

HERE'S WARMING, SOOTHING RELIEF FROM YOUR RHEUMATIC ACES

For prompt relief from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or Lumbago, you can depend on Sloan's Liniment. The warming, soothing, counter-irritant effect is the quickest way to overcome the inflammation, swelling or stiffness. A few drops go right to the sore part, draw the blood from the congested place and remove the cause of the ache.

Sloan's Liniment makes rubbing needless. It is easier and cleaner to use than plasters or poultices. It does not stain the skin or clog the pores. A bottle of Sloan's Liniment is all you need for quick rest and relief from the pains of sprains, bruises, back-ache, stiffneck, and most forms of rheumatic twinges. Generous size bottles at druggists everywhere. Made in Canada.

Laurier's Death Recalls Prediction of "Big John" MONTREAL, Feb. 20.—"Big John Canadian" often described as Canada's most famous guide, whose spirit left his body on Sunday morning for "The Happy Hunting Grounds", made the following curious prediction in 1884: "When I die, you shall be frightened," he said to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, whose body now lies in state. Between the deaths of Sir Wilfrid and of "Big John" was one day's interval, reminding Montrealeers of a scene witnessed in 1884. The two were preparing to celebrate St. Jean Baptiste Day in that year, and the late A. Carriereau, one of the most zealous organizers of the celebration, was speaking with Sir Wilfrid on Notre Dame Street, near Place D'Armes, in Montreal, when "Big John" arrived with a band of his "braves". Mr. Carriereau introduced "Big John" to his friends. Sir Wilfrid asked the Indian how old he was. "I am 43 years old," he replied. "We are almost of the same age," said Sir Wilfrid Laurier. "I will be 43 at my next birthday." "Well" replied "Big John" "when I die you shall be frightened." Everybody nearby had a good laugh on hearing the Indian's words, and the Indian went away. "Big John," whose prowess in shooting the Lachine Rapids is known far and wide, died on Sunday and Sir Wilfrid Laurier on Monday.

All Fat People Should Know This The world owes a debt of gratitude to the author of the now famous Marmola Prescription, and is still more indebted for the reduction of this harmless, effective obesity remedy to tablet form. KINGSTON SERVICES

Notwithstanding the unfavorable condition of roads and weather the Evangelistic meetings at Kingston, bid fair to equal if not excel the gloriously successful campaign held at North River. Each night brings larger congregations and deeper interest. On Tuesday night the pastor Rev. H. R. Bell, took as his subject "How the thief on the Cross was saved," treating it in a manner which showed much originality of thought, deep convicting power and underlying all that earnest desire to win souls for the Master, which characterizes his services at all times. The congregation singing in hymns carefully chosen was bright and inspiring, while selections appropriate to the services are rendered by members of the North River Choir. As fine weather and good roads are likely to draw larger crowds those coming from a distance are urged to be present early and thus secure comfortable seats for themselves and shedroom for their horses. APPOINTED TO HANSARD STAFF—As the result of the Civil Service examination in Ottawa on Tuesday, Mr. T. S. Hubbard, Provincial Court Stenographer, of this city, has been appointed to the Hansard staff for reporting the House of Commons proceedings. Eighteen candidates entered the examination but only two survived the final test and Mr. Hubbard was offered and accepted the appointment on the spot. Mr. Hubbard is to be heartily congratulated upon his success which he richly deserves for it is the result of merit. He will be greatly missed here and his place as official stenographer will be difficult to fill. Mr. Hubbard joined the Guardian staff in 1913, and in 1915 was appointed official stenographer to the Supreme Court. As a shorthand reporter he has few equals in Canada. His speed is 200 words per minute, and he can transcribe his notes on the typewriter with a speed and facility that borders on the marvellous, while regretting his loss to the Province everyone who knows Mr. Hubbard will join the Guardian in heartily congratulating him on his well earned and well deserved appointment.

Be Pretty! Turn Gray Hair Dark Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.
