

The Paper That
Covers Prince Edward Island
Like The Dew.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

The People's Paper Read by Everybody

All The News
Worth Reading
All The Ads
Worth Printing

Charlottetown Guardian, Three Cents.
Morning Guardian, Founded 1891.
Evening Guardian 1897.

CHARLOTTETOWN, CANADA, MONDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1920.

Annual Subscription, delivered, $5.00.
By Mail, Canada, $4.00, U. S. A. $4.50.

ATTACK ON COUNCIL OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Chief Justice of Canada Severely Criticizes League in Withholding Information re Mandates. He is Supported by Lord Robert Cecil.

GENEVA, Dec. 18.—At attack upon the Council of the League of Nations, in which Hon. C. J. Doherty, Canadian Minister of Justice, took a prominent part, featuring a spirited debate in the Assembly of the League here this afternoon. Mr. Doherty expressed the disappointment felt by the Canadian delegation that no opportunity had been given the assembly to examine matters. "There will be no better test of the sincerity of the League than the terms of the mandates and the manner in which they are executed," he said. The Canadian Minister of Justice warned the Council of the League of the gravity of the responsibility it had assumed in withholding the mandates from the public.

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

CONDENSED SPECIALS

WANTED — LIST BOY. APPLY at Guardian Office. 2368

HORSE WANTED. — ANYONE wishing a horse well kept for the winter should apply to 138 Great George Street. (side door). 21

FOR JOB PRINTING of every description, patronise the Central Job Printery, 176 Kent St. Tel. 420-L. 1

FOR SALE — OVERLAND CAR model 90 only run 6,000 miles, thoroughly overhauled, in perfect running order. Apply Guardian. 2317-12-17-31

MAKE MONEY AT HOME. — $15. to $60. paid weekly for your spare time writing showcards for us. No canvassing. We instruct and supply you with work. West Angus Showcard Service, 67 Calhoun St., Toronto. 2228-17 14-m till Dec 31 at

LOST — BETWEEN HAZARD'S grocery store and Cross Roads Lot 48, black leather purse containing sum of money and stamps. Finder please leave at Guardian Office. Dec 20/11pd

FOR SALE — ONE REGISTERED Ayrshire cow coming four years old, fresh in April, 5 milking yet. Apply to J. H. McPhail, Murray Harbour. 2327-12 18 21

MR FOX RANCHER. — HAVE your fox skins cleaned by J. B. Rombough, 128 Great George St. Charlottetown, who runs the only up-to-date fur cleaning plant in Eastern Canada. It will increase their value from 20 to 40 per cent. Telephone No. 409 Dec. 20-61

FOX MEN ATTENTION. — WE are now ready to accept applications for the registration of foxes in the Canadian Fox Breeders Association. Application forms for membership and registration as well as Tattoo Cards will be furnished on request. E. H. Monkley, Summerside, Sec'y. 3619-11-13-14

FURS WANTED. — I AM BUYING for cash or handling on a commission basis, Silver, Cross, and Red Fox pelts; Mink, Muskrat, etc. Having the best possible connections with leading fur houses in London, New York, St. Louis and other centres, I am in a position to handle any quantity of raw fur at the prevailing market prices. Correspondence solicited. E. H. Rayner, Summerside, P. E. I. 1049-12-2-4

Sensational Incident at Ship Launching

HALIFAX, Dec. 19.—The new Canadian government steamer "Canadian Explorer" prematurely launched herself at the Halifax shipyard yesterday morning, twenty minutes ahead of time. Eight workmen who were engaged in removing supporting blocks crouched down beneath the ways as the great ship began to move, and were discovered to be uninjured after the ship had passed safely over them and plunged into the harbor.

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

Fire at Montague

The warehouse of W. A. Poole & Company, situated on the wharf at Lower Montague was completely destroyed by a fire which broke out about 3 a. m. on Wednesday from some cause unknown. The warehouse, which was about 30 feet x 50 feet contained a quantity of flour, canned goods and other merchandise. Practically nothing was saved, and the loss is about $8000, half covered by insurance. There was a south east wind but fortunately this was blowing away from the store, which otherwise also might have been destroyed.

FOR SALE — STEEL RANGE with hot water front and warming oven. Also smaller cooking stoves and small stoves. Apply 88, Rockford St. 11

DETECTIVE SQUADRON TO TOUR NEW YORK

In An Effort to Capture Gangsters Now Alarmingly Active in the City, Relays of Detectives Will Operate Day and Night

(Special to The Guardian) NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—A flying squadron of 50 detectives was sent out today by Police Commissioner Enright to aid in combating the crime war which has called forth expressions of alarm from Judges, City officials, and numerous civic and business organizations. The detectives, equipped with a high speed automobile were ordered to tour the city day and night in relays on the lookout for gangsters.

Probable Effects of Proposed U.S. Tariff

(Special to The Guardian) TORONTO, Dec. 18.—Authorities in every department of agriculture are agreed that if the proposed American tariff on farm products goes into effect the immediate result can be none other than unfavorable to Canada. There is a slight divergence of opinion as to what extent the embargo would militate against the welfare of this country, the feeling in some quarters being that the world demand for foodstuffs is so great that the Canadian farmer will for a long time yet find an eager market for his products, irrespective of whether the United States erects a tariff wall or not.

Bed of Ocean Probably Torn By Convulsion

(Special to The Guardian) Cambridge, Mass., December 18.—An earthquake that was termed a "smasher" was registered on instruments at the Harvard University seismograph station today. The going in the station that is run by a shock was started before 8 o'clock and the seismograph still recording waves of decreasing intensity. Detailed readings of the chart would not be possible until the vibrations ceased, it was said. Meantime there was no indication of the scene of the shocks.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

French Minister Of War Resigns

Paris, December 18.—Dr. Lefevre, the War Minister, resigned today. His resignation resulted from his opposition to the fact that the Chamber of Deputies which provides for a six months obligatory military service. M. Lefevre had insisted upon two years service with the colors.

The C. N. Railways Face Big Deficit

Montreal, Dec. 18.—This has not been a good year for the Canadian National Railways, so it is said in an Ottawa despatch to the Montreal Star. "When the books are closed at the end of this month there will be a deficit of at least sixty million dollars."

Rumanian Affairs In Serious Stage

GENEVA, December 18.—Since the cryptic announcement of a bomb explosion in the Rumanian Senate when an Archbishop and several others were killed and some wounded, no news has reached the world of what is happening in the Rumanian capital. A private message, however, which has just reached Geneva shows that the state of affairs in Rumania is very serious.

British and France Will Ignore Greece

PARIS, Dec. 18.—Great Britain and France have agreed to a plan whereby they and Italy will simultaneously withdraw their ambassadors from Athens, leaving only a Charge D'Affaires to look after their interests, the French Foreign Office announced today. This action, which would reduce Greece to a third rate power in the eyes of the big European nations, is one of the steps designed to indicate the Allies' opposition to the restoration of King Constantine.

Charlottetown's Bishop Heard in Halifax

The Halifax Recorder of the 15th inst. in its account of the centenary celebration of St. Mary's Cathedral in that city says: "The Right Rev. Dr. Louis O'Leary delivered the sermon this morning addressing a congregation that packed the church and looking down upon a scene within the Sanctuary that perhaps was never before equaled at the Cathedral. The magnificent vestments of the officers of the Mass, intermingled with the purple of the Prelate, the white and black of the clergy, the red and white of the altar boys, presented a wonderful scene and added to this was the majestic decorations on the high altar making up a setting seldom equaled in any part of this country."

Voluntary Army Is No Solution

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, who presided at a lecture on "Man Power," delivered by Major-General B. Burnett-Hitchcock, at the Royal United Service Institution, remarked that it was obvious in a national war like the one from which we had just emerged that we wanted conscription. Commenting on the contention of the lecturer that the enormous development in the mechanical side of war did not save man power, he said that he saw often in the newspapers that owing to the advent of aeroplanes or machine guns or tanks, or some other weird invention, we could reduce the number of men in the field. We might reduce the

</