Robinson and Marty Servo Tangle tonight

NEW YORK, May 27-(AP)-The winning streak of 120 straight fights that Ray Robinson has put together runs smack into the bitler the Harlem skinny man repeats more than any other in the welterweight division tomorrow night in Madison Square Garden. This little fellow is Marius Severino, known to the trade as Marty Servo. He's a baby-faced kid out of Schenectady, a cousin of ex-lightweight champion Lew Ambers and a pretty fair country feller in his own right.

Harder joins Spectacled Pitchers brigade

CLEVELAND, May 27-(AP)-Move over, Bill Detrich, Dizzy Trout and Walter Masterson. Mel Harder, the Cleveland curve ball artist, is joining the brigade of the spectacled pitchers. He missed so many of his catcher's signs, and the date was so dim in a night game at St. Louis two years ago, that Mel decided to cease last night against Chicago White Sox.
