

No Cough

Have not coughed once all day? Yet you may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a doctor's medicine right at hand.

When You Purchase A Wellner Watch

You get a watch that is finished through out equal to others that cost twice as much. As a timekeeper you only need ask those who carry a "Wellner Watch." Drop in and have a look at them. We will show you their points of superiority.

W. W. WELLNER, Jeweller.

Now is a splendid time to have those pictures taken. The holiday rush is over, so we can take plenty of time to get acquainted and bring out your best points.

That line of handsome, large white American Crochet Counterpane that we are selling at 1.49 is a really remarkable value. Certainly the best thing for any where near the price that is shown in Charlottetown. Moore & McLeod. 2-15dtf

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Mrs Geo Clark, Hillsboro Street, is very ill of paralysis.

J. Daniel Mitchell, Village Green, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Lona Gay, Village Green, is visiting in Cherry Valley the guest of William and Mrs Judson.

R. C. Lea, Tryon, was a passenger from Charlottetown to Summerside, yesterday where he will spend several days with friends.

Mrs John Howatt and her son, Brenton, who have been spending a few days in the City returned home yesterday. They were accompanied by Mrs (Rev) W. A. Thomson.

Everyone should attend the tea and sale in the Y.M.C.A. on Thursday and in this way help build a new Sunday school. Tea and admission will be only twenty-five cents.

Miss Helen Moran, St. Martin's, who has been for the past month a guest at the home of Rev. S. H. Cornwall, Lewisville, returned home Tuesday.—St. John Telegraph. Mr. Cornwall is well known here.

School Inspector G. J. McCormac of this city conducts an educational column in the Weekly Globe of Toronto under the heading, "The School." In the last issue he has a good article, entitled, "Is Teaching a Business?"

At the Revere Hotel yesterday the following were registered: A. W. Phillips, Regina; J. J. and Mrs. Larabee, Eldon; H. H. Dryden, Sussex; G. R. Keefe, Souris; Edmund R. McDougall, Bangor; David Bell, Stanley; J. E. Cumming, Montague; N. Gay, Pownall; J. A. Barrett, Mt Stewart.

Sir Louis and Lady Davies' dinner party last week was also for Lady Lansborough. Among others invited to meet her were the Archbishop of Ottawa and Mrs. Hamilton, Hon. Clifford and Mrs. Sifton, Mrs. Collingwood Schrieber, Hon. Sydney Fisher and others.—Ottawa exchange.

The members and friends of the Vernon River Methodist Church are anxious among other things to renovate their Church in the coming spring and several efforts will be made to secure this. Among others on Thursday, Feb. 17th, the pastor, Rev. George Orman, will lecture. Admission ten cents.

Seldom has an amusement been more pleasantly anticipated or more thoroughly enjoyed than was the firemen's carnival, on Friday evening, in Sackville. The ice was in fine condition and there were a large number of skaters. The costumes were pretty, original and grotesque, making the scene quite picturesque. The judges were Mrs. A. B. Copp, Mrs. A. E. Jubien and A. G. Putnam, formerly of this city.

On Feb. 9th inst. after a long illness patiently borne, there fell asleep at her home at Malpo, on Road, Catherine, relict of the late James Pickard, who predeceased her seven months. Two daughters, Mrs G. W. Cumming, Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Capt P. Murchison, also, two sons Ernest and Frank at home, are left to mourn. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon to the People's Cemetery, Rev. William Harrison conducting the services.

St. Charles Catholic Church was the scene of a double wedding yesterday morning, when Rev. Father Berne united in marriage Miss Mary Hashie and Jeremiah Gallant, photographer, also Miss Susanna Power to Steven Boylen of the Robb Engineering Company. Miss Hashie was attired in a gown of blue with hat to match, while Miss Power wore pearl grey with hat to match. After the ceremony the newly married couples drove to the residence of Overy Legere, where a wedding breakfast was served and music furnished. They then left for a brief wedding trip to New Brunswick. The brides were the recipients of numerous presents.—Amherst News. Mr. and Mrs. Boylen belong to Charlottetown.

"British Almond Pink," an "ideal" preparation for chapped hands and roughened skin. As a face lotion and "after shave," it ranks with the very best. Prepared and sold at 25 cents a bottle by A. W. Reddin, Phm. B., Central Drugstore.

The members of the reading circle met on Monday evening in Sackville, N. B., at the home of Mrs. Desbarres, and the attendance was very large. The subject for study was Central America and the West Indies. Mrs. Lucas presided and gave a most interesting and instructive address on the study and at the close she gave an outline of the work done by her husband, Rev. Aquilla Lucas, who is now in the West Indies.—St. John Telegraph. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas are well known here.

The many orders for portraits and frames, which S. F. Turbush expected to deliver to his customers through different parts of the country in November and December last, are still waiting for his recovery before they can be delivered. While on his trip he took a sudden attack of lumbago. He was better for a few days in January, when the soft wet weather brought on sciatica, and since then he has suffered almost continually for days at a time not able to leave his door. No doubt his many different customers will be only too pleased to wait with pleasure for his recovery, when he will lose no time in delivering every order.
