ROD AND GUN

To the hunter or fisherman looking for new places to hunt and fish, Rod and Gun in Canada for December will prove invaluable. In a specially illustrated article, W. L. Edmunds, the well known writer, graphically pictures the wild life of the Dominion, including the North West Territories. Bonnycastle Dale takes his readers with him on a goose shooting trip over the big Canadas. In a reminiscence style Judge Fraeick describes the good old days in an interesting story of the Wayside Inn. The log that is growing in favor every day is the Airphoto terrace and in addition to the splendid cover painting by F. V. Williams, he has a story entitled, "Pluck", that will appeal to everyone. The various departments, Guns and Ammunition, Fishing, Conservation; Trap Line and Kennel are up to their usual high standard. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

A few breeders have achieved a measure of success without patronizing fairs and exhibitions, but the number is so small as to be almost negligible.

INDIGNATION MEETING.—A fairly large and representative meeting was held at Lower Free-town on November 24th to protest against the excessive taxes imposed by the Legislature at its last session. Mr. Alex Cairns was appointed chairman and Mr. D. M. Benford, secretary. All present freely condemned the land tax as being too high, but the last straw that broke the camel's back, the three dollar poll tax received a bitter and scathing denunciation, and it was agreed to send a report of the meeting to the two representatives, to the press for publication and further that all the other school districts in the province be asked to co-operate with us in an effort to have the Legislature repeal the obnoxious clause in the tax act.—Com.

Tragedy In Lumber Camp

(Special to The Guardian.) ST. STEPHEN, Nov. 27.—Some particulars of the tragedy at Brockway, York County, are available today. The victim was Carleton Vall aged 31 and the shooting was done by his Uncle James Vall, aged 50. The victim was working with others at the lumber camp, four miles from the village, but was alone when the accident occurred. He was standing on a log trimming it with an axe, when a shot rang out and the bullet pierced his left leg just above the knee. Considerable difficulty was experienced in getting a physician. After many hours, stretcher bearers endeavored to carry the wounded man from the woods to a settlement, but on the way out he died of the shock.
