OF INTEREST TO HORSEMEN.—The American Horse Breeder says: Richard P. Rockett, of Marblehead, Mass., who purchased the pacer, Dan Delaware (trial, 2.14), and the Mobil trotter, Demline, 2.20 1/4, at the recent New York sale, had sold Dan Delaware to Albert Hunson, of Marblehead, but has retained Demline and will matinee her this season. Demline is a sister to Dunholm, 2.16 1/4, probably the best race trotter on Prince Edward Island.

ISLAND RECTOR FOR CAPE BRETON.—Rev. B. P. Colclough has been elected Anglican rector of Aitchat, C. B., in succession to Rev. Geo. Andrews, the new missionary for Honan. Rev. Mr. Colclough has been for the last few years rector of Milton, where his excellent work has raised the parish to a high state of efficiency, and has won for him many friends whose good wishes will go with him to his new sphere of labor.

WEDDING BELLS.—The Baptist Parsonage at Kingsboro was the scene of a very happy event, when on Wednesday evening, April 9th, Miss Marjorie E. Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harding Fraser, of Elmira, was united in marriage with Walter E. Robertson, of Kingsboro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. P. Mac Walker, in the presence of a few assembled friends and relatives. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of old rose taffeta. The couple were unattended. During the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. Mac Walker. The many valuable presents of which the bride and groom were the recipients bear testimony to the esteem in which they are held by their numerous friends. Special mention has been previously made in the "Guardian" of the gift presented to them by the Elmira Women's Institute. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Robertson drove to their future home at Kingsboro, followed by all good wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

WEDDING BELLS.—In Lot 66 church on the morning of Wednesday, February 26th, 1919, Mr. Eugene P. Smith, of Middleton and Miss Jennie Clarkin, of North Wiltshire were united in the sacred bonds of marriage. Rev. Dr. Curran, P. P., performed the nuptial ceremony. The bride's sister, Miss Blanche Clarkin, was maid of honor, while Prof. R. P. Smith, brother of the groom, the office of best man. In the spacious sanctuary of the church was assembled a number of relatives and friends of the happy couple to witness the event. After the ceremony, the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents, where the newly married couple received the good wishes and expressions of congratulation of a number of their immediate friends. In the evening a bridal reception was held at which a large number of invited guests were present and a few very pleasant hours were spent. The many presents received by the bride-elect from numerous kind friends on the announcement of her engagement were displayed on this occasion; all of them were costly and beautiful. When the evening was well and joyfully spent, the guests took their leave, all wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith a long, happy and prosperous married life.

THE CAR FERRY.—After the car ferry delivers her freight and passengers at Borden this evening she will leave for Halifax to go on dry dock for her annual house cleaning and over-hauling. She is expected to be away for three weeks, making allowance for the usual delays, should bring her back in ample time for the change of time table on June 1st. In the meantime communication with the mainland will be by the S. S. Northumberland, via Summerside and Point du Chene, as per time table in this issue.

DIED IN THE WEST.—The following is from the Edmonton Bulletin of April 22nd. The death occurred very suddenly at the Royal Alexandra Hospital on Tuesday afternoon of Mrs. T. S. Thompson, 10941 83rd Avenue. This announcement will be received with most sincere regret by a very wide circle of friends. The deceased, who has been at the hospital for a few weeks, was preparing to return to her home when she suddenly collapsed, death occurring almost immediately. Her husband who is well known as the proprietor of T. S. Thompson, Ltd., survives, with three children, the youngest two weeks old. The late Mrs. Thompson, whose maiden name was Isobel Rodd, was born in Prince Edward Island, but moved with her parents when quite young to Moncton, N. B., where two surviving sisters still reside, her only brother Dr. Rodd, of Vancouver, is at present overseas.

To whom it may concern: This is to certify that I have used MINARD'S UNIMENT myself as well as prescribed it in my practice where, a liniment was required and have never failed to get the desired effect.

ISLAND PEACHER POPULAR.—The New Glasgow Chronicle says: The congregation of St. Andrew's Church and the members of the entire Christian community, in fact, did not relish the word that was passed about this week that Rev. J. A. Ramsay had been tendered a call by the Presbyterian congregation of Moncton. These invitations to attract Mr. Ramsay from us are naturally unpopular. And on the other hand it places the reverend gentleman in the unenviable position of choosing between his fast and dear friendships here, and those he knows not of, but where perhaps a strong sense of duty calls him. Moncton and other congregations would leave Mr. J. A. Ramsay alone. It would best please us all here. Word will be sent out when a separation here is desirable, but we now serve notice, that the time has not yet arrived, nor do we think it will for many years yet.—Rev. Mr. Ramsay is a native of Malpeque, P. E. I.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty but quiet wedding took place at the Mansie, Cape Traverse on Wednesday evening April 9th at eight o'clock when Florence Annie Bell, one of Albany's fairest young ladies, was united in wedlock to John Roy MacDonaid of the same place. After the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. James MacDougall, Minister of the Church of Scotland, the young couple drove to the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Bell, where a bountiful wedding supper awaited them. Soon the sound of horns was heard in the distance and a large but well behaved crowd of serenaders gathered around, but after being treated they soon dispersed to their several homes after giving three rousing cheers for the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacDonaid received many useful and beautiful gifts which showed the high esteem in which the young couple are held in the community.
