Roper; in St. Peter's: The Post Office.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester MacSwain, Peter's Road, were visitors to Montague on Tuesday.

Mr. Keir Clark, M.L.A., Montague, was a business visitor to the City on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Johnstone, Murray Harbour North, were visitors to Montague Tuesday on business.

Friends will regret to learn that Miss Annie Lord, staff of Poole & Thompson Ltd., is confined to her home owing to illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark, Charlottetown, spent the week end in Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs.
William Webster.

Mr. Elmer MacRae, commercial traveller, spent the day in Montague and vicinity calling on his regular customers.

Mrs. R. W. Beck, accompanied by her daughters Vera and Barbara, were visitors to the city on Saturday.

Mrs. John Campbell, Uigg, has accepted a temporary nursing position at the King's County Memorial Hospital.

tances. Mr. Davidson was a former resident of Montague before moving to Charlottetown.

The Fairmiles owned by Messrs.
Grant Graham, Albert Griffin and Lorne Johnston are being prepared for the summer's work. Mr.
Graham expects to leave port during the next week. Although these boats will be hauling cargoes from different ports Mr. Graham will engage in scallop fishing during the season. Reports are that New foundland schooners will soon be arriving in port, and the summer schedule of the Surf from Sydney will begin shortly.

The death of Mrs. Angus Lamont in her 93rd year occurred at her home in Victoria Cross, on Tuesday, April 20th. The late Mrs Lamont had been ailing for some time. At home with her were her son William and her daughter Mary. She also leaves to survive three other sons in Western Canada, and one brother, Mr. John MacLeod, Victoria Cross. Funeral service will take place from her home, and interment in the Montague community cemetery.

The Almonte Young People's Union of the United Church met in the classroom Monday April 19th. The meeting opened with the devotional period led by Fernie Greene. The program for the evening was led by the Fellowship Convener, Miss Minnie Greene.
The topic for discussion was "How the Bible Came to Be", which was followed by a Bible quiz. In the absence of the president, Miss Minnie Greene presided over a short business period. The executive reported on the meeting on Sunday, and presented the program schedule for the remainder of the spring meetings.

The March meeting of the Valleyfield W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Jack MacPherson, with the president Mrs. Johnny MacPherson in the chair and Mrs.
W. A. Bruce, acting secretary. The meeting opened with the Ode and Creed, followed by minutes and report call. After discussion of business and reports of committees, new committees were appointed as follows: Valleyfield W. School, Mrs.
Angus Martin and Mrs. Harry Van Buskirk; Valleyfield E. School, Mrs. Johnny MacPherson and Audrey MacDonald; sick committee, Mrs. Milton MacLeod and Mrs. W.
A. MacLeod. Correspondence was read, and articles from "Just News" were discussed. The house economies program was used. The previous meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Johnny MacPherson, with the business meeting conducted in the regular manner.
Members passed in finished articles of sewing and knitting for the Red Cross. Discussion took place concerning what should be placed in the packages to be sent to England. A committee was appointed to look into this question. A list of free literature obtainable from the Health Department of Provincial Sanatorium was passed around and members checked in pamphlets they would like to receive. At the April meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. A. MacLeod the vice-president, Mrs. Milt MacLeod presided. Roll call was called by the secretary, Irene Bruce, and reported by her members naming "a favorite fruit". Minutes were read and approved and unfinished business discussed. Mrs. Johnny MacPherson reported that she and the President had packed and mailed the box to English Institute. Two members reported sending fees to C. A. C. The Government grant was received. One hundred F. W. I. C. stamps sent for by secretary were bought by members. As the district had been canvassed for the Canadian Appeal for Children, and also for the Red Cross, it was decided not to collect for the Cancer Fund. $2.00 was voted to this fund from the Institute. Delicious refreshments were served by each respective hostess at each of the meetings.

Invitations for the next three meetings were extended by Mrs. Angus Martin, Mrs. J. D. MacDonald
and Mrs. Harold Murray.—Lan

On Friday afternoon the Boy

Bristol And Vicinity

Mrs. Cyrus Lapierre was a business visitor to the City on Friday.

Some nice trout were reported, taken at Morell on the opening day.

There is still considerable snow here especially on some of the by-roads.

Mrs. John R. O'Brien has returned home from a two weeks visit to her husband who is stationed in Halifax.

Mr. J. Brown, section foreman on the C.N.R. here, has been off duty for some time suffering from an injured shoulder.

Mr. Ralph McEwen who is like most farmers now too busy for slow horses, has purchased a new tractor. — Bris.

The Morell Creamery has been closed for some time now as the equipment is being moved to the new plant.

Mr. Joseph W. MacDonald has wound up his wood-sawing season around here after cutting more than a hundred cords into stove lengths.

Mr. Joseph A. MacDonald was a business visitor to the city on Saturday along with Anstien La-pierre and his sister, Ella La-pierre.

Master Carol Perry, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John J.
Perry entered the Charlottetown Hospital on Monday morning to undergo an appendix operation.

The sea ice along this section of the north shore has disappeared and fishermen are looking ahead to the season getting underway on the opening day, May 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester McVarish and daughter Edith are expected here this week. They will take up residence at the shore for the summer months where Mr. Mc-Varish is manager of the packing plant at the harbour.

Mr. Joe MacDonald injured his hand last week while operating his gasoline driven saw. A stick caught in the saw going over his head.
He raised his hand to ward off the blow from his head and his hand received the force of the smash.

Mr. John T. O'Brien has received the sad news that his niece, Mrs. Thomas O'Leary, has passed away in Boston. She visited here a number of years ago. Beside her sorrowing husband and family she leaves her aged mother, Mrs. John A. Hughes, who is eighty-six now and who motored down last summer to visit her brother, Mr. O'Brien here. Three other sisters and one brother also mourn her passing.

Mr. Benjamin Watts of Tracadie, proficiency famous singer and fisherman has arrived here and will be engaged for the lobster season as an assistant to Mr. James Hayter. When interviewed Mr.
Watts stated that he did not plan to make any recordings of his songs before next autumn.

ported by her members nam-
mailed the box to English Insti-
Red Cross, it was decided not to
hostess at each of the meetings.
