IN MEMORIAM

MRS. PIUS WALSH

It is with feelings of deep regret that we are called upon to record the death of Mrs. Pius Walsh of Morell, at the Charlottetown Hospital on October 21st, which sad event brought to the hearts of all who knew her feelings of deepest sorrow and sympathy for her bereaved family. Although she had for some time been suffering from an incurable disease, she was never heard to murmur or complain. She was frequently visited by her pastor, Rev. Joseph Rooney, whose kind and comforting words brightened her pathway and renewed in her heart that true Christian patience and resignation to the Will of God.

About three weeks previous to her death it was decided that she would be taken to the Charlottetown Hospital, where constant medical attendance might hasten her recovery, but Divine Providence willed otherwise and medical skill and loving hands could not stay the hand of Death and fortified by the last rites of her holy religion, with her loved ones standing around her bedside, on the morning of the above mentioned date she passed peacefully away at the age of 62 years.

The deceased was a woman of sterling integrity, who, by her

PIMPLES OVER FACE AND HANDS

Irritation-Caused Scratching. Healed by Cuticura.

"I had pimples all over my face and hands. The pimples were small and festered, and the irritation caused me to scratch. Scratching caused eruptions, and I could not rest or sleep either day or night. "I used several remedies but got no relief. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it three days I got relief so purchased more, and within a month I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Adelaide Thomas, 45 Hohner Ave., Kitchener, Ont.

Use Cuticura Soap daily for the toilet, assisted by Cuticura Ointment when required, and have a clear, fresh complexion, free from pimples and blackheads.

amiable disposition won the love and esteem, not only of those with whom she associated but by all who knew her. By her death, Morrell loses a charitable neighbor, the Catholic Church a pious and devoted member and her beloved husband and family a loving wife and mother.

Her remains were taken by train to Morell Station Friday evening, where a large number of mourning friends awaited their arrival and followed in solemn procession to her home.

On Sunday afternoon her remains, followed by a large course of mourning friends and relatives, were conveyed to St. Lawrence's Church. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Joseph Rooney. The ceremony was solemn and impressive. At the conclusion the cortege reformed and silently proceeded to the cemetery and there within the family plot and within the Shadow of the Cross all that was mortal of that dear departed one was tenderly consigned to the earth. She also leaves two sisters and one brother, namely: Mrs. Arthur Bates, Brocton, Mass.; Mrs. Thomas Lynch, Rumford, Maine; Frank Dougherty, Brighton, Mass.

The deceased leaves a sorrowing husband, two sons and three daughters, and a number of grandchildren to mourn. —Mrs. E. J. Hennebery, Morell; Mrs. Milton Palmer, San Francisco; Mrs. Frank Jay, St. Peter's Bay; Richard Lockwood, Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. John C. McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sinnott, Mrs. Alyward and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Currie, Mrs. A. McDonald, Mrs. Margaret Murphy and Mary family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perry and Mrs. Patrick Clarkin and family.

including a beautiful wreath from the family. A precious one from us is gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in our home That never can be filled.

It was hard to take the last farewell. To God's Holy Will we bow. And in our aching hearts did say, "We have no Mother now."

Yet again we hope to meet her. When our days on earth are fled And in Heaven once more to greet her. Where no farewell tears are shed.
