TO STAND TRIAL ON MURDER CHARGES

GLACE BAY, April 27—George Frederick Beale was committed in the Stipendiary's Court here today to stand trial before the Supreme Court on two charges of murder, one the killing of Wm. Bryant and also causing the death of Michael Murphy during a U. M. W. labor meeting on the night of April 24th inst. The hearing took place before Stipendiary A. B. McGillivray at the Police Court. D. A. Hearn, of Sydney, Crown Prosecutor, appeared for the prosecution, and A. D. Gunn for the defence. The Court room was packed to the doors, quite a number of women being present, among whom was Mrs. Beale, wife of the prisoner.

The witnesses examined were Thomas Connolly, the man who started the disturbance, J. D. McLellan, J. B. McLaughlin and John McNeil. McLellan's and McLaughlin's evidence was practically the same as given at the inquests, and the only new points secured by the counsel was from Connolly and McNeil's testimony.

Connolly acknowledged that he had interrupted McLellan while he was speaking, but said that after the trouble started he did not see Bryant strike Beale, nor did he see a revolver. He had heard the shots but did not know who fired them. He saw Bryant lying on the floor but did not see him fall. McNeil was in the hall when the trouble started. He saw Bryant walking up to where Beale stood and attempted to strike him (Beale). He had tried to keep Bryant away from Beale but could not hold him back. He was pretty strong and had handled men before. Bryant struck Beale while he was trying to hold him back. This was the material part of today's evidence at the hearing, at the close of which the prisoner was committed to the Supreme Court.

A. D. Gunn, counsel for the prisoner, in view of the evidence adduced which, he said, pointed clearly to self-defence, asked that bail be granted the prisoner. This the Magistrate refused, and the counsel will apply to the Full Bench at Halifax for permission to furnish bail pending the session of the Supreme Court.

The prisoner was committed on two separate charges and the hearing on the charge of causing the death of Michael Murphy consumed only a few minutes, the same evidence being put in by counsel. Beale was removed to the County Jail at Sydney this evening by Chief McDonald and Officer Francis. During the hearing the prisoner appeared greatly depressed, but as he was being taken to Sydney he appeared much brighter and composed.

The funeral of William Bryant took place this afternoon and was largely attended. The funeral of Murphy takes place tomorrow morning.

LONGBOAT CHALLENGES CLARENCE DEMAR

BOSTON, April 27—Tom Longboat, the Indian Marathon champion has challenged Clarence De Mar, holder of the B. A. A. A. Marathon record, to a contest over the Ashland-to-Boston course.

The Onondaga redskin, through his manager, Sol Mintz, announced yesterday that in spite of the Boston champion's world's record performance of 2 hours 21 minutes 39 3-5 seconds over the Ashland-to-Boston course, Longboat was fully competent to defeat the local runner and put up new figures for the route.

The announcement that the Indian was willing to meet De Mar in such a contest has already started the Marathon followers guessing. Longboat is universally acknowledged to be the greatest Marathon runner that ever donned a shoe. Ever since the Canadian Indian made his remarkable run of 2 hours 24 minutes 24 seconds over the Ashland-to-Boston course, he has been thought to be without a peer in the long-distance running game. His record at that time was expected to stand for many years.

Clarence De Mar's performance has placed him in a class by himself and local fans are confident that the Dorchester lad can defeat this time by many minutes.

The prospects, however, of Longboat and De Mar meeting over the Unicorn course is very slim. Longboat is a professional runner, while De Mar is an amateur. The A.A.U. rules strictly forbid the meeting of a registered amateur against a money chaser. De Mar has signified his intention of still remaining in the amatuer ranks until after the Swedish Olympic games in Stockholm, next year, but Canadian athletic followers are doing their utmost to have the Boston champion turn "pro" before that date and meet Longboat in such a contest. If the Indian and De Mar ever competed over the Ashland-Boston course, it would prove one of the greatest contests of all time.

WAR TO THE KNIFE IN PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, April 29— Apparently both parties have settled down down to a determined fight on the Reciprocity Agreement. Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced yesterday that unless the Tariff Bill passes he won't attend the Conference or Coronation.

Mr Borden suggested three courses; first let Mr Fielding remain to lead Parliament; second, leave the Reciprocity Agreement until next session; third adjourn until after the Coronation.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promptly declined the Opposition's offer to vote an interim supply, if third suggestion were adopted. Struggle will go on.

Midgie Station, N. B.—One can hardly believe this as it is not natural, but it was my case. For ten months I suffered from suppression. I had

I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and at the second bottle showed improvement. Now I am regular and never was so well in my life, thanks to Mrs. Pinkham's medicine.

I. C. R. PICTURES ARE APPRECIATED.

And Help To Advertise Attractions Of Eastern Canada.

The Intercolonial Railway has just completed the distribution of an issue of very handsome framed lithos of the famous summer train the "Ocean Limited" and many appreciation letters are daily being received from shippers and other patrons of the railway in Quebec Ontario and the West, where the distribution was in large measure confirmed.

The picture shows the Ocean Limited rounding at full speed one of the curves of the shore at Bedford Basin. It is a beautiful scene and the coloring is a very faithful representation of the true lonliness of the verdure and the shimmering hue of this picturesque inlet.

Prominent display is being given these pictures in hotels, public buildings, Telegraph and Express offices, and in many places where the travelling public is most likely to notice them and be charmed accordingly.

They should play a prominent part in calling the attention of travellers to the attractions of the Maritime Provinces, and the advantages of the route traversed by the I. C. R. and form another important link in the chain of publicity which the Intercolonial has in recent years given to Eastern Canada.
