Cubs Spike Giant Hopes Of Pennant With 5-3 Victory; Cardinals Split Twin Bill

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Chapter 14 of Grimm's fairy tale of baseball was written at Chicago today and it was a comedy of errors. Bill Terry's New York Giants, suddenly developing a bad case of jitteriness in the outfield, provided the errors to give Chicago Cubs their 14th straight victory, 5-3, and keep them on their merry mad road to the National League pennant...

Louis Eager For Battle, Craves Action

(By Eddie Brice, Associated Press Sports Writer) (A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Sept. 17.—All this waiting around, doing nothing, is becoming as boring to Joe Louis as it is nerve racking for the restless Max Baer...

Baer Off Color In Workout

(Associated Press Sports Writer) (A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) SPEULATORS, N. Y., Sept. 17.—Max Baer returned to batting practice today, full of fire, fun and practically everything but fight. In some respects the former heavyweight champion, only six days away from his 15 round battle with Joe Louis in the Yankee Stadium next Tuesday night, looked worse than at any time in over a month's training here...

World Series To Open In Detroit Oct. 2

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Unless New York Yankees come through with a baseball miracle, the World Series will open in Detroit on Oct. 2. This was decided today at a meeting of representatives of five clubs still having a mathematical chance of victory in the two major leagues...
