Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in the Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those who have a regular advertising account.

The Canadian Magazine for August is light and gay, being composed mostly of illustrated travel and outgoing articles and short stories. In fiction it is particularly strong, the feature being a complete novelette by the popular writers Alice and Claude Askew, entitled "Elizabeth's Lover." Besides the novelette there are capital short stories by N. de Bertrand Langrin, H. A. Cody, Gower Glynn and Bradford K. Daniels. The leading article deals with the Indian tribes of Labrador, and is well illustrated. The author is Clifford H. Easton, who accompanied the late Leonidas Hubbard to that frozen region of the North, and therefore had excellent opportunity to study the native tribes. Other illustrated articles are "Encouraging Native Handicrafts" by Katherine Reid, "A Poacher of Renown" by E. Hickson, being an account of poaching on salmon-fishing preserves in New Brunswick, and "The Crab Fisheries" by Bonnycastle Dale. Altogether the number is most reasonable.

Appropriately prepared for holiday reading, and possessing a nice balance between the gay and the serious, the August number of Busy Man's Magazine will be found both reasonable and appetizing. It is full of good things from cover to cover. A graphic character sketch of Sir William Macdonald, and what this well-known Canadian millionaire philanthropist is doing for practical education, will be read with interest, as well as other original contributions, including "The Inside vs. the Outside Man. The Importance of Secondary Education, and Fitting Young People for Life's Battles. Among the selections from the leading magazines of the world are the following bright and comprehensive contributions: Great Achievements of Men Over Sixty, My Voyage in the World's Greatest Airship, King Edward Entirely Out of Debt, Why Some Women Never Marry, Business Men is Country's Best Citizen, The City Man as a Farmer, The Most Exclusive Club in the World, No Sport to Equal Mountaineering, etc. There is also a generous instalment of bright, readable stories in the August issue of Busy Man's, which is admirably illustrated and presents an exceptionally attractive appearance.

Fred and Mrs. Ryan of Sackville, left yesterday morning for their home after a very pleasant visit to this city.

Miss Ethel Blanchard of Charlottetown, is visiting Miss Adele Larny, 168 Prince William Street, St. John.

J. A. McGrath arrived Tuesday from Halifax to begin surveying operations on the proposed Elmira branch of railway.

Miss Christina MacNeill, her mother Mrs. MacNeill and her aunt Miss Simpson left this city yesterday en route for Vancouver, etc. Before leaving this province they are spending a week at Bay View visiting friends there.

Among those leaving the city yesterday were: H. M. and J. C. Sprague to Springhill, N. S., Wm. Hughes, Dalvey, to New Glasgow, N. S., T. C. and Mrs. James to Sackville, Miss Patience Rowe on a visit to Lake Moxie, Me.

Frank Sterns, son of A. W. Sterns, city, who has been spending three weeks here, left yesterday on return to Washington, D. C. Mr. Sterns expects to soon take up engineering work in connection with the Panama Canal construction.

Dr. J. C. Ballem of Union, Dr. Wm. P. McMillan of Kinkora, Dr. Ira Yeo of Charlottetown, Dr. Taunton of Summerside, Dr. McLeod of Hunter River and Dr. McArthur of Wiltshire are now taking the professional examinations before the Medical Council.

Rev. T. E. Cullen, son of the late Patrick Cullen of this city, who is now pastor of the Pro. Cathedral in Minneapolis, Minn., is on a visit to this province. His parishioners are building a new cathedral there at a cost of $700,000. His chief assistant is also an Island man Rev. James Donahoe formerly of Cardigan.

In St. John, N. B., nine householders have been summoned by the board of health to attend in the police court next Monday. The complaint against them is that they have neglected spring cleaning around their homes. This speaks well for the St. John officials looking after their city, and might be effective of good results in Charlottetown where premises are not kept in a healthy condition.

A large congregation was present at the re-opening service held in the English Church at Southport Tuesday. This church has been closed for many years and all the windows had been broken by thoughtless boys. These have been replaced, and with some little repairs to the roof and painting this little church will be pretty and attractive. The service was taken by J. F. Tupper and Harold Boulden, the former preaching an earnest sermon.

The wrecked crew is hard at work on the steamer Lady Ellen in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, which steamer is well known in this port. On Tuesday they left her off the rocks at New Port Island and she is now lying in twenty-two feet of water on an even keel. Divers are now endeavoring to make temporary repairs, when the water will be forced out by compressed air and the vessel floated if possible. The manager of the undertaking is confident.

As will be seen by the advertising claims the boot and shoe business lately conducted by Sprague & Co. of this city has been bought by D. Gordon who will continue it at the old stand. Mr. Gordon is well and favorably known all over the province, having been engaged in business in Charlottetown for over twenty years. The services of Victor Parry have been retained in the practical department. He has had eight years experience and thoroughly understands every detail of the trade. The Guardian wishes the new firm every success.

Saved $55.00

A MAGNET user wrote us that he wanted to get a larger size owing to the increased number of cows in his dairy. We informed him that he did not require to change his machine that his present one would do and that we could increase the capacity by changing the sifting device in his present bowl, which would only cost him a few dollars.

We made the change and after a full trial he writes us: "I am more pleased than ever with my MAGNET it skims the increased quantity, turning as easy as it did before, and cost me just $55.00 less than my neighbor paid for exchanging his small machine for a larger one; of course his was not a MAGNET, and the whole machine had to be changed."

C. C. Diefenbacher of Hawkesville, Ont. writes us on June 6th 1907.

"I have used a MAGNET in my dairy over eight years. Never missed a skimming and no cost for repairs. Takes all the butter fat out and turns easy. I like the double support to the bowl. The square gear suites me. Would not buy a worm gear machine at any price."

Desiring to get a larger machine, I was glad to find it was not necessary to get a new machine, and that I could get the capacity of the present MAGNET increased at the cost of a few dollars, which I have now done and it is running fine.

Remember the MAGNET Cream Separator will not wear out in fifty years' use.
