGH ALSACE.

PARIS, Jan. 4.—The most intense interest is felt here over the development of the French invasion of Lorraine and Alsace. It is not a permissible nor ethical to reveal all that is known of the operations in the provinces so ardently desired by the people of France. All that can be said is that great events are imminent. Unwilling to publish a single phrase which might mislead or disappoint the people, the Government has taken an ultra-conservative view of the steady advance of the French troops towards the Rhine. There is no doubt however, that great expectations are on the verge of being realized. Germany is menaced in a vital spot. Relaxation of activities in the west has resulted in great advantages to the advance in the east.

The German official report on Tuesday contained a plain hint that the French are massing troops for a great effort in Upper Alsace. Apparently there is news of similar import in Paris but this cannot pass the censors. It seems probable that General Joffre has directed large forces from Flanders and Northern France for the purpose of striking a hard blow in the east.

For several weeks the French columns have pushed forward from the bases at St. Die and Belfort, and have gained a firm foothold in Upper Alsace. The advance is broadly maintained and now controls the high roads leading to Colmar, to Meulhausen and to Altkirch is virtually surrounded. The French have repulsed every counter-attack and have pressed their invasion, thanks largely to a superiority of heavy artillery, the lack of which caused a precipitated withdrawal last August. The German artillery activity to the north, along the heights of the Meuse, has been due partially to an effort to force a withdrawal of the Alsace invaders by breaking the French strength near Metz and along the Lorraine border.

The Government announcement to-night contains no reference to the invasion of Alsace, but the unofficial reports state that the troops of the Republic are maintaining new positions ready for fresh attacks.

EARTH ONE HUNDRED MILLION YEARS OLD.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.—Professor Arthur P. Coleman, Toronto, Ontario, was elected president of the Geological Society of America, which is meeting here in connection with the annual convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

That the earth is about one hundred million years old is one of the axioms and reproductions of the appearance of primitive man.

Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, demonstrated that huge beds of limestone were the work of microscopically small plants known as algae which he said solved a mystery that has long been a source of argument among geologists.

Iron ore deposits in Newfoundland are now known to be the result of plant activity, according to Professor Gilbert Von Ingen, of Princeton University.

THINK WOMAN'S INTENTIONS GOOD.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 7.—Miss Catherine M. Morrison, of Sydney, C. B., who will be on trial in Bangor, Me., this week on the charge of using the mails to secure money for the Earnest Workers' Society and using the money for her own benefit, is well known in St. John. She was in the city several weeks ago and collected some money for the children's home which she was planning to establish in Cape Breton. Ministers who know of her and her work say that they believe her intentions to be perfectly good, but that her methods may be somewhat visionary and impracticable, and it may be this rather than any intent to defraud which brought her in conflict with the postal authorities.
