

DDIT did it!

DDIT kills:
FLIES
MOSQUITOES
ANTS
ROACHES
BEDBUGS

DDIT THE 5% DDT SURFACE INSECTICIDE
Stainless, Lasting

DDIT WITH 5% DDT SURFACE INSECTICIDE
KILLS FLIES, MOSQUITOES, ANTS, BEDBUGS

Guaranteed by Good Housekeeping

Be Sure - Say DDIT... distributed by Harold F. Ritchie & Company Ltd.

CENTRAL GUARDIAN

This column is reserved for news of local interest, but advertising of a newsy nature may be inserted at five cents a word strictly payable in advance.

CRASWELL for Photographs.
JIMMIE'S TAXI Phone 524.
CONFEDERATION LIFE INSURANCE.

PHONE SAUNDERS 1806 for group and wedding pictures on location.

NEW CHESTERFIELD in deep wine and blue. Special low price. Toombs Music Store.

BY AIR to Montreal and Boston in about three hours. Phone Maritime Central Always 2061 or 540.

TO NEW GLASGOW in 25 minutes via Maritime Central Airways twice daily. Phone 2061 or 540.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Portable Radios, ideal for camps. Toombs Music Store.

HOWARD McINNIS Fitted Footwear at 175 Queen Street.

HORNSBY'S BAKERY will reopen on Thursday, Aug. 7.

SPECIAL SALE—Closing for holidays Aug. 16. Mrs. Johnston's Ladies' Wear. Call for lay-aways.

CHICKEN AND HAM Sandwiches, pies, ice-cream and cake at Harrington tonight.

REDUCED DRESSES, suits, coats, blouses, shorts, purses and gloves at The Fashion Shoppe, Gt. George Street.

WATCH FOR the new and improved car number book, on sale Friday.

EXCELLENT home-cooked meal at Harrington tonight. Dance afterwards.

LIMITED BUS RUN for Borden and Mainland Points leaves Charlottetown 11:15 A.M. Returning leaves Borden 3:55 P.M., arriving Charlottetown 6:20 P.M. All trips Daily including Sunday. Island Motor Transport, phone 248.

SEASON TICKETS for Old Home Week at all drug stores, Old Spain, H. J. Mabon, Montague and E. Foley, Summerside. Price $3.75.

ENGAGEMENT—Mr. and Mrs. James T. McQuaid, Riverdale, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Marie, to Walter Stephen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toole, Bonshaw. Marriage to take place this month.

SUCCESSFUL STUDENT—Miss Mary Casey, Waterford, has been one of the successful students of the Corresponding Study Branch United Church at 11 a.m., the minister will conduct a worship and presentation service. At 7:30 p.m. the guest preacher will be the Rev. E. McMillan, B.A., B.D., of First United Church, Hamilton, Mr. Akken, a son of the Island, is well known as a successful minister and attractive preacher and many will welcome this opportunity of hearing him.

CHARGED WITH SPEEDING—At the Queen's County Magistrate's Court yesterday, three men charged with speeding were each fined $10 and costs or 10 days. A party convicted under the Excise Act was fined $100 and costs or three months, while another party who pleaded guilty to a second offence under the Excise Act was fined $500 and costs or six months. A Prohibition case was adjourned until August 9th.

CASE ADJOURNED—Alfred Weeks and Ivan McCarville, jointly charged with breaking, entering, and theft, appeared before Judge C. Gavain Duffy yesterday morning under the provisions of the Speedy Trials Act. No evidence was heard and their case was adjourned until next Saturday at 11 A.M. The two men are accused of having broken into the Edmunds Cash Store, corner of Elm Avenue and Euston Street, on the night of July 27 last and of having stolen therefrom a quantity of cigarettes.

VISITING THE ISLAND—Mr. and Mrs. Lorne MacDougall and small daughter Shirley, accompanied by Mr. MacDougall's sister and cousin, arrived in Charlottetown on Saturday, having motored from Calgary via Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. MacDougall are residing in Calgary where he is employed in the Income Tax Office, and June is in training at the Royal Victoria Hospital. They will spend a month with their parents on the Island.

IN MEMORIAM
MRS. LEITH SINGLETON
At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

COAL

The Coal Question

is one of the most important you have to solve every year. On it depends your comfort during the cold winter weather. May we suggest that you purchase your supply now, while coal is available and careful delivery can be made. We are prepared to deliver: American Hard Coal Old Sydney Screened Albion Lump and Nut Inverness Screened Bros J'Or Screened and Stoker Intercolonial Screened Bay View Screened.

A. Pickard & Co
PHONE 240

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cooper of Grand Falls, Newfoundland, have been spending their summer at Stanhope Beach Inn, Stanhope.

Mr. Fred Goffney and son Robert, Boston, Mass., are spending a vacation in the Province.

Mr. Franklin E. Low, Medford, Mass., is spending a few weeks in the city and is the guest of his brother-in-law, Lieut.-Col. F. B. Conrad and Mrs. Conrad.

Mr. Nelson J. Riggs of Wollaston, Mass., arrived in the city Tuesday night on a week's visit, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cameron, 260 Grafton St.

Mrs. Peter Gallant, Mrs. F. Arsenault and her little daughter Thelma, have been visiting at Government House.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Doucette and their daughter, Miss Alberta Doucette, R.N., of Dorchester, Mass., called yesterday on His Honour Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Bernard.

Miss Thelma MacLean, nurse-in-training at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, is spending her vacation at her home in North Wiltshire.

Miss Frances MacMillan, nurse-in-training at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, Charlottetown, is spending her vacation at her home in Albertville.

Prof. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Macinnis, who were in Charlottetown for the Atkinson-Walker marriage, left yesterday afternoon for Halifax where they have been spending the summer. On August 16 Prof. Macinnis will sail on the Empress of Canada from Montreal as a delegate to the Institute of Pacific Relations in England.

Sensational FUR SALE

It's the talk of the town — our annual, sensational August fur event. Beautiful, silky-soft, luxurious fur pelts designed into coats of lasting beauty and warmth. Your favorite fur is here—so come in today and select the coat you've always wanted. Buy it now... we'll keep it, free of charge, in our cold storage vaults until you want it. Use our Easy-Budget Plan — but most of all — see our wonderful new fur coats. All styles, all furs, all priced within your budget.

MAKE YOUR SELECTION NOW!

ISLAND Furriers

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I.

MOBILE X-RAY UNIT

IS AT HUNTER RIVER TODAY and NORTH WILTSHIRE HALL TOMORROW

Hours: 9:30 to 11 A.M. and 1:30 to 5 P.M.

Frequent X-Rays are your best Protection against Tuberculosis

In Memoriam

JONES LLEWELLYN
The community was saddened to learn of the sudden passing of a highly respected citizen in the person of Henry Jones Llewellyn who passed away on Thursday morning, May 15th at his home in Sturgeon at the age of 86 years.

In the home and community, the late Mr. Llewellyn will be sadly missed for his fine qualities of character which in his many years of life were manifested to others in so many acts of kindness, shown during his journey along the highways of life.

The funeral service was held at the home of the deceased on Saturday afternoon, with an exceptionally large concourse of friends and neighbors, all gathered to pay their tribute of love and respect to one so beloved by all.

The service and the choir led in the singing of "Breathe On Me, Breath of God," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "Under His Wings."

The many beautiful floral tributes were mute testimony of the high regard in which Mr. Llewellyn was held by all who knew him.

Surviving are four sons, Richard L. Jones, William, Alston, Benjamin, Rumford, Maine, and Albert, Portland, Maine; and two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Johnston, Sturgeon, and Miss, New Glasgow, N.S.

Interment took place in the family lot in Sturgeon Cemetery. The pallbearers were: John Collings Jr., Hugh Collings, John Lavers, Ernest Griffin, Philip Creed, and Pius Jamieson.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Jones Llewellyn wish to express their sincere thanks to all their neighbors and friends who so kindly sent flowers and cards of sympathy and assisted by many kindly acts in their recent sad bereavement.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of MRS. TILLEY MACASSEY Who passed away August 7, 1941.

When days are dark And friends are few Dear mother how we think of you. Friends are friends If they are true We lost our best friend When we lost you. Ever remembered by husband and family.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of MRS. A. T. McDONALD Who died August 7th, 1945.

Ever remembered by her husband.

HOW WILL YOU FEEL TOMORROW?

Safeguard against discomfort of DULLNESS SICK HEADACHE ACID INDIGESTION CONSTIPATION

take ENO Tonight! Tomorrow Feel BRIGHT

Safeguard your TOMORROWS against feeling dull and tired, against headaches or acid indigestion that result from excess eating or drinking. Before you go to bed, enjoy a glass of ENO's "Fruit Salt." ENO will not over-night... you'll wake up feeling great!

EFFECTIVE DOUBLE ACTION!
1. ANTACID — relieves sour stomach, gas and heartburn promptly. Take anytime.
2. LAXATIVE — quickly relieves temporary sluggishness... it cleans the system. Take before breakfast when needed.

J. C. ENO (Canada) Limited, Dept. 21
P.O. Box 100, Toronto, Ont., Canada

Deadline Lady

By Georgia Craig

CHAPTER VI
"A sound idea, I've overheard one," Lyn agreed wholeheartedly. Thursday night being "Cook's Night Out" in the city, it was the biggest night of the week at the Driving Club; and tonight Lyn and Ann found a great many of their friends having dinner there, Sarah had telephoned a few intimate friends, after giving the advice of Ann's and Lyn's engagement to the society editors of the two daily papers, and of course these friends had telephoned more friends, so when Ann and Lyn came in, they were greeted by a pleasant flurry of congratulations and good wishes, and it was very gay indeed.

The "we stood for a moment, framed in the doorway, and Ann thought wryly that Lissa was the kind of person who practised entrances at home.

Lyn looked angry but gave way with what grace he could muster, and as Tracy took Ann into his arms and their steps merged into a smooth, flowing rhythm, he looked down at her and said grimly, "So this is the way he bought you off!"

Ann caught her breath and stiffened in his arms, her eyes blazing as she looked up at him.

"Smile, Pretty Thing, smile," urged Tracy softly. "Or people will talk about you—and who's you can afford that, I doubt if Fraser can!"

Ann stepped from his arms and through the open French door to the moonlit terrace. And Tracy, perforce, followed.

"I don't know why you followed me here tonight," Ann began freely, but Tracy's little short laugh silenced her.

"My dear girl, you flatter yourself," he said in a tone that made her feel five years old and far from bright. Lissa and I had dinner together and Lissa had a yen to go dancing."

Ann drew a deep breath and clenched her hands at her side, and said coolly, "So you come to the club to dance — then why bother to insult me? You have ample opportunity for that at the office."

Tracy said, unexpectedly gentle: "You poor infant, I'm not trying to insult you I'm just trying to advise you of the score. You're such a wide-eyed innocent little thing that I hate to see Fraser pull the wool over your eyes."

"I think I shall have to ask you to explain that," Ann cut in hotly. "I meant to, of course," said Tracy mildly. "I think that Fraser's using you to cover up the Barton mess is about as low a thing as I've ever known a heel to pull—and I don't want to see him get away with it. Is that simple enough for you to understand?"

"There isn't any Barton mess," she said slowly and distinctly, because if she didn't speak slowly her words would have blurred and run into tatters. "And I've always expected to marry Lyn, ever since we were children together."

He hesitated and in the moonlight she could see that his brows were drawn together in a little puzzled frown and that puzzle colored his voice when he answered her at last. "You know, I can't understand why I should give a tinker's dam what happens to you—and yet, believe it or not, I do care! Isn't that the damndest thing?"

"It certainly is!" Ann assured him frantically. But the cruelest thing was happening to her inside. She was furious with him, outraged and humiliated by what he had implied; and yet—there was a little warm, contented feeling in her heart that this man should be so concerned about her.

"You see," he told her slowly obviously feeling for words with which to phrase a thought so new to him that words were slow to come. "I've always given a loud raucous laugh at the thought of feeling 'protective' towards a woman; in my book, women are a damned sight sadder about looking out for themselves than men; women are tougher and more resilient; and yet when I saw that item for the morning edition, in which your grandmother announced your engagement, I suddenly knew that it wasn't end in marriage!"

"If you've quite finished—" Ann was keeping her voice frosty by a real effort.

"Oh, but I haven't I haven't really begun!" he assured her warmly. "Fraser's affair with the Barton lady's well known about town, there's been a lot of gossip; of course his announcement of his engagement to you will throw a bit of dust into people's eyes—it might even do a spot of white-washing—and boy, can we use it! But you're too sweet and lovely, too fine a girl to be used that way! So—I don't propose to admit it. I have plans for you—"

"You have plans for me?" she gasped, incredulous.

(To Be Continued)

Top Flight

THESE FEATURES MAKE Top Flight A GREAT TIRE

- Maximum Mileage
- Greater Skid Control
- Smoother Running
- Longer Wear
- "Sawtooth" Safety Tread

395-7-47

In Memoriam

MRS. LEITH SINGLETON

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

At the P. E. Island Hospital, April 25, 1947. Mrs. Leith C. Singleton, Roseberry, in her 26th year, after a long and painful illness. She left to mourn her loss her husband and two small children. The funeral was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. C. Evans. Her remains were laid to rest in the Belfast Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)

Deadline Lady

By Georgia Craig

CHAPTER VI
"A sound idea, I've overheard one," Lyn agreed wholeheartedly. Thursday night being "Cook's Night Out" in the city, it was the biggest night of the week at the Driving Club; and tonight Lyn and Ann found a great many of their friends having dinner there, Sarah had telephoned a few intimate friends, after giving the advice of Ann's and Lyn's engagement to the society editors of the two daily papers, and of course these friends had telephoned more friends, so when Ann and Lyn came in, they were greeted by a pleasant flurry of congratulations and good wishes, and it was very gay indeed.

The "we stood for a moment, framed in the doorway, and Ann thought wryly that Lissa was the kind of person who practised entrances at home.

Lyn looked angry but gave way with what grace he could muster, and as Tracy took Ann into his arms and their steps merged into a smooth, flowing rhythm, he looked down at her and said grimly, "So this is the way he bought you off!"

Ann caught her breath and stiffened in his arms, her eyes blazing as she looked up at him.

"Smile, Pretty Thing, smile," urged Tracy softly. "Or people will talk about you—and who's you can afford that, I doubt if Fraser can!"

Ann stepped from his arms and through the open French door to the moonlit terrace. And Tracy, perforce, followed.

"I don't know why you followed me here tonight," Ann began freely, but Tracy's little short laugh silenced her.

"My dear girl, you flatter yourself," he said in a tone that made her feel five years old and far from bright. Lissa and I had dinner together and Lissa had a yen to go dancing."

Ann drew a deep breath and clenched her hands at her side, and said coolly, "So you come to the club to dance — then why bother to insult me? You have ample opportunity for that at the office."

Tracy said, unexpectedly gentle: "You poor infant, I'm not trying to insult you I'm just trying to advise you of the score. You're such a wide-eyed innocent little thing that I hate to see Fraser pull the wool over your eyes."

"I think I shall have to ask you to explain that," Ann cut in hotly. "I meant to, of course," said Tracy mildly. "I think that Fraser's using you to cover up the Barton mess is about as low a thing as I've ever known a heel to pull—and I don't want to see him get away with it. Is that simple enough for you to understand?"

"There isn't any Barton mess," she said slowly and distinctly, because if she didn't speak slowly her words would have blurred and run into tatters. "And I've always expected to marry Lyn, ever since we were children together."

He hesitated and in the moonlight she could see that his brows were drawn together in a little puzzled frown and that puzzle colored his voice when he answered her at last. "You know, I can't understand why I should give a tinker's dam what happens to you—and yet, believe it or not, I do care! Isn't that the damndest thing?"

"It certainly is!" Ann assured him frantically. But the cruelest thing was happening to her inside. She was furious with him, outraged and humiliated by what he had implied; and yet—there was a little warm, contented feeling in her heart that this man should be so concerned about her.

"You see," he told her slowly obviously feeling for words with which to phrase a thought so new to him that words were slow to come. "I've always given a loud raucous laugh at the thought of feeling 'protective' towards a woman; in my book, women are a damned sight sadder about looking out for themselves than men; women are tougher and more resilient; and yet when I saw that item for the morning edition, in which your grandmother announced your engagement, I suddenly knew that it wasn't end in marriage!"

"If you've quite finished—" Ann was keeping her voice frosty by a real effort.

"Oh, but I haven't I haven't really begun!" he assured her warmly. "Fraser's affair with the Barton lady's well known about town, there's been a lot of gossip; of course his announcement of his engagement to you will throw a bit of dust into people's eyes—it might even do a spot of white-washing—and boy, can we use it! But you're too sweet and lovely, too fine a girl to be used that way! So—I don't propose to admit it. I have plans for you—"

"You have plans for me?" she gasped, incredulous.

(To Be Continued)

JAP EMPEROR VISITS MINE

YUMOTO, Japan, Aug 5 — (A.P.) — Perspiring freely, Emperor Hirohito, descended 1,500 feet elevators to greater output. It was the hot workings of the Joban se first time a Japanese ruler on Coal Mine today and excited in a red mine shaft.

They're Great Mate Wellner Matching Wedding Bands

