UNDER the heading "A Live Journal," the St. John Sun says: The enterprising Charlottetown GUARDIAN has added a department dealing with dairying, to be edited by Prof. Harcourt of Prince of Wales College, associated with a leading Island stockman.

THE steamer Carroll, Captain Hanson, arrived here yesterday morning from Boston about 8 o'clock with a cargo of general merchandise and the following passengers: Mrs. Davies, Miss Flynn, Capt. Finlayson. The Carrol sails on return this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

MESSRS ALFRED AND ERNEST DUCHEMIN, of the P E. Island Door and Sash Factory, returned home last evening from the United States. The Messrs. Duchemin spent part of their time visiting the largest manufactories in their line in the U. S., and as a result will put all the latest "wrinkles" into their business.

Do you know that the people tell us they like our goods and prices, and do you know that we think we get our full share of all the Furniture trade going. We are making changes now that will greatly help us in giving lower prices than ever to our customers—Mark Wright & Co. nov24 3i

POLICE COURT—Yesterday morning Frank Ferguson of Lot 48 failed to appear in answer to his summons. He was to answer for creating a disturbance on board the Ferry boat, Elfin, on the 18th and also for drunkeness. A warrant has been issued for his arrest. This was the only case on the docket.

THE Manitoba Loan and Trust Company of Winnipeg are placing a limited amount of their stock on the market. Parties desiring good investment may address W L. Hogg, 1761 Notre Dame St., Montreal, for terms and subscription. A responsible general Agent is wanted for Prince Edward Island. Oct. 20.—d 1m

THE death of Mrs. Robert Law took place at Kingston, Kent Co., on Monday morning after a short illness. The deceased lady was prominent in musical circles, and was a vocalist and musician of some ability. Mrs. Law was a daughter of William Brown, formerly of Richibucto, but now residing in Summerside, P. E. Island. A husband and six children are left to mourn their loss.—St John Sun.

FLORA MARTIN, of Glen William, Lot 63, on the 17th inst. was charged before Archibald McDonald, J. P., with concealing the birth and body of her child. The inhabitants of Glen William collectively brought the matter before Mr. McDonald's notice who promptly issued his warrant for her arrest for preliminary investigation, but under cover of night of the same day, she left for parts unknown, thus evading the ends of justice for the present.

MR C F HARRIS passed his examination in law on Wednesday. Hon Justice Rouleau and Mr. A L Sifton were the examiners and they took occasion to compliment Mr Harris on the very creditable way in which he acquitted himself. Charlie intends to hang out his shingle at McLeod, and he will doubtless work up a good practice in that district. —Calgary Herald, Nov 12—[Mr Harris referred to above is a son of Wm. Harris Esq, of the P O Dept. of this city. Charlie's many friends here will be pleased to hear of his success in his adopted home. However it is nothing new to chronicle ... success of Islanders abroad. We feel ... Mr Harris is the man to at- ... assured that ... that any of our ... tend to any legal business ... citizens may have to be transacted in Calgary.]

A CASE OF FORGERY.—The departure of Allen McLeod, farmer of Melville, late of Strathalbyn, on the morning of Thanks-giving day for parts unknown under suspicious circumstances, led to the revelation of a large number of forgeries which have been going on for some length of time. Up to the time of the develop ment McLeod has borne a very good character. He had many business trans-actions to carry on in the city, and has had during the current year several notes discounted at the merchants bank of P E I and the bank of Nova Scotia, and alway paid the notes where they fell due. In paying them however McLeod forged one or more good name to his renewals of matured notes. He did this for some months and no suspicion was aroused until his departure. The night that McLeod left Melville his house which was heavily insured was burned to the ground. Some of the notes are alleged to be signed by Malcolm A. McLeod, John S. McLeod and John G. McLeod (brother of the forger). These gentlemen all deny the signatures. The full amount of the forgery must amount to nearly $1,500. Some of those who have been swindled in the city are Hon. Neil McLeod, Bank of Nova Scotia, and Messrs. McKinnon and McLean for amounts unknown and E. H. Norton & Co. for $2 30.—(Condensed from the Patriot.)

OUR S'side agent reports that Mitchell, the P. O. thief, only left the Island yesterday.

MONCTON arrested 143 drunks for the year ending Oct 1, and fined 45 Scott Act Violators $2,300.

SWEET Cider on draught, Wilmot Spa drinks, hot tea and coffee at A. & C. Quirk's, North Side Queen Square.

THERE will be no teachers meeting in the Baptist church to night, on account of the absence of Rev. Mr. Gordon from the city.

PATRONIZE the popular restaurant, where everything in season will be served in the best style at A. & C. Quirk's, North Side Queen Square.

THE Government S S. Stanley arrived in port yesterday morning, where she will remain until Dec. 1st. She has taken up the Tryon shoal buoy.

DAILY MARKET.—Yesterday's daily market was a repetition of Monday's, inside the Market House. There was one load of hay on the Square.

FINEST Cod Liver Oil in sample bottles, only 20 cents each—Puttners & Estys Emulsions fresh and good—all the Cough Mixtures found reliable and worthy of recommendation at Dodd's Medical Hall.

L O A.—All members of the L O A. are cordially invited to meet with St. George's Lodge to-night in Euston Street Hall and join in the reception of the Black Degree delegates in full regalia.

A MEETING is called for Tuesday, December 6th, at 2 p m., at Cape Traverse Hall, to consider the petitioning the Dominion government for money to extend the railway wharf there and for connecting it by a steamer with the pier at Cape Tormentine.

T Nisbet Robertson is appointed by the grand lodge of the Royal Order of Scotland at Edinburg, and by consent of the members of the order here, successor to B Lester Peters, as provincial grand master in New Brunswick. The provincial grand lodge is to be revived and its jurisdiction is to be extended to cover the provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island.

THE representative of an English insurance company in St. John has received a letter from the head office stating that the rate should be increased 20 per cent. in New Brunswick. This matter will be considered by the New Brunswick board of underwriters at an early day. It is hoped that arrangements will be made whereby no increase will take place in this city or in any town with efficient fire protection.—Hlfx Herald.

The anniversary meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of St James' Church was held last evening. Owing to the unfavorable weather and the state of the streets, the attendance was not so large as on former occasions. An interesting report of the work of the Bible Women supported by the society in Trinidad was read. This was followed by an address from Rev J D Murray, at present laboring in Tennessee in connection with the Southern Presbyterian church of the United States, but at one time a Missionary on Aneityum in connection with the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces. Mr. Murray referred to the farewell meeting in old St. James' Church, the very spot in which they were now assembled, some 21 years ago. The speakers on that occasion were Revs T Duncan, W R Frame, J M McLeod and A McLean. He led his audience across the Atlantic to Scotland, thence by the overland route up the Mediteranian to Australia where he spent three months waiting for the Dayspring. On that voyage of the ship four new missionaries were settled on the New Hebrides. Rev H A Robertson on Eromanga, J W McKenzie on Efate, Rev Mr McLeod at Havannah Harbor, Efate, and the speaker on Aneityum as successor to Dr. Geddie. He spoke of his three years work there, at the end of which time owing to his wife's failing health he was obliged to resign and after a pastorate of 14 years in the Suburbs of Sydney, N S W, he left Australia for America. He then entered into connection with the Southern Presbyterian Church. Mr. Murray in closing referred to the difficulties in evangelizing Heathen lands and to the absolute necessity that there was for implicit faith in God in carrying on this great work.

A WORD

TO - THE - FARMERS

OF P. E. ISLAND.

In the face of Low Prices it is your duty to buy as cheaply as you can. Now it is a fact there is only one place the cheapest and that must be our store, for we buy for HARD COLD CASH, and buying such large quantities we can buy cheaper than any firm on P. E. I., and our trade is increasing tremendously, but we keep down the expense therefore can sell cheaper than copeditors.

We offer one thousand dollars to any customer who can find another stock of Men's Boys' and Children's Suits as large and cheap on P. E. I. as the one we show.

Don't be lead astray by compeditors who blow away all the wool that is in their clothing, but come to the old reliable for genuine bargains every time. Don't forget the above offer open to all comers.
