COMPLIMENT TO KING'S COUNTY

Elsewhere in this issue we publish the speech given by Mr. James McIsaac, M. P. for Kings in moving the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne.

The selection of Mr. McIsaac for this duty is a distinct compliment to his constituency and to the Province as well as to himself personally.

DREAMING

The Patriot delights in dreaming and telling its dreams. It has a characteristic one in its yesterday's issue.

and the people know, and even the Patriot knows, and Mr. King knows that there is going to be no general election this year.

THE DAY OF RECKONING

The coming session of the Provincial Legislature is being anticipated by the Bell Liberal party with a certain "fearful looking forward to".

Those who were absent when the evil was done and those who to be fought, won or lost during the present session.

As dreams go by contraries, this is a dream founded on the fact that Mr. McKenzie King had forbidden his followers to "pair" in Parliament.

Others' View Points

Many of the peers and baronets who won their titles in the war and have lately been granted supporters to their armorial bearings.

The Philadelphia clergymen who have designed a "moral gown" for women's wear.

But the ministers having exhibited their model moral gown, it remains to see women to adopt it.

A REAL MAN

A real man never talks about what the world owes him.

A real man is just as honest alone in the dark in his own room as he is in public.

A real man is dependable. His simple word is as good as his bible oath.

His more than his promises. A real man honors a woman.

House the other day, when twitted with having accepted the increased indemnity that he had expended.

This is merely given as a hint as to a possible way of escape for those Members of our provincial Legislature.

A possible suggestion for the guidance of some of the members Legislature whose souls were still red with horror at the wickedness of Mr. Roche Lanctot.

and Jimmy Wilde will meet Pote Herman in boxing matches. There will be over 2000 seats.

THE LOBSTER QUESTION

Sir—The Lobster situation as appeared in your columns is not very encouraging for this coming season.

PRUSSIANS DEFEND SINGLE EYE-GLASS

Minister's Anti-Monocle Order Precipitates Avalanche of Abuse.

BERLIN, Feb. 21—An order forbidding the wearing of the monocle by officers and members of the Prussian Police.

The minister described the wearing of the monocle as "an undignified habit" and attributed it to the vanity of officers rather than to any weakness of the eye.

SELF GOVERNMENT FOR EGYPTIANS

LONDON, Feb. 21—Negotiations with the Egyptian government for the conclusion of a treaty according to self-government to Egypt.

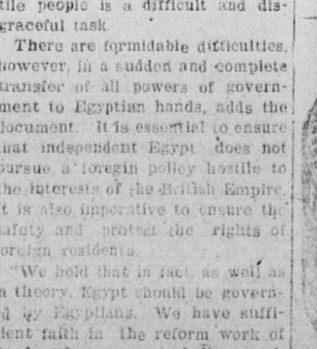

A fulfillment of the promise of self-government cannot be postponed, says the spirit of nationalist Egypt.
