It is with feelings of sorrow and regret that the death is recorded of Eunice Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alian Morrison of Savage Harbor, at the earl age of 18 years. Her illness had been a long one, yet some hopes were entertained for her recovery until two months previous to her death, when it was found that God had willed to take her from the trials of this world to her Everlasting Home. Gradually she weakened and on Sunday evening, October 14th death claimed her for its victim.

She was a girl of sweet and gentle disposition and had in her short life, won a large circle of friends, who will sympathize with her grief-stricken parents her only sister and five brothers.

In her last moments she was attended by her devoted pastor, Rev. A. P. McLellan and she died fortified by the last rites of the Holy Church. Her funeral, which took place, Tuesday morning October 16th to St. Andrews Church was followed by a large concourse of friends and relatives.

A High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. A. P. McLellan attended by Rev. Dr. W. V. McDonald.

The choir was assisted by Rev. A. J. McDonald, Fort Augustus.

Joseph McKay, James McKay, Herbert Douglas, Leon Smith, William Pigott and Bernard Feehan acted as pallbearers and all that was mortal of one so young and beloved was laid to rest. Requiescat in Pace.

FRIDAY

—THE STORM.—The heavy wind storm of Tuesday night did a considerable damage around town, several chimney tops were toppled over and building unroofed and much havoc was wrought to telephone wires, two schooners at Holman's wharf were in much danger for a time being driven aground, but fortunately on soft bottom, from which they again floated next day at high tide, a few windows were blown in and trees uprooted. Several small boats along the water front were also damaged. The storm is said to be the worst experienced for several years.—H

Allen, and the singing of "Oh Canada." "Our Beloved Order" responded to by Messrs Jardine and Sellar; "Empire Lodge" responded to by Messrs. White and Hughes; "Grand Lodge" responded to by Messrs. —ADDRESS OF WELCOME.— The following is the address read to Mr. Aubin Arsenault, returner soldier, at the reception tendered him on his arrival, by Miss Theresa Gallant his cousin. Dear Son of your Country. Two years ago, you bade adieu to your home and parish. to rally to the flag at the sound of the bugle, to do your part in this terrible war of nations. The crisis of your fatherland bleeding from wounds inflicted by a cruel enemy, reached your ears, and in the midst of the happiness enjoyed in the smiling surroundings of your happy Christian home you have heard the call of duty. You went forth in the full enjoyment of health coupled with a bright mind and a noble courage, and you have returned alas, bearing the scars of battle, a victim of love for your country. Your parents on this side of the vast ocean never ceased in their prayers, that Divine Providence protect their dear son, and it is a source of extreme happiness to us to see you back, enjoying to the full, the use of your faculties a mark of evidence that the prayers of your people have been heard. Your presence amongst us gives us cause for joy, but a joy suppressed. From the humble home whence you set forth to defend your country, had already gone two soldiers. Two of your brothers had already taken the part of Duty. All three have been reared together, have been caressed by the same maternal hands, have been stengthened by the same wise counsels, and today their filial devotion and their acts of courage, are crowns of glory to those who were blest with their care. God in his unfathomable decrees, has taken away from this noble and patriotic family one of their soldier sons. Dead on the field of battle: What tiding sad and glorious! From the vacant chair by the fireside, the mournful thoughts of the mother wander away to a lonely grave in Flanders. Such is the sad story. Our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family now mourning the death of their hero child. It is impossible for us to express to you our sentiments of gratitude on this occasion you have given yourself in our defence, what more can we ask? Yea, your act of Patriotism and Sacrifice is and will be the subject for comment. As a feebie testimony of our debt of gratitude and love please accept this small gift and let it not be a measure by which you can appreciate our feelings, but rather accept it as a mark of recognition from your friends of Abram's Village. Mr. Amand Gallant then presented the soldier with a Silver headed ebony cane, and Miss Nellie Arsenault presented a bouquet of flowers.—M.

MILITARY REGISTRATIONS.— Yesterday the Registrar under the Military Service Act received and filed ten applications for service and one hundred and sixty-eight pleas for exemption. Up to six o'clock last night the total figures to date were, registrations for service, 208, applications for exemption, 2,339.

"SANTA MARIA" CASE.— Before the Exchequer Court yesterday morning the Neville Canneries Company, Ltd., made a motion before Judge Stewart, through their solicitor Mr. D. E. Shaw that the sale of the "Santa Maria" to Dr. Leo Frank be rescinded and that she be resold, on the ground that the bid of the said Doctor Frank was not the highest that could be obtained for her and is insufficient to pay the Marshall's costs and Register fees. The costs above referred to amount to $2,998.56. The case was adjourned until Monday next at noon.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place in Notre Dame Convent, Rustico, on Oct. 2nd, when Miss Matilda White of Hunter River was united in marriage to Mr. James Doiron of Rustico. The bride was neatly dressed in white satin with rosebud trimming and wore a veil with wreath of orange blossoms. She was attended by her sister, Miss Selma, who wore brown silk and hat to match. The groom was supported by his cousin Mr. Frank Doucette. Rev. Dr. Chaisson performed the nuptial ceremony. The Guardian wishes the newly wedded couple a long life, happiness and prosperity.

The community of East Royalty was shocked yesterday morning to hear of the sad death of Doris Jean MacWilliams, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor MacWilliams. The little girl ran down stairs before her mother had arisen and shortly after her father had lighted the kitchen fire, and it is thought her night gown caught fire, as when she rushed towards the barn where her father had gone, she was a mass of flames. her terrified screams attracting his attention. The little girl was very badly burned and notwithstanding tender ministrations, her spirit passed away about noon. A bright lovable little girl of seven years, her place in the home will be hard to fill and deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents and family.

THE CAR SHORTAGE.—At the instance of the Board of Trade Premier Arsenault Wednesday wired the Minister of Railways and the Food Controller with reference to the potato embargo. He received the following telegram yesterday. "The Minister's office: Dr. Reid out of town. Am taking up subject matter your telegram with management urging prompt action to relieve condition. (Sgd.) A. L. McKENDRICK, Private Secretary.

NEW COMMISSIONS.—A Fredericton despatch of the 30th says: Lieutenant William Delaney, formerly company sergeant-major; Irving D. Appleby and Lieutenant R. Murray Finlayson, formerly sergeant, have been granted commissions in the 236th MacLean Highlanders. Lieutenant Finlayson was one of the first of the Boston men to join the Battalion. The other officers are well-known in New Brunswick. Appleby is a native of this province and Lieutenant Delaney, of Prince Edward Island.

LETTER FROM FRANK OLIVER.—A letter from Mr. Frank Oliver, (Actor) so well and favorably known in this city was received yesterday by a friend of his. Mr. Oliver is now with the Manhattan Players, who are performing in Cumberland, Md. He says:—"Since leaving home, I think I have had enough experience to fill three columns. I have just returned from the Camp at Admiral, Md., where they have a large number of men in training. I was able to sing a few songs for the boys, at the same time having the satisfaction of feeling that I was doing what I could, knowing that I was not able to get across with our own boys, much as I would like to have done. I fully expected to have been in Charlottetown this summer to recuperate, but a friend of mine procured me an engagement with a big production of Treasure Island—an opportunity that was too good to turn down, so I filled in fourteen weeks." His many friends will be pleased to hear of Mr. Oliver and hope to see him back on the Island again soon.

CORRECTION.—In the report of Board of Trade meeting in yesterday's Guardian M.A.E. Dewar was erroneously credited with saying that 225,000 cars of potatoes had crossed to the United States already this season and that some 300,000 were moving." What Mr. Dewar said was that 225,000 bushels—not cars—had crossed the border and it was estimated that about the same quantity had been shipped to points in Canada.

GOOD PROSPECTS IN ST. PETER'S.—All reports from the St. Peter's district point to the election of Dr. McDonald, by a majority. The fact is that it would be unwise at this stage to elect a man to the Opposition. Mr. McIntyre is not generally known in his district, while Dr. McDonald is personally acquainted with every man woman and child from one end of the district to the other, and is known to be thorough acquainted with the needs of the district. His profession as doctor obliges him to travel the roads night and day, summer and winter and if elected will have a personal as well as a general interest in seeing that the roads and bridges are kept in good condition. Hon. Mr. McEwen, the present representative is a membtr of the government and if Dr. McDonald is elected they will make a strong team and the district is now realizing this and will give Dr. McDonald very generous support.

GRANVILLE METHODIST CIRCUIT.— Services for Sunday Nov. 4th. The Rev. L. J. Leard will conduct service at Pleasant Valley at 11; Granville at 3 and Hunter River at 7. No service at Stanley on above date. The service at Hunter River will be a special evangelistic service continuing the work begun by Evangelist Andreson. Bring an Alexander Song Book No. 3.

AVIATOR MISSING.—Word has been received that Lieut. Kenneth Golding is missing. Lieut. Golding is well known here, having been for some time manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Victoria. He was later transferred to a branch of the bank in Toronto. He enlisted last April in the Royal Flying Corps and after some months training went to England. He was only three weeks in England and went to the front early in October. He is a native of St. John, N. B. His many friends both here and in his native province will sincerely hope for better news concerning him The presumption is that he is a prisoner in Germany

It is the Flavour that counts

You know, yourself, that 95% of what you buy to eat, is purchased rather for the flavour than its food value. In other words, we eat what we enjoy, and usually eat only what pleases our palate. There is nothing inviting or appetizing about a loaf of bread made of western spring wheat flour, with its coarse texture, and lack of flavour.

But when the bread and rolls and biscuits are made of

Miss Blenda Wheat Makes Good Things to Eat.

BEAVER FLOUR

MILLED OF BLENDED WHEAT

Ah! that's another story altogether. While the food value of Bread, made of "Beaver" Flour is not to be belittled, it is the delightful flavour, the delicious nutlike "homey" taste, the fine, even texture, the creamy lightness, that make homemade "Beaver" Flour Bread such a treat for young and old alike.

And when it comes to things like Apple and Mince Pies—Chocolate or Layer Cake—or a batch of Cookies or Gingerbread for the children—well—just try "Beaver" Flour once, that's all—and you'll see and taste the difference.

"Beaver" Flour is a blend of the famous Ontario winter wheat and enough western spring wheat to give it strength. It has the flavour of the one and the strength of the other, and being milled of scientifically blended wheat, it is always the same in flavour, in quality and strength.

Why miss so many of these good things, by using western wheat flour? Order a sack of "Beaver" Flour, at your dealer's, and begin to enjoy the delicious bread and pastry it makes.
