The New Spring P.D. Corset Models are Here for Selection

We have the sole agency for the celebrated P. D. Corsets for this city. We have just received all the newest spring and summer models.

They are modeled to every type of human figure, and each mould gently shapes the figure to the graceful lines of its ideal—they are the foundation for a proper fitting gown.

The P. D. Corsets have successfully passed the rigid examination of the Incorporate Institute of Hygiene, of London, as being the standard of merit.

Now is the time to get a pair and we will extend to you every courtesy in making the selection.

TO THE MEMORY OF DR. CARR.

The unexpected death of the late Dr. Carr has called forth expressions of sorrow throughout the whole of the Maritime Provinces, and calls for more than passing notice. As a man of exemplary Christian character he was much beloved by all who knew him. His gentlemanly bearing, his mild disposition, his mild manners and deep piety, all went to mark a most beautiful life and endeared him to all.

As a minister of the Gospel, he was blessed with more than ordinary talent and ability. Mighty in the Scriptures and living closely to his Divine Master, he was able to lead men to the Saviour. It has been the writer's privilege in years gone by to hear men attribute the turning point in their lives to his earnest preaching. As to be permitted to pay this token of respect to his beloved memory. His home coming was always welcomed by all, and when circumstances permitted him to preach he was always greeted with a large and appreciative audience. At the morning service in the Lot 16 Presbyterian Church, on Feb. 23rd, the pastor, Rev. W. A. Mason, spoke very feelingly of his death, reading the chapter taken by him on his last visit last summer, his text on that occasion being "Seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses," etc., recalling some of the points dwelt on by him on that occasion. The Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces has sustained a very distinct loss, as his wise counsel and discretion in all church matters will be greatly missed. I think we can truly say with the prophet that a mighty man and prince is fallen in Israel. Yet our consolation is in the blessed truth, that he is entered into his rest and his works do follow him. To us who are bereaved, the words of the apostle, which he so truly lived, are a good faith, I finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid by for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me on that day, and not for me only, but unto them also all who love his appearance.

SERVICE FOR CANADA.

UNSLIGHTLY FACE SORES

ARE REMOVED BY ZAM-BUK.

No matter how obstinate sores, ulcers or abscesses may be, they cannot for long resist the powerful healing essences contained in Zam-Buk. Mr. Hugh B. Cryslar, contractor, of 65 Henry Street, St. Catharines, says:

"Months ago my face broke out in running sores. Try as I would, I could not get anything to remove them. I thought my blood was out of order and took all sorts of medicines internally. Still, the sores got worse.

"In the end I got so bad that I could not get any barber to shave me. As my state was terrible, I went to see a friend, who is a druggist. He strongly advised me to try Zam-Buk and leave off everything else. This I did, and almost immediately there was an improvement. The sores became rapidly less and less 'angry' and painful, and the discharge was less. A few boxes of Zam-Buk had the desired effect, and to my delight, I found my face free from all the sores and blemishes."

Just as good for eczema, ulcers, cold-sores, piles, fistula, etc. All druggists and stores, 50 cents box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 23.—One of the most distinguished pioneer Anglican missionaries in the Northwest has passed away in this city in the person of Rt. Rev. Canon William Newton. He came to this diocese in 1900 and held a general license and occasionally ministered. Born in England in 1827, he first took up clerical work in this country, being ordained a deacon in 1870, and the following year a priest. In 1874 he officiated in the parish of Rossau, Ont.

Our Spring stock of English hats are here, and the American ones are expected daily. To make allowance for the reputation of our big up-to-date hat department we had to order more than double the quantity of previous years. To be well dressed its absolutely essential to see our showing—to investigate the shapes and shades.

Something decidedly new are the TWEEN hats, between sizes or fine sizes for people who have difficulty in procuring a proper fitting hat. Besides we have in stock the TRESS, PARKER, with written guarantee inside; GLOVEFIT, with written guarantee inside; MARLOW, with written guarantee inside, WAPERLITE, ROYALTY, STANLEY, DOWNE'S and BRUNSWICK.

With the above notable lines there's a certainty of satisfaction. There's a hat here for every face, a price for every purse.

EARLY FARMING.

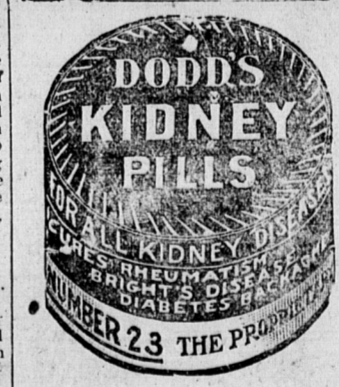

Sir:—Although nearly a month has elapsed an event came to my notice a few days ago which is indeed worthy of recording and goes to show how mild our island winters have become. Mr. John James MacCormack, of Boughton Island, plowed, sowed and harrowed in a piece of barley. In case some of the Guardian readers may think I am handing them out a huge joke, I give those statements over my own signature, as I know them to have actually occurred. Now, whether Johnnie Frost is getting too old or he is afraid of our powerful ice-breaking steamer, I don't know, but he surely does not deal us out such severe frost, as he used to in winters gone by.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space. I remain yours truly, JOSEPH McCORMACK, Launching, Lot 55.
