TERRIBLE PAINS ACROSS BACK

SUFFERED EIGHT MONTHS WITH KIDNEY TROUBLE. WOULD HAVE TO STAY IN BED FOR THREE DAYS AT A TIME

Doan's Kidney Pills

CURED HIM

Mr. Thomas Fitzgerald, Hazeldean, Ont., writes us as follows: "I was a great sufferer from kidney trouble for eight months. I had terrible pains across the small of my back. I would have to stay in bed for three days at a time and could not do any work. I tried several remedies but of no avail, and also plasters but they were of no use.

One day a neighbor of mine advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I was so much discouraged I told him I was tired of trying remedies, but he urged me to try one box so I purchased one, and before I was through using it, I found a change for the better so I got five boxes more, and I have had no trouble with my kidneys since. I would not be without Doan's Pills in my house."

It is really not difficult to cure kidney trouble in its first stages. All you have to do is to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial. They are a never-failing cure for all forms of kidney trouble. They quickly relieve the conjested, overworked kidneys, and gradually bring them back to health.

Doan's Kidney Pills 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

To Fit OR Not to Fit

EMMANUEL, GOD WITH US

But again, when we forfeited every right to the divine favour, God loved us and was so intensely interested in us that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. Now is that all. We have been redeemed, not by corruptible things such as silver and gold, but by the precious blood of Christ. If this be so, nothing that you and I possess is our own, but belongs to God. That being so, what right have you and I to be false, untrue, unholy, and exert an influence which has a tendency to corrupt society? But this is not the worst of it. We use powers that belong to God, and intended for nobler purposes, to thwart His purposes and bring dishonor upon His name. So you see you and I are under obligation to be good, because we are not our own, but are bought with a price. But may it not be pressed a little further? May we not say that we owe it to our families to be good? Where we are exerting influence every moment upon one another, have we any right to take these powers which belong to God and which we know through Him can be used for good, and make them the means of exerting influence to lead our brothers and sisters, our husbands and our wives away from that which is true and pure and Christ-like? By all the sacred ties of home you and I are under obligation to be Christians. Carry it yet a little further. Is it too much to say that you and I are under obligation to Charlottetown, to be true and noble men and women? I think the history of the past puts its finger with tremendous emphasis upon the fact that it is the noble men and women that are saving the city. The day on which Lot went out of Sodom, wealth and social status counted for little. You remember how Abraham pleaded with God to spare the city if there were fifty righteous men in it, and how God said He would. If there could be ten found, he would not destroy it. Righteousness would have saved Sodom, but it was not there. And I am sure you and I will wake up to the fact some day that it is a broader truth than we dream of now, that righteousness exalteth a nation. You may think of it what you will, but I am convinced that the salvation of the British Empire demands that you and I should be good and Christ-like.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

FIRST QUARTER.

WORDS AND WORKS OF JESUS AS RECORDED IN THE GOSPELS.

LESSON V.—FEBRUARY 4.
THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS.
Matt 4. 1-11. Memorize verse 4.

GOLDEN TEXT.

In all points tempted as we are, yet without sin.—Heb. 4. 15.

Time.—Just after events of last lesson: late in A. D. 26.

Place.—An unnamed wilderness, probably the Quarantania of tradition.

INTRODUCTORY.

The greater part of the first thirty years of the life of Jesus was spent at Nazareth. Little is known of the period between his visit to Jerusalem at the age of twelve and the beginning of his public ministry at about thirty (Luke 3. 23), though Matt. 13. 4-58 and Mark 6. 1-5 throw some light on this period. Some time during these years it may be supposed Joseph had died, since he is nowhere mentioned in the later narrative, and Jesus, as the oldest son, had become the head of the family and the main support of his mother, Mary. The advent of the public ministry of Jesus was heralded by the coming of John the Baptist, by whom Jesus himself was baptized in the Jordan, the temptation in the wilderness immediately following the baptism.

EXPLANATORY.

"Then"—Immediately after the events narrated in our last lesson. (Comp. also Matt. 3.) "Let up of the spirit"—The agency of the Holy Spirit is mentioned by each of the synoptists. God not only permits our testing, but himself is instrumental in bringing about such testings. "The devil"—The word translated devil means literally slanderer, and is sometimes applied to men; but when preceded by the article (the slanderer) it refers always to Satan.

2. "He was afterward an hungred"—During the long fast, his mind being wholly centered on other and higher things, Jesus seems to have been oblivious to the needs of the flesh, but the period of meditation and, we believe, of prayer, being ended, these needs burst with unusual force upon his consciousness, and thus furnish many a point of contact for his temptation.

3. "And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be"—A suggestion to the contrary designed to awaken doubt, or, if not doubt, then quick resentment. 'Be made bread"—The temptation is addressed to the appetite: Use thy divine power to satisfy the demands of the flesh.

4. "It is written"—Deut. 8. 3. Israel's forty years of wilderness experience was similar to this experience of Jesus. Israel had not endured the test as did the Christ.

5. "The holy city"—Jerusalem, the city of the passage quoted. The only safe national capital of God's chosen people, and hence to them holy. "Setteth him on a pinnacle"—Literally, "a little wing," hence a projecting elevated portion "of the temple." The particular pinnacle may have been on the roof of one of the temple porches overlooking the deep gorge of the Kedron.

6. "It is written"—Psa. 91. 11, 12. Satan misquotes by omitting a very important clause, "to keep thee in all thy ways," and thereby distorts the meaning guard against like subtle attacks of his even to-day is a profounder knowledge of Scripture. In a duel with swords (even the sword of the Spirit) we must know our weapon and how to use it.

7. "Thou shalt not tempt"—Deut. 6. 16 The verse ends "as ye tempted him in Massah"—that is, by displaying distrust in God and a craving for self-glorification, as did Moses and Aaron on the occasion referred to. (Comp. Num. 20. 7-12.)

8. "All the kingdoms of the world"—As far as the eye could reach. The eye of the mind could, however, penetrate far beyond the horizon in every direction. A temptation of earthly despotism and glory was presented to the mind of Jesus. That the scene of such a temptation should be a high mountain top would be natural.

9. "All these things will I give thee—Luke (4. 6) gives the fuller form of the offer: "All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it." Satan claims the right to dispose of earthly thrones as "Prince of this world." (Luke 4. 6).

10. "Get thee hence."—The limit of endurance is reached in the climax of the temptation. Jesus now assumes the aggressive in the spiritual conflict, and drives the tempter from the field. "Him only shalt thou serve."—A definite command, which if obeyed precludes selfishness, the root of all evil.

11. "Angels came."—Implying that they were not present, though surely they were near at hand, during the temptation. When Satan is not consciously near the child of God must arm and equip himself with the sword of the Spirit for the time which is sure to come when he shall stand alone face to face with the enemy of his soul.

QUESTIONS ON THE LESSON.

What two distinct meanings are applied to the word "temptation" in the New Testament? What does the apostle James say about temptation? (James 1. 13. 14.) Was it possible for Jesus to have fallen? If not, would his temptation have been real? If God cannot be tempted of sin and Jesus was so tempted what does this teach concerning the reality of his human nature? What ground for encouragement does this lesson furnish us in times of temptation? When and at what point does Satan usually attack those whom he seeks to lead astray? Name as many weapons and means of defence as you can which the Christian has at his disposal in every hour of temptation. How much is gained in each separate victory over temptation? May well-meaning people sometimes become unconsciously the tool of the adversary in tempting others? How?

OPERATIONS AVOIDED

Two Grateful Letters from Women Who Avoided Serious Operations.—Many Women Suffering from Like Conditions Will Be Interested.

When a physician tells a woman, suffering from ovarian or womb trouble, that an operation is necessary it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart. As one woman expressed it, when told by her physician that she must undergo an operation, she felt that her death knell had sounded.

Our hospitals are full of women who are there for ovarian or womb operations!

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but such cases are much rarer than is generally supposed, because a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after the doctors had said an operation must be performed. In fact, up to the point where the knife must be used to secure instant relief, this medicine is certain to help.

The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who, by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, have escaped serious operations.

Mrs. Robert Glenn of 434 Marie St., Ottawa, Ont., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so well and widely known that it does not need my recommendation, but I am pleased to add it to the many which you have in its favor. I have suffered untold agonies from ovarian troubles for nearly three years, and the doctors told me that I must undergo an operation, but as I was unwilling to do this, I tried your Vegetable Compound, and I am only too pleased that I did so, for it restored me to perfect health, saving me the pain of an operation and the immense bills attending the same. Pray accept my hearty thanks and best wishes."

Miss Margret Merkley of 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, severe shooting pains through the pelvic organs, cramps, bearing down pains, and an irritable disposition compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said that I had ovarian trouble and ulceration, and advised an operation as my only hope. To this I strongly objected—and I decided as a last resort to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"To my surprise the ulceration healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared, and I am once more strong, vigorous and well; and I cannot express my thanks for what it has done for me."

Ovarian and womb troubles are steadily on the increase among women—and before submitting to an operation every woman should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. for advice.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been curing the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation, ulceration, falling and displacement of the womb, leucorrhœa, irregularities, indigestion and nervous prostration. Any woman who could read the many grateful letters on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office would be convinced of the efficiency of her advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
