MANY INQUIRIES ABOUT GUARDIAN CAMPAIGN

Big Prize Offer Attracting Attention on All Sides. Because of Value of Premiums Offered to Successful Contestants in Great Race.

The Guardian's automobile prize campaign has met with the approval of an immense number of people, judging from the number of letters of inquiry that are being received by the campaign department. The faintest suspicion as to the genuineness of the campaign is instantly dispelled when on second thought it is considered an enterprising project.

Let Your Friends Know. Candidates, let your friends see that you want to win by having your name appear with the list of candidates. Show them that you are really in earnest by having a few thousand votes against your name. A few thousand votes will be a word of encouragement to your friends and will spur them on to get thousands more for you.

The Popular Feature. Every candidate will receive a prize in accordance with the effort they put forth. The least tendency to pass it by with indifference is arrested when the reader appreciates the quality of the prizes selected and the large expenditures involved. Every one can vote, young or old, men and women, and the votes appear in The Guardian and are clipped and sent in for some one of the candidates. Also votes in large numbers are issued on paid in advance subscriptions and after and the votes the candidates are after and the ones that count the most. This plan broadens the field of the contestants and making possible greater percentage of successful candidates. There is no limitation whatever as to where the candidates may obtain subscriptions. Votes and subscriptions may be gathered from anywhere in the world.

Start Today. Start your efforts today by sending in your application blank, also with

BRITISH CAPTURED PASSCHENDAELE AND NEIGHBORING VILLAGES

This Gives British Command of the German Line of Communication to the Coast Submarine Bases, and When Report was Forwarded They Were Within Five Minutes of the Railroad Centre.

(Canadian Press Despatch) WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FLANDERS, Nov. 7.—British artillery today was bombarding Roulers the key to the German line of communication to the coast submarine bases. Capture of Passchendaele in yesterday's great push brought the British lines to within five minutes of the railroad centre.

PULVERIZING ROULERS. From behind the lines British heavy guns immediately began their pulverizing of Roulers. The bombardment was unceasing today. Capture of Passchendaele and neighboring villages puts the British on the very top of the Passchendaele ridge and without only a small remaining bit of the high land still in the enemy's hands. He was clinging desperately to this today. High American army officers say the British go over the top in the victorious assault.

CANADIAN'S GREAT ACHIEVEMENT (Canadian Press Despatch) CANADIAN HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, via London, November 7.—(By W. A. Willison, special correspondent of the Canadian Press)—In another great advance along their whole front, the Canadians seem to have taken Passchendaele, Goudeand a maelstrom of mud, this action, crowned by the taking of Bellevue, will remain without doubt, so a general told us yesterday, the most brilliant feat of arms of the battle if not of the whole Flanders campaign. With assaulting waves and supporting elements were compelled to withdraw without our artillery for a moment being able to help the reserves, but the Canadians remained

J. F. HYLAND ELECTED MAYOR OF NEW YORK

Received Largest Plurality in History of State Had Support of Tammany Hall and Hears Papers.

NEW YORK, November 7.—John F. Hyland was elected Mayor of New York City by the overwhelming plurality of 142,963. This was his plurality at midnight with 72 election districts in the city missing. This is the largest plurality ever given to a Mayorality candidate in the city's history.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—One of the bitterest political campaigns in this city's history came to a close tonight with the eyes of the nation looking towards New York and because two of the four candidates for Mayor have injected war issues into their campaign makes the outcome of tomorrow's election transcending in interest the usual local controversies.

John Purroy Mitchell, fasten candidate for re-election, has to a large extent subordinated his fight against Tammany Hall by declaring pro-German influences were working to control the complete sympathy with the politics of President Wilson.

Moss Hillquit, Socialist, has campaigned openly as a peace advocate. He has announced his refusal to purchase Liberty Loan bonds and has said frankly that his election must be construed as a mandate to the Federal Government to begin negotiations to terminate the war.

John F. Hyland, Democratic candidate, who has the support of Tammany Hall and the newspapers of William H. Hearst, has disregarded war issues as campaign material except that he has resented imputations against his loyalty, and has based his fight on attacks on the finances, real estate deals, Gary Schaub's and other phases associated with the Mitchell administration of the past four years.

William M. Bennett, who won the Republican nomination at the primaries after a recount reversed the apparent choice of Mitchell, also has dwelt lightly on war affairs and has centered his campaign on Tammany and the Mitchell regime.

Pre-election predictions of victory were made at the headquarters of all four candidates tonight, but the situation was generally conceded so uncertain that these statements were regarded as having been issued for what effect they might have in voters and because such predictions are customary.

and Mosselmarkt. If this is so no more signal triumph has been won in the whole history of Canadian corps. Our division will have more than doubled the old score on St. Julien. Dominating Roulers and Roulers Plain, Passchendaele would give the Allied forces a firm footing on the series of great spurs extending from Gheluvelt, on the south, including Bellevue Spur, and Passchendaele Ridge running north-east for miles. The possession of Passchendaele would mark a triumph in the long struggle to secure possession of this higher ground. It would give the Allies the advantage of position in the salient, and relegate the Boches to the lower levels dominated by our guns.

(Canadian Press Despatch) A wonderful incident then happened. A Colonel passed in front and held high as if on parade. "There is no middle course for us," he cried. "We either press forward or we die." Under a hurricane of death waves of men dashed forward and swept one by one the pill boxes standing in the way obliterating eighteen armoured shelters.

LE MATIN'S TRIBUTE TO CANADIANS

(Canadian Press Despatch) LONDON, Nov. 7.—Le Matin, writing on the capture of Bellevue by the Canadians, says: "It would have been surprising had not our friends, the Canadians, filled with the traditions of the past, been moved to celebrate by some definite exploit, the eve of the third anniversary of the First Battle of Ypres. The Canadians, as it turned out, specially undertook to commemorate this anniversary by opening from the precipitous starting point of the Bellevue spur, a bold move towards Passchendaele."

MOST BRILLIANT FEAT OF FLANDERS CAMPAIGN. Hindered by almost insurmountable difficulties in an avalanche of rain under an enormous deluge of shell fire and machine gun fire without our artillery for a moment being able to aid them.

"WE EITHER PRESS FORWARD OR WE DIE."

ITALIAN SITUATION

(Canadian Press Despatch) ROME, Nov. 6.—The Italians have been compelled to evacuate territory in the mountainous area north of northern Italy in order to establish their new line, the war office reports. The enemy occupied this territory after the Italian withdrawal. The state ment follows: Besides persisting in intensified pressure from the zone of the upper Tagliamento against our left wing the enemy has pushed various detachments towards the middle and lower course of the river, some hostile vanguards which came into contact with detachments of a Great- adler brigade southwest of Sedico. Tagliamento were repulsed. To establish our new line we were compelled to evacuate portions of the territory in the mountainous area which has been occupied by the adversary after the withdrawal of our troops. This morning an enemy airplane was brought down at Narvesa.

ITALIANS RETIRING METHODICALLY (Canadian Press Despatch) ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS IN NORTHERN ITALY, Nov. 7.—The Italian retirement to new lines is being methodically carried out. The morale of the troops is good in all ranks. The cavalry is again acting as a rear-guard in screening movements and fighting heroically. The general situation is likely to continue grave for several days while the operations proceed of reconstruction along the new lines.

GERMAN PLAN FAILED.

(Canadian Press Despatch) ROME, Nov. 7.—(Tuesday)—The German plan has failed in regard to its political object, says a semi-official statement, issued here today. Strong confidence is felt that it will fail to accomplish its military object. The military situation, although difficult, is being held in hand while the political situation is excellent. All the living forces of the nation without the least discouragement are united for the attainment of the supreme aim, remaining at the side of the Allies and repulsing the threats and cajoleries of the enemy.

Naturally the military situation has been overturned completely since it has been changed from progressive penetration of the enemy's territory aiming at Laibach and Trieste into a war of manoeuvre on the Venetian Plains.

BERLIN REPORT (Canadian Press Despatch) BERLIN, via London, Nov. 6.—The Italian line on the Tagliamento river has been won by the Austro-Germans. It was officially announced today by the German General staff. The Italians have evacuated the entire line along the river to the Atlantic coast.

GAZA IN PALESTINE TAKEN BY BRITISH

(Canadian Press Despatch) LONDON, Nov. 7.—The British have captured the city of Gaza in Palestine, the war office announces. The British have made an advance of nine miles carrying the whole Turkish system of defences in this region and capturing two towns in addition to Gaza.

The new British offensive in Palestine which is being prosecuted vigorously, now that the oppressive heat of the summer season no longer causes enforced inactivity, is being developed along a front extending eastward from the Mediterranean coast Gaza is thirty miles north of the Egyptian border, near the coast, is about thirty miles southeast of Beer-sheva which the British captured a few days ago and fifty miles southwest of Jerusalem.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. W. F. H. GILL

Citizens were shocked and saddened yesterday morning on learning of the sudden death of Mr. W. F. H. Gill of the Post Office Inspectors Department. While returning home a little after midnight he accidentally tripped over some obstruction and fell striking his head on the sidewalk. When found he was unconscious. He was immediately taken home where he passed away before medical aid, which was quickly summoned, arrived. The late Mr. Gill was a valued member of the postal service for many years, and an obliging and efficient official. He was a prominent member of the Masonic Order and of the Sons of England and his death will be sincerely mourned by his brethren of these societies and by all others who knew him.

There are left to mourn his widow and three daughters, Miss Frances Gill of the Bank of Montreal at Halifax, Miss Jean and Miss Doris at home, also two brothers, Mr. John H. Gill of Gill & Arbing, Charlottetown and Professor Lester Gill of Queen's University, who is now with the Artillery at the front. There are also three sisters, Mrs. Daniel T. Fraser, Kingston, Mrs. Robt. McFarlane, Marshfield, and Mrs. Duncan in Western Canada. To the bereaved family and relatives in their sudden and peculiarly sad bereavement the Guardian tenders sincere sympathy.
