HEAVY RAINFALL RECORDED

A 1.52 inch rainfall late Thursday night was reported yesterday by Mr. Warren Burns, meteorologist at Charlottetown Experimental Station. The storm, accompanied by a high wind flooded drains and several streets. It was preceded by an electrical storm.

SUCCESSFUL ANNUAL TEA—The annual Halloween tea held in St. James Hall under the auspices of the Guild was most successful on Thursday and the financial result most satisfactory. The hall was prettily decorated and the candy, novelty and tea tables very widely patronized.

EDUCATIONAL CHANGE REQUESTED—A delegation representing farmers' organizations waited upon the educational authorities this week and received assurance that changes would be made in the courses of study for Grades 9 and 10, reducing the amount of academic study now required, to make room for the studies of a more practical nature.

UNUSUAL CASE TO BE HEARD—A local man was arrested yesterday afternoon and charged under the delinquent child act with aiding juvenile delinquency. City Police said. The man was charged with purchasing a camera, said to be valued at $85.00, from a juvenile for the sum of 25 cents. The case, police said, was the first of its kind in the city.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL—The Philathea Class of the Charlottetown Baptist Church entertained the junior brotherhood class last evening at a Halloween social in the schoolroom of the church which was fittingly decorated for the occasion. A good representation of both classes attended in costume and enjoyed the several games, sing song and refreshments followed by a speech from Rev. Mr. Denton. At the close all joined in singing the National Anthem.

GRAND CHANCELLOR VISITS LODGE—Mr. Arthur S. Priest of Halifax, Grand Chancellor of Maritime Domain, Knights of Pythias, left yesterday for his home accompanied by Mrs. Priest, after making an official visit to Empire Lodge, No. 19. It was Mr. Priest's first official visit to the Charlottetown Lodge since his election to office at the Grand Lodge convention here in August. While in the city he and Mrs. Priest were the guests of Major J. A. MacKenzie and Mrs. MacKenzie. Officers installed in Empire Lodge by Deputy Grand Chancellor Charles T. Manson include: Chancellor Commander, W. A. Henry; Vice Chancellor, H. R. Vessey; Prelate, Lloyd Yeo; Master of the Work, Gordon Toombs; Mas-
