MAXWELL HOUSE COFFEE
 ROASTED AND PACKED IN CANADA

 ROASTED AND PACKED IN CANADA

Don't drink just coffee. Drink one hundred per cent. full-flavoured coffee. First, ask yourself this question—"Is there air inside the tin or package you buy?" If there is—coffee deteriorates, loses flavour. If there isn't—that coffee keeps full flavour indefinitely.

Here is the Answer Vita-Fresh Packed Coffee
 That means Maxwell House packed by the exclusive Vita-Fresh process which alone removes and excludes all traces of oxygen from the sealed tin. Maxwell House is smoother, richer, more satisfying. Simply because the world-famous quality of the Old South's noted blend is now fully, completely protected—more so than any other coffee sold today. From your grocer. Look for the words "Vita-Fresh" marked on the sealed and locked tin.

Air Inside the Tin or Package Does the Damage
 Loose or bag coffee loses 65% of its flavour in 9 days after roasting. Coffee in old-fashioned tins or cardboard cartons loses 45% of its flavour in 9 days after roasting.

A special prayer and praise service was held at Quincy, on Monday evening and at Beverly, Mass., on the Friday before the Sacrament, three baptisms being administered at the latter place. Preparatory services were held in Cambridge on Thursday and Saturday evening. Rev. Mr. MacDougall preaching with much acceptance on these occasions. The church was filled at both services on the Lord's Day, April 24, the many communicants were served at five different tables, the two ministers addressing the tables in turn. The action sermon on Sabbath was preached by Rev. Mr. Lowry from I Corinthians X: 4, "And That Rock Was Christ." The Sabbath Day "was an high day" and was far spent when the people dispersed to their homes. The observances of the Communion season were followed up with appropriate discourses by the minister of the congregation on Sabbath last from the words of Luke 9: 62, "No man, having put his hand to

"And That's Why I Stopped Worrying About the Mortgages"
 The speaker admitted his home was mortgaged. Properly so, he said, because he could not have bought it otherwise.
 Then, he added, he realized the danger to his wife and children should he die before the mortgage was paid off.
 However, he found there was an insurance policy with special features and with attractively low premiums specially designed to take care of such cases as his. He took out an Imperial Mortgage Protection Policy to match the amount of his mortgage dollar for dollar—sacrificing disposition he was found in many a home of sickness, m. d. entering to those in distress. As winter began to make its presence felt, Malcolm was smitten with a severe illness, from which he never fully recovered, and following periods of partial recovery, he grew rapidly weaker, passing away in the early days of spring to a land where there is no more pain.

He leaves to sorrow, two sisters, Mrs. Geo. Robertson of Mayfield, and Mrs. Matilda Bentley of Kensington, and also a brother, Hamilton of Cavendish. The funeral service was held on April 16th, and consisted of a short service at the home of Mr. Robertson, following which the body was taken to the United Church in Cavendish, where his pastor, Rev. H. S. Bishop, brought words of comfort and Christian hope to the gathered relatives and friends. On the request of the family, the choir sang a selection that has brought comfort to many a sorrowing heart, "Will The Circle Be Unbroken?" The pall bearers were: John Laird, Alex Toombs, Ernest Webb, Edmund Toombs, Jas. O. Simpson, and Jeremiah Simpson, the body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Cavendish.
