Testimonial. For sixteen years I have been troubled with my eyes. At intervals of several weeks and in some cases months, during that time I had been almost totally blind and suffered intense pain. I consulted doctors, specialists but without receiving any benefit. On September 28 I came to Charlottetown, a physical wreck and utterly blind. I consulted Dr. Crossman, 128 Great George Street, and he treated me until October 28th with the result that my physical health has been entirely restored and I can see as well as ever. I am able to read the smallest print with the glasses he provided me with. Signed W. S. H. WEBB, Oxford, N. S. Note, Mrs. Webb is the wife of S. H. Webb, Temperance Missionary of the National Lodge of Canada, who has been in the Province for several months past. 12-21M11pd
