SURVEY HELD — The S. S. Delia, Captain Charles Webber, master, came into port Saturday from the Great Lakes on voyage to Halifax and called at Charlottetown to land part cargo. On coming down the Gulf in thick weather she struck bottom off Miminigash, on the west coast of the Island, but came off without any apparent damage. A survey was called yesterday by Hyndman & Company, Lloyd's Agents, and after some slight repairs the vessel proceeded on her voyage. Capt. T. G. Taylor and Frank Stewart of Bruce Stewart & Company acted as surveyors.

CLYDE RIVER—A meeting of the Young People's Society was held in the Clyde River Baptist Church on Wednesday evening, December 6th. The President, Jack Heartz, occupied the chair. Mrs. J. Heber MacPhail presided at the organ. Opening hymn, "Trusting Jesus, that is All," followed with Scripture reading by the president. Mr. R. A. MacPhail then led in prayer. Hymn, "At the Cross," was sung. Miss Winifred Best gave an excellent report of the Young People's Convention which was held in the Charlottetown Baptist Church in November. The election of officers for the ensuing year then took place and resulted as follows: President, Robert Matheson; Vice President, John Murray; Secretary Treasurer, Allie MacLean. The meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah Benediction.

WOMEN MAY BE THE DOMINANT SEX

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Dec 11—A picture of women becoming the dominant sex at some future date was drawn for the Women's Canadian Club by Col. H. C. Osborne, vice-president of the Ottawa Drama League who organized the Dominion Drama Festival. In discussing the subject "Women—Their Past and Their Future," Col. Osborne commented that as women were more realistic and more single-minded than men, following upon their hard-won victories in the political, civil and economic fields there might be developed a matriarchal civilization. In that process, he said, many idols and prejudices were bound to be dethroned. One of these was domesticity, another was the legend of woman's weakness.

Education for themselves and peace for the world were two things Col. Osborne urged women to pursue. With reference to paltry courses which he declared had no business in a university properly so-called, he counselled against being put off with the "small change" of education but instead to aim for those things which enlarge the mind, stimulate the imagination and broaden the understanding.

It was only too evident the progress of women had been not only retarded but for a long time actually impeded by men, Col. Osborne said. The trouble began, he added, when Adam, looking upon his first born, remarked that he was glad the baby was not a girl, since this was a man's world.

HARD TIMES MAKE PEOPLE MORE CAREFUL

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Dec 11—Even women, who have the reputation of being more careless about leaving parcels and other belongings behind in taxis take a look around now before stepping out of the cab, reports a local driver in an attempt to explain the reason for empty cupboards in the Lost Articles, Stolen Goods and Prisoners' Effects Bureau at Police Headquarters. A few years ago it was quite a common thing to find these cupboards filled with everything from cameras to umbrellas and even the odd set of false teeth, but hard times have worked two ways to reduce the quantity and quality of taxi salvage brought in to police headquarters. Fewer are riding in taxis, despite reduced fare, and those who do are more careful of their belongings.

Women who in better times would wonder casually over the loss of a compact, handbag or hat today rush to Police Headquarters to report their loss and great is their relief when the spacious cupboards yield the missing belongings, according to officials in charge. Therefore today it is quite common to find these shelves as empty as the one which confronted old Mother Hubbard.
