JAPANESE BOMB CANTON, HUNDREDS KILLED

CZECH - GERMAN TENSION IS LESSENED

Nazi - Socialist Group Clash Mars Election

75 Persons Arrested—Sudetens And Government Resume Negotiations.

(C.P. Havas, By Guardian's Special Wire)

PRAHA, May 29—The coalition of three German minority parties made a substantial gain for pro-Nazi leader Konrad Henlein today as disorders between rival German factions in northwest Bohemia marred the tranquility of Czechoslovakia's second weekend of Sunday municipal elections.

Henleinists and German Social Democrats clashed at Eibenburg, near Graslitz in the border zone. One Nazi was seriously injured and three Socialists were slightly hurt before order was restored. Police arrested 75 persons.

In all, 2,367 districts, including 1,152 Czech areas, 501 German, 58 Ruthenian, 22 Slovak and 15 Polish, went to the polls. The third round of balloting will take place June 12.

Thanks to the fusion of the Sudeten, German Agrarian and German Christian Socialist parties, Henlein followers increased their grip in Jablonec, Velbert and Liberec, German-dominated industrial cities, as well as on other communities with heavy German populations.

After the riot, the 75 persons arrested marched to the polls under police guard, the Henleinists with a column of their supporters, and the anti-Nazis with Communist and Social Democrat columns.

Meanwhile Saturday's resumption of talks between the government and German Sudeten spokesmen brought considerable relief to the internal and border tension which threatened last weekend to flare into armed conflict with Germany. In Sudeten circles it was admitted a "strategic retreat" was effect-

Cape Breton Hotel Destroyed By Fire

MARGAREE, N. S., May 29—(CP)—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the Ross Hotel in this Cape Breton village today, with loss estimated at $20,000. The blaze, which burned the three-storey building to the ground was fought by a bucket brigade, the village having no fire apparatus. Proprietor James Ross said his loss was partly covered by insurance.

Charmed With Brief Visit To P. E. I sland

Sir Francis And Lady Floud Honoured Guests At Government Luncheon On Saturday.

"If Canada will rise to the height of her destiny she can make a contribution to the appeasement of the whole world, which will be more effective coming from her than any other contribution at the present time," declared Sir Francis Floud, K.C.B., retiring High Commissioner in Canada for the United Kingdom, in the course of an inspiring address at a luncheon in the Canadian National Hotel on Saturday.

"I feel," Sir Francis said, "that you in Prince Edward Island, in common with your fellow citizens in different parts of Canada, have an opportunity at this moment of making a most notable contribution to the peace and prosperity of the whole world."

The luncheon, which was given by the Provincial Government in honour of Sir Francis and Lady Floud, was largely attended.

The hope that some modification of the embargo against Canadian potatoes entering the United Kingdom would be considered, was expressed by Hon. Thane A. Campbell, who presided, and who extended a cordial welcome to the distinguished visitors on behalf of the Province.

Seated with the Premier and Mrs. Campbell and Sir Francis and Lady Floud at the centre table were His Honour Lieutenant Governor DeBlois and Mrs. DeBlois, Hon. John E. Sinclair, Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault and Mrs. Arsenault Dr. Thomas Grant, MP., and Mrs. Grant.

Lady Floud, who paid charming compliments to the Island in a brief speech at the close of the function, was presented by the Government with a magnificent basket of roses.

The artistic place-cards at the centre table were painted by Miss Helen Grant.

Music during the luncheon was furnished by Mr. Harry Gomez's orchestra.

Delighted With Island

"We have now been in Canada three and one-half years," Sir Francis said, "and I am ashamed

Honor Memory Of Island Officr At Corps Reunion

SAINT JOHN, N. B., May 29—(CP)—The first reunion of the 140th battalion, Canadian expeditionary force, was held here Saturday night. By coincidence, the number of officers and men attending was 140.

Guest speakers were Lieutenant-Governor Murray MacLaren who commanded no. 1 Canadian General Hospital in France during the war; his nephew, Mayor D. L. MacLaren, who lost a leg at the front, and Brigadier L. F. Page, D.S.O., officer commanding military district no. 7.

The veterans observed periods of silence in tribute to fallen comrades and to the memory of Lieut.-Col. L. H. Beer, Charlottetown officer who fought with the Strathcona Horse in the first Canadian contingent before returning to command the 140th. and who died at Ottawa last August.

Revolt In Mexican State Is Crushed

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mexico, May 29—(AP)—Government spokesmen declared today San Luis Potosi State was "virtually restored to normal" following the revolt May 20 of General Saturnino Cedillo.

Cedillo, with a handful of followers, was sought in brush-covered country northwest of this state capital and in the mountains north and east of Las Palomas, the estate he left to head the rebellion against President Lazaro Cardenas.

His two airplanes were in Government hands and his forces were diminishing. Army officers estimated his supporters dwindled to scattered bands numbering 1,000 men at the most.

Quebec School Is Gutted By Blaze

STANSTEAD, Que., May 29—(CP)—Senior grade students at Stanstead Wesleyan College will continue regular classes and no change will be made in scheduled examinations as a result of Saturday's $100,000 fire which gutted dormitories, classrooms and administration offices in the institution's main building, principal E. C. Amaron said today.

Caused by a chimney fire, the noon-time blaze raced rapidly through the 66-year-old building and was soon out of control.

British Air Might Displayed Saturday Before Thousands

(C.P. Havas, By Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, May 29—Great Britain displayed its strength in the air before thousands that flocked despite heavy downpours Saturday to observe Empire Air Day at more than 100 airfields in the United Kingdom.

They saw the latest models of what Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain has called Britain's "formidable war machine" in spectacular mass displays of all phases of aerial warfare.

Sir Kingsley Wood, Britain's new Air Secretary, accompanied by Air Marshal Sir Cyril Newall, visited the Hendon Airdrome training school for mechanics at Camp Halton, the military centre at Oldham, the technical centre at South Farnborough and the military bases at North Kenley and Biggin Hill.

High light of the day was the first public demonstration of the gigantic "balloon barrage" at Cardington which was regarded as a distinct success. Sixteen units of the barrage, the latest wrinkle in metropolitan air defences, were effectively set up to demonstrate how unwary enemy planes may be trapped in the event of an air raid on London.

300 Passengers Rescued From Sinking Ship

Excursion Boat Sunk In Collision With Steamship In New York Harbor.

NEW YORK, May 29—(AP)—The excursion boat Mandalay and the Steamship Acadia collided in a fog on the lower bay Saturday night, the Mandalay sinking a few minutes after her several hundred passengers and crew were transferred safely to the other boat.

The Mandalay was returning from a trip to Atlantic Highlands, N. J., just outside New York Harbor. The Acadia, a frequent caller at Nova Scotian ports, was bound for Bermuda with about 100 passengers.

The Acadia buried her prow more than 15 feet into the starboard side of the excursion boat, crashing into the dance floor and engine room.

A Mandalay sailor immediately jumped across to the Acadia and made fast a rope, and the passengers were helped across by the crews of both ships.

Quick Transfer

Witnesses said it took about 10 minutes to transfer an estimated 300 passengers. The Mandalay, built in 1899, sank a few minutes later in about 30 feet of water, with

Unity Plea Voiced At I.O.D.E. Meeting

VANCOUVER, May 29—(CP)—The 38th annual meeting of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire was officially under way today. At the opening ceremonies last night Mrs. W. G. Lumbers of Toronto, national president, pleaded for unity within the Empire and the Dominion.

Tomorrow actual business sessions of the convention will begin. Committee meetings were held Friday and Saturday, and today delegates attended a service of intercession at Christ Church Cathedral and laid a wreath on the cenotaph in Victory Square.

Mrs. Lumbers spoke after delegates heard greetings sent by Lady Tweedsmuir, wife of the Governor-General, and from Lieutenant-Governor Eric W. Hamber and civic officials.

Lady Tweedsmuir expressed admiration for the I.O.D.E.'s "courage and enthusiasm in attacking the difficult problems of the day" in wishing the delegates "a successful convention."

S. C. M. Camp At Wolfville Opens

WOLFVILLE, N. S., May 29—(CP)—Student delegates from Maritime colleges gathered in this Annapolis Valley town over the weekend as the annual camp of the Student Christian Movement opened at Acadia University. The camp is under the direction of Katherine Hockin, Halifax, Maritime S. C. M. secretary.

Activities opened today with a church service conducted by Gertrude Rutherford principal of the United Church training school, Toronto. Later a discussion on "Revolutionary Religion—The Isms," was led by Norville Luck, secretary of the Charlottetown Y.M.C.A.

The leaders who are attending the camp include: Rev. Arthur Organ, minister of centenary United Church, Saint John, N. B.; Rev. J. Linton, minister of George Street Baptist Church, Fredericton.

Find Body Of Long - missing Peter Levine

Wire-bound Torso Identified By Detectives By Means Of Clothing.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., May 29—(AP)—The wire-bound body of long-missing Peter Levine—head, hands and feet missing—was found and identified by detectives tonight on the shore of the estate of Louis Iselin on Davenport Neck, Long Island Sound.

The body was hardly more than a mass of decomposed flesh and a few bones but Detectives Edwin Gleason and Michael Lynch said enough of the lad's clothing remained to make identification possible.

Helmer Strong, 47 a yacht captan employed by Mrs. Iselin, was standing on the shore when, he said, a due east wind blew the body landward and lodged it against a rock. He immediately spread the news and officers were on the scene in a short while.

Missing Three Months

The boy, son of Murray Levine a Fifth Avenue, New York, attorney, disappeared from his home here Feb. 24 after leaving school.

Almost immediately, the father received a note demnding $60.000 ransom but payment of the money was never made.

The body was taken to the George T. Day's Memorial, an Undertaking establishment, where officers began an immediate examination.

Gleason said a strong copper wire was found about the torso, part of it binding down the remains of one arm. He said he believed the kidnapper, after failure to contact Levine had become panicky, bound the boy and thrown him into the water.

There was no indication immediately, he said, that death occurred before immersion but an autopsy was ordered to determine this.

The boy's father was not at home at the time. A servant said Levine was en route to Chappaqua in Upper Westchester Country on an undetermined mission.

Deposed Austrian Chancellor Spirited Away By Gestapo

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

VIENNA, May 29—Eye witnesses reported today German secret police had spirited Kurt Von Schuschnigg, deposed Austrian Chancellor, out of Vienna's Belvedere Castle to "somewhere north."

These reports said the journey began early Saturday with Von Schuschnigg in one of three closed automobiles manned by the Gestapo.

A half hour later, Von Schuschnigg's fiancee, 34-year-old Countess Vera Fugger Von Babentausen, and her father, a retired Austrian officer, also set out northward with luggage packed in two cars.

All police were removed from the castle today and neighbors said the home which Von Schuschnigg had occupied as Chancellor before the March 13 anschluss must be emptied by next Tuesday.

Apple Blossom Queen Crowned

KENTVILLE, N. S., May 29—(CP)—Carmelita Kinley of the Annapolis Valley town of Wolfville was crowned queen of the 6th annual Apple Blossom Festival here today by Premier Angus L. Macdonald. The ceremony was held in picturesque Grand Pre Park, where scores of French Acadians are buried, made famous by Longfellow in his "Evangeline."

George Bouchard, federal member for Kamouraska, Que., delivered a message from the French Canadians living along the banks of the St. Lawrence to the French Acadians of Nova Scotia.

Rescue Workers Machine-gunned In Second Attack

2,000 Civilians Reported Killed Or Wounded In Raids On South China's Largest City.

CANTON, China, May 29—(CP)—Forty Japanese bombers attacked Canton, South China's largest city, today, killing 250 civilians and wounding an estimated 500 others.

The second series of attacks in 48 hours brought the toll of weekend casualties to more than 2,000 with nearly half of the victims killed by bomb fragments and fallen buildings.

Direct hits were scored in the populous native quarters around Wongsha Station, the municipal buildings and in Central Park which was thronged with hundreds of women and children made homeless by Saturday's bombing.

(A dispatch to Shanghai said casualties in Saturday's bombing were officially estimated by Chinese authorities as 600 killed and 900 injured).

Chinese declared the Japanese fliers today zoomed close to the ground to machine-gun rescue workers seeking to extricate yesterday's dead and wounded from blasted dwellings.

Scores of these workers were killed and wounded, Chinese stated.

RAILWAY STATION TARGET

About 30 planes made Saturday's series of raids, bombing the congested Wongsha Railway Station district four times, demolishing 200 houses near the station.

Squads of armed volunteers guarded the gates of the International Settlement—the Shameen quarter—against an overwhelming influx of refugees after hundreds of Chinese men, women and children were admitted to the quarter. At the time the city was shaking under impact of Japanese bombs.

The Saturday raiders also bombarded the central district in the vicinity of the mayor's office and the Tungstan suburban district where many of Canton's foreign residents formerly lived.

After the bombardment Saturday planes returned to the Wongsha district and, flying low over the wrecked buildings, machine-gunned rescue workers. Forty were reported killed and 50 injured.

More than 100 bombs, including many incendiary, were dropped on the city.

A special train transporting 300 British sailors to inland Chinese points arrived here safely after today's raid. The sailors are scheduled to relieve crews of British gunboats on the Yangtse River.

Chinese Claim Successes

SHANGHAI, May 30—(Monday)—Three regiments of the famous Japanese 14th division under Lieut. General Kenji Dodihara, Japan's "Lawrence of Manchuria", were reported today to have been encircled by counter-attacking Chinese northwest of Lanfeng.

With the encirclement completed in as sanguinary fighting as any of the war, the Chinese hoped to block the drive on Chengchow, junction of the east-west Lunghai and north-south Peiping-Hankow railways or levy a terrible price for that approach to Hankow.

Entrenched in three villages northwest of Lanfeng and well within 100 miles of the railway junction where they planned to wheel south for assault on the provisional Chinese capital, the Japanese fiercely fought off Chinese counter attacks.

The Japanese, suddenly turned from attack to defence, awaited the arrival of reinforcements being rushed from Kweiteh as their principal hope of cracking the Chinese ring.

The Japanese insisted several Chinese attacks had been repulsed, including an assault by a strong column which crossed the Yellow River to jab at the flank of Doihara's forces.

S. O. E. Annual Church Parade Held Yesterday

The annual church parade of the Sons of England Society was held to St. James Presbyterian Church yesterday where an inspiring sermon was preached by the Rev. T. Owen Hughes of Montague. Approximately 50 members of the organization were in attendance. The parade was marshalled by James Ford. Route of march to the Church, from the Hall on Richmond Street, was by way of Queen, Kent and Pownal Streets while the return was made by Pownal, Euston, Queen and Richmond Streets.

The procession was led by the Society Pipe Band with pipers, Major Joseph Duncan, Percy Groom and Albert MacLeod; kettle drum, Matthew Duncan, Edward Garnhum; base drum Wallace Scantlebury.

The Rev. Mr Hughes extended warm welcome to visiting organizations on behalf of the minister of the Kirk and the Session. His inspiring sermon was on "My Gospel", based on the text Romans 2:16.

At this service the St. James Choir members wore red roses in honor of the Society.

Quints Fourth Birthday Is Quiet, Happy Family Affair

(By Ormo Tongue)
(Canadian Press Correspondent)

CALLANDER, Ont., May 28—The Dionne quintuplets call him "grand-pere" but the public knows nothing of him. Fame has passed Moise Legros by.

The most of admirers who have delved into practically every nook of the quints' background have overlooked the honest, hard-working farmer who lives quietly near Corbeil, 2 1-2 miles from the quints' home.

Completely disassociated from the exciting events which followed the birth of the quintuplets, the 62 year old farmer will take no part in the celebration of their fourth birthday.

In fact, he hasn't seen his daughter Elzire's children since he joined a flock of tourists and watched them through a glass screen "last fall." He has seen them only three or four times since their birth and has never seen a motion picture of them.

It isn't that he isn't proud of "les petites jumelles," he says; "they're pretty, aren't they?" But Moise Legros asks favors of no one. He will wait for an invitation before he enters the Dafoe nursery or even sees his daughter's youngest child, Rene, who was born April 4.

This quint grandfather brings a refreshing note to a situation so fraught with controversy as that which surrounds the famous five. He is proud of their beauty and wealth but has never intervened in their astounding careers, never tried to make a nickel out of his relationship to them.

His home is unchanged since their birth. Instead of "no admittance" signs on his fence, his name is plainly indicated in the tin mail receptable familiar to rural mail routes.

Fatally Injured In Moncton Accident

MONCTON, N. B., May 29—(CP)—After Clarence Gallant's five-year-old daughter strayed away from home he borrowed a bicycle, went looking for her and met death.

Injured Friday night in a collision with a car operated by Leo LeBlanc, Gardner, Mass., Gallant died yesterday. Inquiry by a coroner's jury was opened and will continue Tuesday.

Gallant, 30, is survived by his wife and three children, including the girl who returned home Friday night.

The accident occurred at the corner of Belleview Avenue and Mountain Road. With LeBlanc at the time was William Bedard, also of Gardner. They are remaining here for the inquest.

Insurgents Push Forward In Drive Towards Valencia

HENDAYE, France, May 29—(AP)—Heavy Insurgent assaults on the inland extremity of the Teruel-to-the-sea line shattered Spanish Government defences today giving the attackers a firm foothold on the road to the coast and Valencia.

An Insurgent column, marching five miles south from Teruel, took possession of the village of Aldehuela, then wheeled to the east against Government forces clinging to mountainous positions near Puerto Escandon.

Capture of Puerto Escandon, 11 miles southeast of Teruel and 50 miles northwest of Segunto, on the coast between Castellon de La Plana and Valencia, was reported yesterday.

Co-operating with the column from Teruel, another force descended from rocky heights north of Puerto Escandon on the defenders' flank.

The Government troops fell back along the highway and paralleling railway to set up new defences between Puerto Escandon and La Puebla de Valverde, seven miles to the southeast.

Renewed Government attacks on the middle Catalonian front were reported thrown back.

A dispatch from Zaragoza said the Government was concentrating fresh forces for assault on a bridgehead at the Segre River near Balaguer and on Tremp, Catalonian hydroelectric centre.

Insurgents said the week-old offensive both at Tremp and Balaguer had been futile despite the efficiency of the attackers' artillery. Insurgents declared the artillerymen were French, commanded by French officers.
