

ONE MINUTE NEWS ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE

WAS WINTER WEAR TOUGH ON HOME?

After a tough winter, perhaps your home could stand a few repairs—perhaps the outside walls need fixing up. If so, take a tip from thousands of wise homeowners and use Johns-Manville Cedar-grains—the famous asbestos-cement siding shingles which are fireproof, weatherproof and rot-proof. They cost little to apply and ensure lasting protection against the hazards of fire, weather and wear.

J-M "Cedargrains" match the beauty and texture of the finest wood shingles and greatly enhance the appearance and value of your home. They can be applied right over old exterior walls of clapboard, wood shingles or stucco. And they're ideal for new building too.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY—The funeral of the late Mrs. Stanley Keizer was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence at Grand Tracade. The service at the home and grave was conducted by the Rev. J. H. MacCallum. The pallbearers were John P. Watts, Mr. Buell, William W. Clow, Parnell Curran, Joseph MacDonald, Alex. Watts. Interment was in Donaldson Cemetery.

PERSONALS

Mr. David Cornish, Summerside, was the guest of Mrs. Champlion, Longworth Ave. over the weekend.

Miss Verna Newman, Hunter River, spent the week end in Brookfield, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Matheson.

Mrs. Heath M. Chisholm and Mrs. Clayton Thomas, North Tryon, left Thursday for Campbellton, N. B., and Montreal, for Easter.

Miss Marion Ford, Winsloe North is visiting in Brookfield the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stewart.

Mrs. Horace Hyde, Providence, Rhode Island, returned on Saturday to her former home in Murray Harbour, where she will reside in future. On her return from Providence, Mrs. Hyde visited her friends' relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hyde, School Street, Charlottetown, before leaving for Murray Harbour.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Unusually large congregations attended the Easter Sunday services at Trinity United Church. Both the morning and evening services were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. T. E. McLennan. The "Crucifixion" by Staindang by the church choir at Good Friday's services, was repeated yesterday evening.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

A new gold-plated Communion Service with sterling base was dedicated at yesterday morning's Easter service at St. Paul's Anglican Church. The Communion Service, consisting of chalice, paten, and bread box, was dedicated to the Church by the late Helen A. Grant.

Both morning services, one at 8 o'clock and the other at 11, were conducted by the Rector, the Rev. J. T. Ibbott. In the evening there was a carol service. All three services were attended by unusually large congregations.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Services in Central Christian Church on the Lord's day were under the direction of the Minister, Mr. M.D. Dunbar. Music was provided by both the Senior and Junior Chorus and was under the direction of Mr. Paul Cummore, organist pro tem. Taking for his morning topic, "Mary's Midnight turned to Morning", Mr. Dunbar brought a heart searching Easter message bearing upon the Resurrection story. The supporting scripture used was Amos 5:8 "Seek him that maketh the Pleiades and the Orion and turneth the shadow of death into the morning."

The sermon of the evening was presented by Mr. Frank Rempel, missionary enroute to India, on the subject "It is Later than You Think." Taking for his text Romans 13:11 "And this knowing the season, that already it is time for you to awake out of sleep, for now is salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night is far spent and the day is at hand." Using the figure of a large clock which represented "Time", Mr. Rempel located upon the face of this great dial three periods of world history. The Patriarchal age was represented as the first figure at the four o'clock hour; the Mosiac age represented in the eight o'clock position; and the Christian era represented by the eight to twelve period. Mr. Rempel dealt in some detail with each of the outstanding events which found culmination in each of these periods of time and emphasized in a gripping way the urgency to lay hold on the opportunity of salvation in Christ while time still remains.

In speaking of the final period designated as the Christian dispensation, Mr. Rempel warned that time setting is not within the authority of man but that certain indisputable characteristics of this age mark it as the final one.

The congregation thrilled under the dramatic presentation and hearts were stirred as tributes were paid on this day of days when Christ came forth from the grave. Fine attendances marked the Worship services. Flowers beautified the auditorium placed there by the Ladies Aid and Gracia Club. The Senior Choir sang two beautiful anthems: "It is He that Liveth" and "As Pants the Hart." Communion was served to worshippers at both services on the Lord's day.

Island Born Missionary Describes Need In China

Reverend Cornelius Pineau, S.J., pictured above, a missionary in China was born in Rustico in 1908. He is the son of Theophilus Pineau, presently of North Rustico. The picture on the left was taken on his departure for China in 1935, and the one on the right in 1947, after spending 17 months in a Japanese concentration camp.

Excerpts from some of his recent letters are as follows: "Communists have just destroyed one of our best colleges, practically a new building, the loss is approximately $100,000." "Our missions are from time to time pillaged by the Communists." "Persecution has always been the daily bread of the Church and I guess there must be someone to eat it, but it seems untimely, it always does." "China has an even greater need of God than of UNRRA supplies." "A parcel sent by Mary from New York City some time ago has cost us customs duty $80,000 in Chinese funds. It is best to send contributions with missionaries coming to China."

A personal friend of Father Pineau, Reverend Father Bourassa, S.J., who has been spending a year in Canada to regain his health is returning to China in May, and would bring with him any gifts or offerings which relatives and friends wish to send him. Those who desire to contribute may send their offering to Father Pineau's sister, Reverend Sister S. Theodore, Notre Dame Congregation, South Rustico, P. E. I., not later than April 15th.

The four pair of nylon stockings, so kindly donated by Mrs. N. H. DeBlais for the girls selling the most tags, were won by Sandra Watson, Eleanor Storey, Margaret Wheatley and Elaine Gill. Sincere thanks are extended to all who helped in any way, to Mr. N. H. DeBlais and to R. T. Holman Ltd. for many courtesies shown.

CATHOLIC CHURCHES

Pontifical High Mass was celebrated yesterday at St. Dunstan's Basilica by His Excellency, the Most Reverend James Boyle, Bishop of Charlottetown, assisted by Right Reverend R. V. MacKenzie as High Priest, Reverends George MacDonald and J. W. McCurdy as Deacons of Honour, Rev. Dr. Ellsworth as Deacon of the Mass, and Rev. J. A. Sullivan as sub-deacon. The Rev. Dr. P. McMahon, Rector of the Basilica, was Master of Ceremonies. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Bernard Quinn, O. S. I., Holman Ltd., for many courtesies shown.

Father Quinn concluded his Lenten series of sermons at the Basilica at the seven o'clock service. The Reverend E. Baldwin, C. S. S. R., celebrated Solemn High Mass at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer yesterday morning. He was assisted by the Rev. R. Baines as Deacon and the Rev. W. Mann as sub-Deacon.

that spun and glittered in the bright sunlight. Thousands of outstretched hands received them.

Again and again the Pope had to pause as a plane roared overhead or the cheers of the multitude drowned the words of his strong voice.

The var-colored leaflets dropped by the planes included prayers. Thousands had only the letter "V" which has been claimed by all political parties and is variously interpreted to mean vote, victory, and vita (life).

The one that drew the greatest attention was a red star with the face of Italy's patriot, Giuseppe Garibaldi, which has been made the emblem of the Communist-dominated Popular Front.

"Turn this around and you will see the cross," said a sentence in tiny print. Turned around, Garibaldi became a glowering, fierce-faced Stalin.

trying to straighten out the tangle of lead-up power, telephone and telegraph wires.

I am writing this now at the transmitter of Marcel Dorais, station VELE, at Cap Rouge, about six miles from downtown Quebec and our contact with Montreal is by print. Station VESEA, Waugh and Dorais, old chums in the air, were radar officers with the R.C.A.F. and saw long service overseas.

Through their co-operation, then, here is the story of one of the weirdest Easter Sundays old Quebec ever experienced, though the storm was no worse than a similar icing-up on Dec. 8 three years ago.

By Friday night mild weather had cleared the streets of all ice and snow but when the people of the city awakened Saturday there was three-quarters of an inch of

Third Ice Patrol Scheduled Today

The third ice patrol of the current season is scheduled to leave here at 7:30 this morning. It was learned last night, Maritime Central Airways supply the plane for a Department of Transport observer.

Yesterday a plane with H.S. Jones as pilot and Len MacDonald as copilot flew the crew of the wrecked sealing vessel Teazer from Sydney to their homes in the Magdalen Islands. The Sydney Juvenile hockey team, which played here Friday night, was aboard on the flight from here to Sydney.

Today a plane is taking the Charlottetown juveniles to Sydney for the deciding game of the series and is remaining there to bring the team back after the game.

Yesterday's weather kept planes grounded at Charlottetown until the afternoon, then M.C.A. carried out flights to both Moncton and New Glasgow.

Well Known Charlottetown Contractor Dies

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island Hospital on Friday, March 26th, of Elmer H. Foster, prominent Charlottetown contractor, in his fifty-fourth year. Although not in good health for some time, he continued to carry on his work until his sudden illness two weeks ago.

Born at Dunstaffnage, P. E. I., Mr. Foster came to Charlottetown when a young man, where he engaged in the building trade. He later entered into business on his own, and designed and built many fine homes in Charlottetown and surrounding districts, which now stand as monuments to his name.

Several years ago he entered into partnership with Mr. Stanley Bryant, of this city, and carried on in this capacity until his death.

He leaves to mourn his wife, formerly Edith MacKay of Charlottetown; two sons, Eric and Everett; and two daughters, June and Lois, all of Charlottetown; also his mother, Mrs. Amanda Foster of Dunstaffnage; three brothers, Edley of Charlottetown and Harry and John of Dunstaffnage; five sisters, Ella, Mrs. Russell Piskard of Charlottetown; Pearl, Mrs. John MacCracken of Methuen, Mass.; Leah, Mrs. John Bell of Apopka, Florida; Sylvia, Mrs. Charles Ellis of Donaldson and Edith, Mrs. John Welsh of Dunstaffnage.

The Guardian extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Shipwrecked Sealers Made Sure Of Fire

NORTH SYDNEY, N. S., March 28 —(CP)— One thing the crew of the foundered sealer Teazer made sure of when they abandoned ship off St. Paul's Island was that they weren't going to freeze. They took off six bags of coal and heaps of wood.

Capt. Joseph Barry, 29-year-old Milton, Mass., skipper of the Teazer, related this Saturday afternoon from his landing on the icebreaker Saurel, a big meal and a visit to the barber to rid himself of a week-old beard.

The grinding ice split the Teazer from stem to stern at the waterline. The ice held her up for some minutes. When it parted the sealer slid down bow-on.

The shelter the crew erected on the ice to wait out a storm was made from two dories, two sails and 12 pieces of plank.

When the ice got so rough the men could no longer haul the dories, Capt. Barry and mate Herbert McLean went on ahead toward St. Paul's Island, playing their flashlights in front of them to see if there was water between ice and land.

When the pair reached land they flashed back a signal with their flashlights to the rest of the crew. They came straggling over the last patch of jagged ice to safety.

The field of ice the two sealers—the other was the Monica Walters—were trapped in was reported to be 35 miles long and eight miles wide—an area of 280 square miles of grinding, crushing ice.

"It was a pretty rough experience," said Capt. Barry, "one of the toughest in my experience as a sealer."

Youngest crew member aboard the Teazer was Arnold Delaney, 19, making his first sealing trip, and oldest was Edouard Benoit, 52, making his sixth voyage as a hunter. Both are from the Magdalens.

Shaw, Director of Education; and officials of the Canadian Teachers' Federation will address the convention.

Chest X Ray Centre News

The chest X-ray Centre has completed its third week in Charlottetown and over 2,000 persons have had their chest X-ray examinations already.

Almost all of these films have been read by Dr. Creelman or Dr. Found, and several persons have been notified that they have active tuberculosis.

A warning of early tuberculosis always seems to be a catastrophe to the patient. But after a time as he learns more about this disease and talks with other patients he begins to realize that he is fortunate in being able to start treatment with the most favorable prospects for complete recovery. Early this week a large number of persons will receive notification cards asking them to attend the centre. A number of these will be mailed daily until every family in the city has been invited to attend. Everybody who receives these cards is urged to help this community health project by attending as soon as possible.

NOTICE

When the frost is coming out of the ground in the Spring, all roads in the Province, including paved roads, will be closed to heavy vehicular traffic.

This notice is given in order that there may be no misunderstanding, and in order that those who have a large amount of trucking, will arrange their business so that will be no hardship for them to be kept off the roads during the period referred to.

Ch'town Teams Win Two, Lose One At Souris

Saturday evening three teams of Charlottetown youngsters made the trip to Souris where they played a non-title paperweight and Scout and Pee-Wee title matches against Souris teams. The trip to the Eastern centre was made in good time but due to the sleet and icy condition of the road it was necessary to return to the City very carefully and the young hockeyists did not reach their homes until an early hour, Sunday morning.

The first game of the evening saw a lighter Souris Scout Troop take the measure of the 7th. (St. Paul's) Troop, city champions by a score of 7-2. The Souris boys played smart hockey all the way, going into an early lead and from then on never being threatened. This win now gives the Souris boys the right to play off with St. Albert's Troop for the Island Scout title. It is hoped a series or a sudden-death game can be arranged this week to bring Alberton and Souris together to decide this title.

In the second tussle of the evening, Paper Weight Abbies fought their way to a 2-0 victory over the Souris boys by virtue of grabbing two goals in the first period and then holding off the thrusts of their opponents during hectic second and third periods.

The third game of the evening brought together Souris and Parkdale Pee-Wees in a sudden-death game for the Island Pee-Wee title. This game produced good hockey, all the way but Parkdale packed too much wallop for the Eastern boys as they banged in three goals in each of the first and second periods and a seventh tally in the third canto to bring home the Island Pee-Wee title for Parkdale.
