The mail train reached this City at ten ten Saturday night.

The tide will be high this evening at 6.38 and tomorrow evening at 7.27.

Dr S. R. and Mrs Jenkins, City, returned home Saturday night from Montreal.

The many friends of John H. Myers, Mt Albion, will be pleased to hear he has recovered from his recent illness.

Miss Lilly Robertson, and Miss Annie Brehaut, Alexandra, spend Wednesday in Hazelbrook the guest of Miss Laura Jones.

Miss Annie L. Brehaut, Alexandra, has returned home, after spending a very pleasant week, visiting friends in Hazelbrook, the guest of Audrey and Mrs Myers.

The highest temperature recorded Saturday was thirty eight degrees above zero and the coldest was twenty four above up till nine a.m. The coldest recorded on the previous night was twenty one above.

At the Police Court Saturday morning Henry Huntley was fined $30 for being drunk. James McKenna on the same charge, was fined $10. This latter sentence was suspended on a promise of good behavior in the future.

The incoming eastern train of last Friday morning, in charge of Conductor Stanley, ran into and killed two cattle. The animals were on the track and were instantly killed, the accident taking place some little distance out of Souris.

A. W. Holroyd, Manager of Kelly's Pond Fish Hatchery, reports that 50,000 trout fry and 90,000 Salmon fry were distributed from the hatchery last year. They were placed in the Morell, Winter and other rivers and ponds about. From Charlottetown Lobster hatchery 63,000,000 fry were distributed last year. Pat.

A prohibition summons for first offence has been served on Kate McDonald, City. A necessary witness in this case was arrested Saturday and lodged in jail to await his time to give evidence at the trial. It was learned that he intended to leave the city this morning and on the investigation of Inspector Jenkins he was placed in safe keeping.

Persons unable to get No 133, The Guardian news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 124 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of The Guardian main entrance, and further enquiries can be made by phoning above.

A business firm that is wide awake to the interests of their customers is Chas. C. Meigs Co, 25 Fulton Market, New York, whose ad soliciting consignments of smelts and eels from this Province appears elsewhere. Personal attention is given to all goods received and they are presented to the trade in a manner sure to carry off highest market prices. With their up to date methods of handling their business, prompt returns are sent and satisfaction given in every way.

At the Strathcona Hotel, Grafton Street, Saturday night, the members of the Abegweit Athletic Club gave a dinner, the guest being Ivan Reddin of this city who leaves tomorrow morning for Kentville, N. S., where he has recently been transferred. The boys had an enjoyable social evening and dinner was served in the Messrs. Baiderton's usual tasty and satisfactory style. Mr Reddin's transfer to Kentville leaves a gap in the Abegweit Club not easily filled as Ivan is one of the most popular of Charlottetown's young men.

The Methodist ministers met in the parlors of Centenary church Friday morning in special session. The subject of church union was taken up. The paper presented by Dr G. M. Campbell at the regular meeting of Monday last was thoroughly discussed. Dr Campbell had spoken in favor of the union. A number of the ministers expressed their views on the matter and several concurred with Dr Campbell. The meeting adjourned before the discussion was completed. The subject will again be considered by the clergymen.—St John Star.

There is a complete change at New Wonderland tonight. Pictures are: Timisean Industries, An Entertaining Admirer, Grand Feature Picture, An Alpine Echo, New song and specialty, Extra Reel, The New Cop, Which is Which. 11-23dl.

The Northumberland arrived in this city at six ten Saturday night.

Mrs E. R. Keefe, Halifax, crossed to the City by the Northumberland Saturday.

Hazel Taylor, City, who has been sitting in Pictou, returned by the Northumberland Saturday night.

Mrs Alex Davison, Boston, formerly of this city, is visiting her parents D. and Mrs Howlett.

C.E.L. Jarvis, insurance adjuster, St John, arrived in the city Saturday night and this morning will go to Souris to adjust the loss.

On Saturday evening Major Geo L. Docherty, Kent Street, was stricken with paralysis. Since then he has been in an unconscious condition. His many friends will learn of this with regret.

A full house greeted the Bijou Saturday night and a fine program was offered. Intense interest centred in the Girl Scout, a story of the Boer war. The characters were most realistic and thrilling. An equally fine film was The White Lies a marine picture which brought in charm in scenery and a spicy account of a rivalry between the fishing boats. The creeter sang superbly.

P. S. Hamon, Truro, the well-known commercial traveller, who has been in the province for the past few days, was taken suddenly ill while on the wharf his way to the steamer Northumberland Saturday morning. He became unconscious and was taken back to the Victoria Hotel and a doctor was summoned. He was considerably improved yesterday and was up in the afternoon. He will be all right again in a few days.

B. D. Luce & Co, inc, 31 Fulton Fish Market, New York, make a specialty of smelts, eels and clams, and are soliciting same in car load lots, as will be seen by their ad elsewhere. This is a splendid opportunity for fishermen in this Province to find a ready market, as the firm's successful business methods means a ready market at the most advantageous prices. Having their own freezer they can handle large quantities most expeditiously.

The cold weather creates a demand in New York for fresh and frozen fish and Provincial shippers, anxious to secure a ready market for their goods, are asked to write to The Hugh Stocker Co, 114 & 115 South St., Fulton Market, New York, whose ad appears elsewhere, as they make a specialty of smelts and eels and want shipments from this Province. They have cold storage on their premises and make prompt returns.

The program at New Wonderland, Saturday evening, was up to the usual high standard. The film, Which is Which, was a good comedy reel and caused much laughter. The reel, The New Cop was also a comedy. The Squaw's Sacrifice was a grand reel showing an Indian girl's sacrifice for a white man. The song and specialty by Mr Rathbone were given in his characteristic style and were thoroughly enjoyed by the numerous patrons present.
