Among the propositions to be placed before the meeting referred to in yesterday morning's Guardian, shortly to be called in Summerside, are the following: Open air band concerts, a series of athletic events, including a long distance road race and a long distance swimming race, a general athletic meet to be held in Summerside, the organization of a town improvement club. These and other matters of general interest will be taken up and all interested are asked to think them over and be prepared to take some definite action towards carrying them out.
On Wednesday, while going to see a marriage ceremony performed at some of his relatives in Pottage Cove, John R. Oliver of Alberton miraculously escaped a bad accident. His horse took fright at some object on the road and before he could get his situation he was thrown from the carriage receiving a bad shaking up. The wagon top was somewhat twisted and broken but otherwise all escaped well. The horse was caught about one mile from the scene of the accident. After enjoying a splendid evening, Mr. Oliver returned to Alberton and was able to make "good time" on the Killara mail route as usual.
—33 1/2 per cent discount on all clothes. After a very large spring trade in floor all clothes and linens we find we have on hand seventeen remnants 2 yards wide in different lengths from 1 1/2 yards to 6 1/2 yards, which we will dispose of at a discount of 33 1/2 per cent. R. T. Holman Limited.
The death of Whitefield Laird of Augustus Cove, announced in yesterday's Guardian was so obviously the result of an accident that it was not considered necessary to hold an inquest. The deceased had been in the habit of taking his gun with him to his work and it was evident that, in searching for game, the weapon was accidentally exploded, causing the young man's death.
—J. H. Brook, managing director of the Greater West Life Assurance Company, spent Wednesday night in Summerside and left yesterday morning by the Express for the mainland.

DIED. MCKAY—At Denver Colorado, on June 9th, 1907, Mrs. D. J. McKay, (nee Miss Josephina Whitehead) in the 34th year of her age. RHEUMATISM ALMOST KILLED HER. For years Mrs. S. Stahlshmidt of Summerside, Ont., was a martyr to rheumatism. "I was stiff and lame I could scarcely walk," she writes. "An attack striking my legs made walking impossible. Friends and doctors gave prescriptions but only got relief from Ferronone. I took twelve boxes and gained from the first. Today I am well, feel stronger, walk better and look the picture of health." Whether muscular or inflammatory, chronic or otherwise, Ferronone does cure rheumatism and sciatica, 50c per box at all dealers.
